A Red Hot Game.

The warmest time in the history of the Gladstone athletic field was the game of baseball Monday afternoon between the county and city officials for the benefit of the Volunteer reception fund. Everybody closed up their places of business and took an afternoon vacation at the park. The players were arranged in costumes, and the colors of the city were red and white, while the county guardians were blue and white. The teams lined up as follows:

CITY COUNCIL	COUNTY OFFICIALS
F Metzger	p T P Randall
C Schuebel	c J J Cook
C G Huntley	1b P Nelson
C D Latourette	2b N W Boyland
A Min	3b J E Jack
F Busch	ss T F Ryan
B C Curry	lf Dr Strickland
R Koerner	cf Elmer Dixon
J G Bradley	rf E H Cooper

Gilbert L. Hedges was umpire, and J. E. Hedges was timekeeper. Dr. Sommer prevented the game from growing monotonous with his red-crawfish ambulance wagon, which was one of the features of the afternoon. Dr. Carl showed his running qualities when the ambulance wagon tried to mob him while he was substitute umpire. Some brilliant plays were made. County Recorder Randall proved to be an expert pitcher and piled up records for his side. Judge Ryan as a batter was all right. Sheriff Cook and Councilman Schuebel as catchers did some good work for their respective teams. Treasurer Shade was grand marshal. At the close of the intensely interesting contest the score stood 28 to 8 in favor of the county. Mrs. Charles W. Pope wore the colors for the city, and Miss Ina Chase for the county. The gate receipts were $73 for the fund, besides the $1 each contributed by the players.

Press Reception.

About 150 women members of the National Press Association, now in session at Portland, came up in charge of the reception committee on the steamer Pomona Wednesday afternoon and visited the paper mills. The Young Men's Christian Association Women's Auxiliary arranged a reception for the visitors at the parlors of the Willamette club. The visitors were given bouquets, which they highly appreciated. Short addresses of welcome were made by Hon. William Galloway, Hon. C. B. Moores, Hon. John Minto, of Salem, and Mrs. Eva Emory Dye, referring to matters of early historic interest. The visitors were delighted with the flowers and delightful scenery.

Praise Service at the Congregational Church.

The choir of the Congregational church, under the direction of Professor E. E. Cumston, will render a praise service next Sunday evening which promises to be a treat for the lovers of sacred music. The service will consist of selections from "Queen Esther." The regular choir will be assisted by Meses. Dresser and Charman and Messrs. Dr. Freeman and Randall. The public is most cordially invited.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to Noblitt & Co. will be expected to call and settle at once. No exceptions will be made, as we wish to pay our bills, and desire others to do likewise so that we can.
