Miss Attle Holden, of Portland, is visiting Miss Essie Block.

John Trembath, jr., of Astoria, is visiting his parents here.

Mrs. Kate Spulax, of New Era, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Miss Abigail L. Robb, of Boise City, Idaho, is visiting Mrs. J. P. Lovett.

H. T. Hallen has returned from a week's visit to his home at Oswego.

James Shannon, of Beaver Creek, was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday.

Miss Mina Kelly, of the land office, has been ill at her home for several days.

Rev. S. Copley is attending the Evangelical camp meeting at Milwaukie this week.

W. T. Hankins, who was visiting his parents for several weeks, left yesterday for Eastern Oregon.

A. R. Doolittle returned Saturday from an extended visit to California, much improved in health.

Mrs. M. B. Green and Mrs. Wm. Carroll left for Tillamook, Saturday, and will spend a month's vacation.

Hon. John Dennison, of Clarkes, was a visitor here Wednesday, and reports prospects good for an excellent crop.

Hon. C. B. Moores was in Salem, during the week, and gave the address of welcome to the visiting editors Tuesday.

G. A. Heinz, Sid Mohlar, P. Farr and Mack Godfrey, of Portland, have gone to the Abiqua on a fishing excursion.

John and William Vegelius, John Knapp and Heiney Dieck left yesterday for Long Beach, to remain for several weeks.

Miss Effie Leabo of New York and Miss Della Leabo of McMinnville were visiting Mrs. M. J. Broderick during the week.

Ed Baker left Wednesday for Eugene to look for a hotel location. Mrs. Baker is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Williams.

Rev. T. J. Cocking, accompanied by his family, has arrived from Plainview, has assumed the pastorate of the United Brethren church.

G. W. Hannegan, who was at Belknap Springs with E. E. Charman, is slightly crippled as the result of an accident, and returned home Monday.

Col. Robert A. Miller joined the editorial excursion at Albany, and did good work in explaining interesting things on the trip to the visitors.

Assessor Eli Williams is now being assisted in the office by his son, Lloyd, and C. M. Toole, of Canemah. Mr. Williams attended the assessors' convention in Portland Wednesday.

Miss Pearl Himler returned from Salem Wednesday, having visited her brother, Henry, at the asylum. He is much improved, and the doctor says he will be discharged in a week.

P. E. Cox, who was formerly special agent of the general land office with headquarters here, arrived yesterday, and is visiting friends. Mr. Cox is now a practicing attorney at Franklin, Tenn. He expects to remain in Oregon for several weeks.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery returned yesterday from a visit to government camp, at Mount Hood. He says the toll gate is now open, but he walked over two and a half miles of snow to reach the camp. Rev. Montgomery says people should not start to Mount Hood before the 24th.

A well known private in company I, recently wrote to his father to never vote for expansion.

The school board has awarded the contract for putting in the new furnace for the Eastham building to Carl Anderson and Charles J. McPherson, of Portland.

George A. Hamilton returned from the Klondike country Sunday, after an absence of nearly two years, and is in excellent health. He owns a promising claim on Gold Run, where he has been mining. James Heckhart, James Hayward and George Tucker are mining on Dominion. Mr. Campbell and son are on Eldorado. F. F. White had a promising job of carpenter work contracted for, while Fairclough brothers are doing well on their claim on Hunter Creek. Oliver Ohison started on the 17th of June for St. Michaels, and will probably come direct home. Sheriff Grace reached there three days before Mr. Hamilton left, having reached Dawson in 14 days from Oregon City. Mr. Hamilton says that while the gold out put is larger than ever before, only a small portion of the number of claims paid and but few new strikes have been made. Many of the reported new discoveries being fakes. He estimates that two-thirds of the population will come out this season.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

A number of Baptist young people had a very delightful lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Latourette last Friday evening.

George Root, of Needy, an old and feeble man, was examined before County Judge Ryan Wednesday, but Dr Sommer decided that he was sane. The judge appointed Wheeler Church, as guardian of the old man, with instructions to see that Harry Cochran provided means for his support. About three years ago Root deeded his property to Cochran upon condition that he would support him during the remainder of his life.

The county clerk and treasurer Wednesday completed their annual reports for the year ending June 30, 1899. The clerk's report shows that the total amount of warrants issued during this time was $43,122.05. The county's liabilities, consisting of outstanding warrants and estimated accrued interest thereon, amount to $149,788.23, and the total resources, exclusive of public property, amount to $41,131.67, leaving a net indebtedness of $108,656.56.

H. C. Stevens, whose three year term of office as water commissioner expired July 1st, has filed a protest against the election of R. D. Wilson, claiming that such election was illegal, inasmuch as the mayor made the casting vote by viva voce instead of by ballot. He declines to give up his place as a member of the water commission until it is shown that Wilson is legally elected. Mr. Wilson and his friends, however, claim that the election was regular, and the matter remains unsettled.

The Kings' Daughters of St. Paul's Episcopal church gave a most delightful lawn party at the home of H. L. Kelly, Wednesday evening. The news of the arrival of the volunteers was received here Wednesday afternoon by the Postal Telegraph first, and gave the signal for Roake's cannon to start the demonstration. This was followed by the enthusiastic applause of numerous mill and factory whistles, shouts, firing of firecrackers and bombs. Later in the evening Mayor Latourette received a telegram from Lieutenant Campbell conveying the information that the members of Company I were all in good health. Lee Harding sent a telegram to his parents conveying words of greeting and similar information.

Yesterday morning the news was received from San Francisco that the boys want no reception, and have asked to be mustered out at San Francisco, as they will get their travel pay in that way. It is said that the entire regiment, including Colonel Summers, desire to come home by land. Arrangements, however, are under way to compromise the matter.

Fifty Germans, who served in the Prussian wars, have organized a company of veterans, and will parade for the reception of the volunteers if they come home in a body. These veterans will wear sashes of red, white and blue and medals of honor. Joseph Kuerten is commander and Frank Busch adjutant. They drilled in the armory last Sunday.

At the meeting held last Saturday night, it was decided not to have wines served at the banquet.

Two members of Company I were mustered out in Manila, who went from Oregon City. They are Private Joseph E. Harding and Timothy McMillen.

Bohlander-Edwards.

Miss Lydia Edwards and Valentine Bohlander, two popular young people of Beaver Creek, were married at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Bohlander, Tuesday. Rev. Esig was the officiating clergyman. A splendid wedding luncheon was served. In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were serenaded by about 30 young people in the neighborhood, who were entertained in a social way until midnight. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bohlander, John Bohlander, Mrs. Cooper, and Miss Wolfe, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Munsey, Mr. Mrs. Steiner, and Fred Steiner, of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Weidner, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe, Misses Lou Steiner and Nettie Studeman, of Beaver Creek; Rev. and Mrs. Staub, Miss Ethel Bailey, of Portland; Misses Sarah and Mary Davis, of Maple Lane; Mr. and Miss Bailey, of Oregon City; Mr. Willis Daniels, Mrs. J. Ruonich and two sons, Miss Lizzie Bohlander, Mrs. Bohlander, and Miss Ferris Edwards.

To The Public.

In justice to the parties concerned, I wish to state that before I sold my residence property on Seventh street to Dr. M. C. Strickland I rented the property to some strangers who had every appearance of being respectable people, and when I delivered the deed to the doctor I had no knowledge, nor had he any notice, of the character of the business it was proposed to be carried on in the place. (Signed) GEO. H. WISHART.

Special excursion for the lectures on July 18 and 19 from Albany, Lebanon and intermediate points to Oregon City for one fare for the round trip.

Mrs. Alice Clara Wheeler, of Oakland, arrived this morning to take charge of the elocution classes at the assembly. Mrs. Wheeler is said to be the most accomplished elocutionist on this coast. She will take a limited number of private pupils from now until the close of the assembly.

Mrs. M. M. Charman, Prof. T. J. Gary, of Oregon City, and Miss Florence Patty of Gladstone have been appointed on the entertainment committee. All who can take roomers or boarders during the assembly will please notify this committee or W. H. Gray at once.

Campers are pouring in unusually early, many are already on the grounds and Mr. Cross is kept constantly busy locating sites. Two hundred young men in a club are moving up from Portland and the Chemawa school are already on their way. Many from Salem and Oregon City are getting settled.

Jahu Dewitt Miller follows Sam Jones on Thursday and Friday. Miller is great. Camden Coburn, booked here for Friday, is now speaking at the Ashland assembly. They pronounce his one of the best they ever had. The Chautauqua's claim the best talent this year they have ever had.

The Editors.

The editors of the National association have come and gone. The trip through Western Oregon was a continuation of most agreeable revelations to the visitors. The wheat fields, cozy farms, orchards, big cherries and thriving towns of the Willamette valley and variety of scenery gave delight and satisfaction. The cornfields, immense orchards, oak-covered hills and mines of Southern Oregon, was replete with pleasant surprises. Words could hardly express the favorable impression received and many of them exclaimed that he hospitality surpassed that of any

The people of Oregon have treated the visiting editors royally, and some very fine complimentary write-ups that will prove of great advantage to Oregon will no doubt result.

The visitors were fond in their praise of the treatment accorded them by State Secretary Albert Tozier and his sister, Mrs. Edyth Wethered, who were prevented from going the excursion on account of the death of their father, Judge Tozier, the honored pioneer. Mr. Tozier was elected third vice-president of the National association. He was largely instrumental in securing this meeting of the National association for Portland.

Other instances of the trip will be given out next week.
