 David Wagner, of Currys' Landing, was a prominent visitor in town Monday.

Miss Freda Goldsmith, of Eugene, who has been visiting relatives here for the past three weeks, left Monday for her home. She was accompanied home by Miss Beatrice Barlow, who will visit the Goldsmiths for awhile.
 Will S. Rhoades, of Oregon City, is here on a visit and may remain. Mr. Rhoades is an enthusiastic baseball player and pitcher of merit. He is ambidextrous, pitching as well with his left as with his right hand.—Rossland B. C. Miner.

Jacob Miley, the Wilsonville hop-grower, was in the city Monday and Tuesday. He states that the yield of hops will be short of that last year on account of the late cold weather preventing the vines from spreading. However, the quality of the crop will be good, unless the lice should get in their deadly work.

Frank Winslow and Will Dutcher returned from Ocean park on the Tillamook coast, Monday. They report excellent fishing, a good road, milk, bread, horse feed and other supplies cheap. The weather was cold while they were there, and but few visitors had arrived there. However, while coming out they met hundreds of people going to the coast.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

H. E. Harris completed the contract of crushing 800 yards of crushed rock for the city last Friday.

D. A. Dillman is meeting with good success in his agency for Johnston's combination wrench. It is an invaluable tool, and is in great demand everywhere.

On last Saturday the new barn of Mrs. Toak, near Willamette Falls, was raised with appropriate ceremonies. The builders of the structure were J. B. Taylor and Charles Meek.

The Oregon Mortgage Company Limited, has filed a foreclosure suit against J. A. Logan, et al, in the circuit court. Mary A. Brown has filed a suit for a divorce from Charles J. Brown, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment.

P. Roos' little child was accidentally run over by the hind wheel of Barney Frederick's buggy, Monday afternoon, receiving some slight scalp wounds. Accidents of this kind are becoming of frequent occurrence on upper Seventh street.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for July 30th, "Spirit;" Sunday school at 12:10; Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to attend these services.

The Oregon regiment consisted of 1316 enlisted men and 56 officers, of which number 49 were lost and two deserted. The Oregon boys were in 42 red-hot engagements, in every one of which they distinguished themselves for bravery and good marksmanship.

During the past week Charles Humphreys received seven dozen snap shot views of Philippine war scenes from his brother, Fred Humphreys. The pictures form an exceptionally fine collection, and represent scenes of battle, in the trenches, notable buildings, scenery, etc.

Rasmussen Brothers have almost completed two neat cottages in West Gladstone—one for C. R. Lewthwaite, and the other for H. C. Salisbury. Mr. Lewthwaite has already moved into his new home, and the cottage of Mr. Salisbury, will be ready for occupancy by the first of the month.

W. T. McKee, who had been sentenced to 30 days in the county jail for the larceny of some postage stamps and a revolver, secured his liberty Monday. His wife arrived from British Columbia, and paid all costs, making good the articles stolen. She stated that they had been publishing a newspaper in British Columbia, but had disposed of it; that McKee had formerly taken treatment for the liquor habit, and since that time indulgences completely upset his mind.

The San Francisco Chronicle in speaking of the arrival of the volunteers at Manila, states that 12 months of the hardest sort of service in Manila has not made the volunteers into regulars, and they are not sheep to follow where others lead. All the men of Puritan ancestry and Anglo-saxon traditions left without government they fall at once into the forms of the old town meeting. In Manila they submitted it to popular vote, whether they should go to Portland or to San Francisco—836 voted for San Francisco and only 36 for Portland. At sea they balloted again, and the vote was unanimous for San Francisco.

At the adjourned term of the county board of commissioners held last Saturday, Ralph E. Moody for the East Side Railway Company and W. D. Fenton for the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, appeared and presented arguments showing that the granting of a franchise to G. C. Fields to build a motor line on the county road to Canemah, was illegal. Citations from decisions of the supreme court were read showing motor lines could not be forced through private property, especially when operated by private parties. G. C. Fields appeared before the board upon notification, and asked for a continuance, as he was busy dispatching cars at Gladstone park, and his attorney was out of town. The board set August 8th at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time for further hearing of the matter.

County Road Engineer Council reports that good progress is being made on the Molalla road improvement. It is estimated that it will take a month to complete the grading. Teams now drive on the new road around the Howard hill. On an average of 20 teams are employed in handling the dirt. A splendid seven per cent grade is being made on the Spangler hill, and people, who have occasion to travel over the thoroughfare in that direction, speak very highly of the new road improvement.

The New Era spiritual camp meeting closed a very successful session Sunday night, and its friends state that the attendance was very satisfactory. The attendance was unusually large Sunday. Rev. W. O. Bowman gave his best lecture, and Mrs. S. Cowell and Miss Dixon, of California, gave spiritual manifestations, etc., in a correct and interesting way. At the business meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Charles F. Buckles, Canemah; vice-president, Mrs. Kate Obrock, Portland; treasurer, B. F. Fuller, McMinnville; secretary, E. W. Penman, New Era; corresponding-secretary, W. P. Williams.
