GENERAL ORDERS

For Parade on Volunteer Reception Day, Aug. 11, 1899.

HEADQUARTERS OF COMNITTEE ON RECEPTION TO VOLUNTEERS, ARMORY HALL, August 8th, 1899.

The undersigned having been elected grand marshal of parade for volunteer reception day, hereby promulgates the following orders and appoints the members of his staff.

1-Headquarters will be established on Main street, at intersec tion of Sixth street.

2-I hereby appoint Dr. E. A. Sommer chief of staff, George Warner chief sid, and M. E. Willoughby, Edward Johnson, Sergt. H. L. Kelly, Corporal W. Boylan, Joseph Knerten, W. B. Wiggins, W. S. U'Ren, Sherman Burford, C. N. Greenman, J. P. Keating, C. U. Wilson, Sol. Garde, Gilbert Hedges, Dr. W. G Parker and Bruce C. Curry as aids, and Frank Confer bugler.

Members of the staff will report, mounted, to Chief of Staff Dr. E.A. Sommer at 9 o'clock a. m. Friday, Aug. 11th, 1899, and receive orders for duty and assignment.

The band will report at headquarters promptly at 9 a. m., ready

3-The organizations forming the vanguard of the escort of honor to Company I, Second Oregon U. S. Volunteers, consisting of Company F, O. N. G., Mead Post No. 2, G. A. R., Union Veterans' Union, German War Veterans, Oregon City Boys' Brigade and J. Roake Battery, will assemble at the armory at 9:30 a. m. to escort Company I, Second Oregon Volunteers (who will be at the armory at that time) to their position in the column.

The young girls' flower committee, in carriages, will be at headquarters at 9:45 a. m.

4-At 9:45 a. m. the vanguard of escort column will form on Main street south of Fourth street, head of column resting on Fourth street, in the order above named, and, with the band, will move north on Main street in charge of staff officers, escorting Company I, Second Oregon U. S. Volunteers to their position in the line.

The several other organizations and societies taking part in the parade will assemble at their several places of meeting and proceed to places designated on line of formation, and be in such positions not later than 9:45 a.m., as follows:

Ancient Order United Workmen-On Sixth street, west side of Main street, right resting on Main street.

St. John's Branch No 647, C. K. of A .- On Sixth street, west side of Main street, in rear of A. O. U. W. Artisans-On Sixth street, east side of Main street, right resting on Main street. Other organizations not having had time to report before these orders go to press, or before day of parade, will ki dly report to the grand murshal at headquarters on day of the parade not later than 9:30 a. m., when they will be assigned to positions in the line. 5-The vanguard of column will form promptly at 9:55 a.m., on Main street north of Sixth street, head resting on Sixth street, and , as it moves south on Main street, the various organizations formed on the cross streets each side of Main street will form in rear of column as it moves past. The organizations formed on west side of Main street will have precedence over the organizations formed on same street on east side of Main street.

6-The column at 10 a. m. sharp will move south on Main street in the following order:

The column will continue south on Main street to the woolen mills; thence countermarch down Main street to Tenth street; thence east on Tenth street and up the hill road to Seventh street; thence east on Seventh street to Center street; thence south on Center street to Broderick's park. At entrance to park the column will be halted, the vanguard forming in open ranks and will present arms as the honored guests, Company I, Second Oregon U. S. Volunteers, march through and are presented with floral tributes by the young ladies' floral committee and are received by the ladies of Meade Corps Volunteer Auxiliary, who will form a special body escort for them from park entrance to the grand stand. The veterans will close ranks and march into park directly behind the volunteers, followed by Company F. O. N. G., Oregon City Boys' Brigade and rear guard of escort column, to positions at grand stand as directed by the grand marshal.

7-At the conclusion of the entertainment to be given at the grand stand, Company I, Second Oregon U. S. Volunteers, will be escorted to the banquet hall in the park by the veterans and militia, where a banquet in their honor will be served and the exercises of the day concluded.

All other organizations will be dismissed at the conclusion of the entertainment at the grand stand, so they can mingle with the gen-

8-Upon arrival of the train bringing Company I, Second Oregon U. S. Volunteers, to this city, a national salute will be fired in their honor by the salute committee (J. Roake, chairman,) and the company will be met at the train by the veterans and militia, their relatives, friends and the citizens in general, and, after greetings, will be escorted to the armory, from which place they will, at the appointed time, be escorted to their place in the line as above stated.

During the parade the young girls' flower committee will strew flowers before and over the returning heroes from their carriages in the line. .

1 p. m .- Banquet. Dr. W. E. Carll. toastmaster.

ADDITIONAL RECEPTION NOTES. Senator Brownell, Dr. W. E. Carll, Mayor C. D. Latourette, A. S. Dresser. Tom F. Cowing and others went to A!bany to escort the volunteers home. Dr. Carll had in custody the flag presented to the company by Meade Reli-f- Corpe before they started to the Spanish war, to be used in the parade at Albany. It has since been in the care of Cuptain

Pickens. A couple of hundred or more volumteers passed through on the two sections of the overland train Wednesday forenoon. Only five were Oregon City boys, and they stopped off to see the folks at home. About 1500 people were at the train, for the news had reached here that some of the Company I boys were on board, but their names had not been learned. Many anxious mothers and relatives watched the passengers in a longing, nervous, expectant way, hoping to see some particular long-absent soldier. The mill and factory whistles blew when the train pulled in and the air was full of welcoming cheers. The boys who returned were Corporal Max Kesslering and Private Lester P. Smith, of Company 1; Sergeant Frank Weed, of Company A; Leon Holland and Fred Humphreys, of Company M. William Robinson, of Company H, of Clackamas, was also on the train. Holland returned to Salem in the evening. Humphreys is still suffering with rheumatism.

The greetings of the special train this afternoon bearing the volunteers were loud, long and enthusiastic. Standing privileges around the depot were crow.ted upon.

The responses to the toasts at the banquet will be short and of an impromptu order. Dr. Carll, the toastmaster, says that responses will probably be made by returned soldiers from Manila.
