

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. J. Vegelius and children are visiting at Champeog.

W. P. Herman was in from Molala during the first of the week.

Miss Zora Forester, of Eagle Creek, is visiting Mrs. S. F. Scripture.

Mrs. S. F. Scripture has returned from a visit to relatives Esle creek.

City Recorder Bruce Curry left Wednesday night for a visit to Seattle.

Miss Celia Goldsmith returned yesterday from a two week's visit to San Francisco.

G. H. Feathers and G. W. Lee were registered at the Electric hotel from Damascus Wednesday.

Miss Hattie Cochrane, who has been visiting the Misses Kelly at Long Beach, will return home today.

E. B. Andrews returned yesterday from Vancouver, B. C., where he has been employed for some time.

Henry Meldrum has completed his surveying contract in Eastern Oregon, and returned home Wednesday night accompanied by Joe Moffatt and Charles Gallogly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stevens, jr., after an absence of nearly two years in San Francisco, arrived yesterday and are visiting their parental firesides.

Martin L. Chamberlain, who was recently appointed chairman of the state school land commission by Governor Geer, is a brother of Mrs. C. B. Moores, wife of Register Moores, of the land office.

H. S. Gibson, Mrs. H. F. Gibson, Ralph and Cora Gibson, of Eagle creek; and Mrs. G. W. Church, returned Wednesday from a berrying trip above Salmon river. The berries were plentiful, but the weather was damp and cold. Mr. Gibson will begin the fall term of school at Russellville September 18th.

Ex-Sheriff G. W. Grace, James Heckart and George Tucker returned yesterday from Dawson. They report that lots of provisions and supplies are being sent in there; that while many men have left the Klondike this season, there are still many out of employment. It is expected that the wage scale will be about $5 per day this winter. They report no new strikes in the Klondike country.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

The local news are printed in this paper one day sooner than other journal.

Elsie Leone Hames and Lewis Wise, of Portland, were married at the court house Wednesday, County Judge Ryan officiating.

The county clerk issued wedding licenses to Cordelia Wallace and E. A. Klarr on Sep. 2nd, and Lillian Wills and A. E. Derry on the 5th.

L. L. Moore, principal of the Milwaukie school was married last Sunday to Miss Sara Jones, near Gervais. Mr. and Mrs. Moore came down on the Roseburg local Monday morning and boarded an electric car for Milwaukie.

The most complete and valuable display of Filipino curios ever displayed in Oregon City is now on exhibition in Huntley's window. They were brought over by Herman K. Jones from Manila, and the collection is worth hundreds of dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eudy, who are pioneers of 1856, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Friday. Members of the Methodist Episcopal called in a body and spent the day, Mrs. Eudy having been a member of the local organization for 43 years. There were also present other pioneers, and the following from Portland: Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Varwig, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Vanstone, Miss Lena Haddaway, John Eudy and A. P. Eudy. Some tasty and valuable presents were given to the honored couple.

The Corvallis Times gives an extended account of the marriage of Senator Porter to Miss Ora Spangler, which was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents in Corvallis Tuesday by Dr. E. J. Thompson, of the Presbyterian church. The wedding march was played by Miss D. Lyle Lawrence. The bridesmaids were Miss Erma Lawrence, and Miss Alice Samuels, of Portland. Fielding Kelly was best man. The other guests from Oregon City were Mrs. McAdam and Dr. Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Porter left on the afternoon train for Portland and San Francisco.

Oregon City will be pretty well represented at the state university at Eugene this week. Among those who will leave for Eugene next week are: W. G. Beattie, F. G. Thayer, Waldo Adams, Rea Norris and probably Sam Stevens. Arthur Paddock, of Clackamas, will also attend. Arthur Holden and Howard Brownell will attend the business college in Portland. Claude Williams will also attend school in Portland. Trafton and Emery Dye will enter Pacific university at Forest Grove. J. H. Carrico, an Oregon City boy, who grad uated at the state university last June was awarded the scholarship in the medical department, and will attend medical lectures.

A Music Album free. From Sept. 3 to Nov. 3, the Sunday World will issue weekly a song in sheet music form, with handsome colored cover. The entire set will be mailed, postage paid, for 50 cents. Remittances received after Sept. 3 will get the back numbers and each new number issued. Besides the song, The World will also send its colored Art Portfolio, which is a marvel of journalism; its Sunday Magazine, which equals the monthly periodicals, and its Comic Weekly, which excels every comic weekly in the United States except two, and in its comic scope equals these two 10-cent publications.

Write a postal card to the Sunday World Music Editor, Pulitzer Building, N. Y., for a list of the songs.

City Council.

The city council held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday night. Mayor Latourette presided, and all the councilmen were present except Schuebel and Charman.

The utmost harmony and kindly courtesies prevailed. It seemed as though peace had been restored between the bickering factions, and only a splinter of the buried hatchet was noticeable. Paul Husock and Frank Nehren were granted liquor licenses, while the application of J. W. Cole was referred back for proper advertising. The acceptance of the motor line franchise granted G. C. Fields was read and ordered recorded. Mayor Latourette read his veto of the wide tire ordinance, which was unanimously sustained. The veto was based on the ground that there were no tires in the market of the width specified for 3 1/4 skeins; also that it discriminated in favor of draymen who used iron axles, and was especially hard on farmers. On motion of Koerner, it was recommended that the committee on streets and public property prepare a new ordinance leaving out the objectionable features.

The committee on health and police reported that Richards' fish market was kept in a cleanly condition, but suggested that the condition of the stable at the rear of the buildings could be improved.

The usual grist of bills were allowed, including about $130 for street work. The recorder was allowed $12 for another map of the cemetery.

WATER MUDDLE.

Wilson Seated, and the Matter to Be Contested at the Expense of the State.

The water commission held a meeting Friday afternoon and effected an organization for the coming year. R. D. Wilson, the newly elected water commissioner, was seated. All the old officers were re-elected as follows: Charles H. Caulfield, president; T. Leonard Charman, secretary, and W. H. Howell, superintendent. Wilson nominated H. E. Harris for water superintendent, who received one vote.

On Saturday H. C. Stevens, as relator for the State of Oregon, filed a suit to oust R. D. Wilson. The complaint is signed by Hedges & Griffith, attorneys, and T. J. Cleeton, prosecuting attorney for the fifth district, by G. B. Dimick, deputy. The complaint alleges that no successor to H. C. Stevens as a water commissioner of Oregon City has been elected by the city council as required by law, and said H. C. Stevens is entitled to hold said office until his successor is elected by the council and has qualified. The complaint further recites that on July 1st, defendant filed with the secretary of the board of water commissioners a pretended certificate of election to the office of water commissioner of Oregon City, and on said day and continuously hitherto the defendant, without any legal warrant or right, and notwithstanding the term of H. C. Stevens, has intruded himself into and has used and exercised and still does unlawfully intrude himself into and usurp and use and exercise the office of a water commissioner, to the damage of said Oregon City, of the relator and also against the law and peace of the state of Oregon. The relator prays judgment that the defendant is not entitled to said office or to use or exercise any of the functions thereof and that he be ousted therefrom, and that the relator be adjudged to be a duly elected and qualified water commissioner, and that he recover his costs and disbursements herein.

On the same day a motion was filed by C. U. Wilson, attorney for R. D. Wilson, moving the court that the information be stricken from the files and the case be dismissed, for the reason that no docket fee was paid or tendered the clerk when such information was filed. The defendant further moves for an order requiring the relator in the above entitled action to make more definite and certain that part of his information relating to the election and exercise of office, so as to show in what respect defendant's election to office of water commissioner was illegal, and in what manner he exercises the function of the office without legal warrant.

Last Call.

Sheriff Cooke has begun to post executions for sale of property delinquent for 1898 taxes, and unless taxpayers call on the sheriff at once, costs will be added. Mr. Cooke has held off the sale as long as he possibly could and he has gone so far as to notify every delinquent taxpayer by mail where his address was obtainable, and is now obliged by order of the court to sell.

CHURCH GOSSIP.

First Baptist Church Secures a New Pastor.

Rev. Joseph Deaven, of Mendota, Ill., has accepted a call as pastor of the First Baptist church here, and will take charge of the pastorate on October 1st. Rev. Deaven has acceptably filled the pulpits of the Baptist churches at Spokane and Walla Walla, and is said to be a very talented pulpit orator. In 1878 he attended McMinnville college, and went East to complete his course in William Jewell college.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for September 10th, "Matter." Sunday school at 12:10. Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to attend these services.

The first day of the Jewish New Year, or Rosh Hashanah, was fittingly observed by the Jewish residents of Oregon City by closing their places of business. The season of penitence culminates on the 10th day with the atonement, concluding with the feast of tabernacles.

The rites of infant baptism were observed with impressive ceremonies at the Episcopal church last Sunday. The children were the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Harris, and the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wright.

Several new members were admitted to membership by letter in the Congregational church last Sunday. Professor E. E. Cumpston will probably be retained as leader of the choir.

Death of Mrs. Lake.

The funeral of Mrs. Charlotte Lake was from 229 College street, Portland, on September 1st. Mrs. Lake was born in the State of New York, Feb. 15th, 1813; was married to Seth Lake at Rochester, Mich., May 27th, 1841, who died Feb. 8th, 1888. Three of their six children preceded them to the better land. The remaining three are C. W. Lake, of Golden, Colorado, C. W. Lake, of Denver, and Mrs. Casto, wife of Dr. Casto, of the "Alpine farm" of this county.

Mrs. Lake has been nearly helpless for several years, having met with several severe accidents, the last one resulting in a lingering illness of over two months, during which time she suffered the most excruciating pain. Her constant prayer was "Lord Jesus, come and take me home." She often repeated "Jesus Lover Of My Soul" and other hymns and scripture passages.

Besides the three children mentioned there remains a sister in Michigan to mourn and miss her.

The services were conducted by Rev. Henry A. Bardon, who often visited her during her illness, and Rev. H. B. Turner, her pastor. The music was in charge of Mr. George Barden. The remains were laid to rest in Lone Fir cemetery, but will be removed at some future time to Golden, Col., where her husband is buried.
