We keep New York right in Portland all the time. Soon as a fashionable fad is in sight in the greater city it reveals itself in our stock at once--and depend upon it--every article in our collection is right. Right in quality, in fashion and in fit.

"Your money back if you say so" says so.
 What we say we do, we do do.

Men's Every-Day Suits

For autumn are ready. The materials are fine casimers, worsteds, chevots, and heavy-weight serges. Coats are cut single and double-breasted.
 A glance at these suits would enable the connoisseur to see that all the correct fashion "wrinkles" are there--3 pair buttons on double breasted coat, and 3 buttons on the single; change pocket, but no breast pocket on the outside. Trousers just the right width at knee ankle,
$10, $12, $15 to $35

Topcoats

In latest styles of covert cloths, herring-bone weaves, whipcords and vicunas,
$10 to $45

Men's Hankerchiefs

We don't say our values are better than the average, without good reason.
 We are in closest touch with the largest competent hankerchief-maker, from whom we selected our immense stock; hence the cost being at a minimum, our price-marks are lower than those usually put on similar qualities elsewhere. Absolutely all linen hankerchiefs,
25c, 35c, 50c

Fancy border linen hankerchiefs, narrow hemstich,
50c each

Fancy hemstitched silk handkerchiefs, plain with and fancy,
50c, 75c, $1.00

Hat Goodness

Steinbach hat values need no eulogy, or comment to add to their reputation. Only honest headwear is shown here and quality is invariably our first consideration--and yours, too.
 Fedoras hats--latest fall blocks in per nutria, hazel, brown and black,
$1.50, $2.00 to $5.00

Derbys in newest shapes and colorings at
$1.50, $3.00 to $5.00

We are the sole agents here for the celebrated "Youmans" hats.
Ladies' "Youmans," $5.00

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest New Location--Fourth and Morrison, Portland, Ore.

Mrs. W. H. Godfrey left Friday morning for Monmouth, to review her studies at the state normal school. Mrs. Godfrey was a teacher for ten years in Minnesota, and ranked high as a teacher. It is her intention to resume teaching. She was accompanied by her son, Gay Mr. Godfrey will remain here during her absence.
 J. Gorbett, the Cotton merchant and postmaster, was in town Monday. He had just moved into his new dwelling, erected in place of one that was burned a couple of months ago. The new structure is two stories high, 16x28 with an L, 22x16. Mr. Gorbett stated that some of his neighbors would stall-feed cattle with damaged wheat.
 T. J. Spooner and family, of Winlock, Wash., are visiting Mrs. Spooner's mother, Mrs. B. Jennings. They were former residents of Oregon City, having been connected with Pope's hardware store. Mr. and Mrs. Spooner met their son, C. J. Spooner, in Portland last Sunday, having just returned from the Philippines, where he was a private in the service of Company C, First Washington Volunteers.
 George Cunningham was down from Springwater Friday, and reported that his son, Fred, who was in the sanitarium, for nearly four months, partially paralyzed is recovering. The young man was riding a wild horse and the animal ran under an apple tree where a limb struck the rider between the hip and small of the back. For days he hovered between life and death. Mr. Cunningham compliments Dr. Strickland on the boy's recovery. Another son, Will Cunningham, has just returned from the Philippines, where he was a private in the Fourteenth Infantry.

The East Side Railway Company has purchased a half block of ground adjoining the car barn in Milwaukie, from Miss Florence Olsen. The consideration named in the deed filed, was $1500.

At the annual conference of the Methodist church, south, recently held at Grant's Pass, Rev. T. P. Haynes was appointed to the Oregon City circuit, and Rev. W. L. Molloy was placed on the superannuated list.

Mrs. Mary Ann Lacey, aged about 80, a pioneer of 1852, died at her home on the Lacey donation land claim at Springwater Saturday night. The deceased had been a continuous resident on the old homestead, since coming to the county in 1852. She was a widow of the late Ira Lacey, who died a few years ago. Both were honored pioneers. The deceased left three children: Ebenezer, of Springwater; Mrs. Elsie Haley, of Portland; and Mrs. Emily Smith.

Rev. George A. Rockwood, of Willaburg, died Monday of heart failure. The funeral services were held in the Congregational church at Willaburg, Wednesday morning, and the interment took place in Mountain View cemetery in the afternoon. Many Oregon City people attended the funeral, and the floral offerings were tasty and elaborate. The deceased was at one time the popular pastor of the Congregational church here for several years.

Considerable attention was paid to the reported discovery of gold on L. Ferguson's place near New Era last week. A prospector from Southern Oregon made the discovery, while panning in the bed of the creek. D. A. Dillman went up and prospected the ground on the surface, and expresses the opinion that it would pay about a dollar a day with a sluice box. It would cost some money to go the bedrock, but gold may exist in paying quantities there.

Wednesday was one of the big days in the history of the Oregon City land office. During the greater part of the day, the offices of the building and corridors were filled with men, women, some of them with babies in their arms, and attorneys, all awaiting their turn to have the proper papers made out. Forty timber claim filings were made by Tillamook people on lands located on Wilson river. The Astoria & South-coast Railroad Company, also filed on 2,000 acres of lion lands in the same locality. Three final proofs were made on timber claims during the day.

The early closing movement went into effect Monday night, every business house falling into line and closing its doors at 8 o'clock. The embryo clerk's association held a meeting at the council chamber Tuesday night, to take steps toward perfecting its organization. It is the intention to make it a branch of the national association, similar to the retail clerks' association of Portland. The present officers are: C. B. Clements, president; C. M. Mason, secretary; Pete Traglio, treasurer. The following were appointed a ways and means committee: C. M. Mason, Winnie Hill and Harry Allen. An effort is being made to secure a suitable meeting place.
 New vettings at Miss Goldsmith's.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS

New Structures Contemplated And New Additions.

Considerable improvements are being made in and around Robert Schuebel's residence on Madison street.
 Rev. S. Copley is having the parsonage of the German Evangelical church repainted.
 Professor J. W. Gray is having his residence at Green Point repainted.
 Chris Bluhm has completed an addition to his dwelling at Ely.
 There has been quite a building boom in Gladstone during the past few months, mention already having been made of the various structures.
 Ex-Mayor Caulfield is having a new brick chimney built in his dwelling at the corner of Eighth and Water streets.

FRATERNAL NOTES.

What the Lodges are Doing in Clackamas County.

The season has now come when an active spirit pervades the various fraternal organizations and lodge workers put in their best legs.
 The various A. O. U. W. lodges have been unusually active during the summer months. Falls City lodge averages three or four initiates every meeting. Gavel lodge at Canby recently took in 15 new members. Pig Iron at Oswego, and Clackamas lodges are prospering. Stafford is making commendable progress for a new lodge, and Currinville initiated two new members.
 Myrtle Lodge, Degree of Honor, has been experiencing a membership contest. As a result, 30 new members have been added.
 Next Tuesday night Pioneer Chapter, Eastern Star and the Masonic lodges will give a reception to J. W. Moffatt and Lester P. Smith, who recently returned from the Philippines. All members of the Eastern Star and Masonic fraternities and their families are invited to attend.
 The Foresters added some new members recently.
 Cataract Lodge No. 76, K. of P., has elected D. A. Dillman, delegate to the grand lodge for the two years term, and C. N. Haines for the one year term.
 W. M. Sheahan has been reappointed by the grandmaster of the A. O. U. W., deputy for this district.

Chautauqua.

All interested in the organization of a Chautauqua Literary Circle are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. C. H. Canfield, Monday evening, September 18th. Inasmuch as this is the center of the Chautauqua movement in this part of the state, it should have a flourishing local circle. The cost of the year's work is greatly reduced. The subjects for this year are especially timely. Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. E. E. Charman have offered their homes for the meeting of the circle. Let every friend of the movement talk the matter up and bring out a goodly number to the Monday evening meeting.
