S. W. Downing, superintendent of the Clackamas hatchery, has begun the work of taking salmon eggs, and a good run is anticipated. The salmon are just beginning to run up the Clackamas, and it is believed that a good catch of salmon eggs will be made.

Gilbert Randall, of New Era precinct, lost two horses Monday by falling timber. A timber fire was raging, and the horses got in the way of a burning fire, that toppled over and killed the horses instantly.

J. E. Hedges, father of Silas D. Hedges, of Salmon river, died at his home at Tualatin last Sunday, aged 85. The deceased was a pioneer of 1851, and lived awhile at Oregon City, after crossing the plains.

Indian Jim, who was sentenced to three days street work Monday morning by Recorder Curry, on account of drunkenness, was taken with a severe attack of cramps in the afternoon. He was removed to the city jail, where a physician soon relieved his sufferings.

The Northwest Herald says the barber law requiring a license is the "prince of fool laws," that it is a trick of a few political grafters to rob every barber who wants to follow his trade in Oregon. That it would be just as sensible for the carpenters, blacksmiths, etc., to have such a law.

B. F. Linn, of Redland, who was in town Saturday, stated that he was pushing the work on the sawmill, that he is rebuilding for his sawmill in the place of the one burned down. He had a pile-driver at work putting in the timbers for the foundation. The new mill will have a capacity of 10,000 feet daily.

Dr. J. W. Welch, the dentist, writes from Silverton that he will be in his office at Stayton next Saturday, to remain for an indefinite period. The doctor has been absent much of the summer recuperating, and it is reported, this time intends bringing his family with him for permanent residence.—Stayton Times.

A girl named plain "Mary" at her birth dropped the "r" when she grew up and became Miss May. As she began to shine in a social way she changed the "y" to "e" and signed her letters Mae. About a year ago she was married, and now she has dropped the "e" and its just plain "Ma." That's evolution.—Exchange.
