

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

Colton.

There was another fine shower of rain again today.

Elder B. F. Bonney, a former resident of this place, and who now resides at Sumas, Wash., is visiting friends and relatives here now.

P. E. Bonney has purchased a horse. Miss Emma Freeman, who remained near Whisky Hill since hop picking, has returned home.

The writer made a trip to the huckleberry patch and found berries plentiful. There is one of the grandest places for an amateur that a person could want.

Gus Gottberg expects to start to Seattle soon.

Our merchant, Wm. Gorbett, has been moving his store today so that he can insure his new dwelling house.

Mr. Wilson and Carl Stromgreen have started to dig a well for the latter.

We understand that Geo. Robeson is, or soon will be, married.

There is to be a dance at the Canyon Creek hall tomorrow night.

Sept. 29.

YAW.

Garfield.

Everybody has their threshing done. The good weather favored us in that way, also in the way of going to the mountains to get berries. There have been hundreds of gallons taken out this fall and still the people are going. This is bad weather on the bean crop.

The forest rangers have gotten rained out of the mountains.

Miss Pearl Palmateer has a bike, so now look out, she will take a spin.

C. Duncan was out to see his best girl last week. He has gone to work at a sawmill near Orient.

Ed Duncan and Russ Wilcox have left the sawmill and come home. Chickens will go home to roost, especially in winter.

William Covey and daughter, of Barlow, were here visiting at his brother's, F. M. Covey, last week.

W. K. Irvin has gone to Huntington or near there to spend the winter.

Mr. Matic and Q. T. Irvin went to Portland Monday to take some mules down to Ed Holaway.

Mrs. Della Davis has been over near Sandy visiting her mother for several weeks. She came home Sunday and reports having a pleasant time.

J. P. Irvin, while cutting bands for the machine made a miss lick and came near cutting his little finger off.

George DeShield has got his new house under headway, so the wedding bells will chime before long. Get your cowbells ready boys.

F. M. Covey is on the sick list.

Gus Wilcox, of Currinsville, expects to move to Eastern Oregon in the near future.

There is quite a crowd of Garfieldites going to the mountains this week.

Mrs. Wm. Davis and son, Richard, have gone to Portland on business.

Redland.

A large circle of friends gathered at the house of Mr. and Mrs. George Heinbothem last Friday night to extend their hearty welcome home to their son, Willie, one of the First Idaho volunteers, of Co. A, who has been so bravely serving his country in the Philippines for the past eighteen months. Although the stormy weather kept a few at home the house was well filled and the evening passed very pleasantly with music and games, after which refreshments were served and everyone went home rejoicing that they did not let the mud and rain keep them at home.

Miss Potter, of Portland, has been spending a week with Mrs. Hart on the Abernethy.

Miss Annie and Charley Heinbothem have returned home from Eastern Oregon, where they have been spending the last two or three years.

Miss Minerva and Ida Barrett have returned home from Albany, where they have spent a very pleasant week with their uncle, Mr. Elder. They report having found roads quite different from ours, as sixty miles a day was easily accomplished with a single horse.

Oct. 3.

Rural Dell.

Beautiful weather is re-appearing after the rain.

The Moshberger Bros.' hop baler passed by this morning, going up to Jordan's barn to bale hops for John Palmer.

Harry Sawtell has rented W. F. Dixon's place, and will perhaps move in a short time.

Grandma Ogle's health is still very poor.

Mrs. McPherson, of Eugene, will arrive tomorrow to attend to her mother, Grandma Ogle, who is sick.

The Ladies'Aid society, of the Smyrna church, will give an ice cream social at the home of Mr. A. J. Yoder on Friday evening, Oct. 6th. A short program will be rendered, and the special features of the evening will be the selling of a quilt made by the ladies. The quilt contains the names of 290 persons, and will be sold to the highest bidder. The proceeds will be expended in the erection of a steeple on the church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Oct. 3.

D. D.

Maple Lane.

Mrs. Mattie Hyatt and baby are visiting at her mother's, Mrs. A. Mautz, for awhile, as she expects soon to join her husband in Goldendale, Wash.

Mrs. C. Spangler, of Carus, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jackson, a couple of days last week.

Mr. J. W. Gerber called on Mr. Gibbs Sunday afternoon.

Chas. Surfus, Sr., with his wife and sister, of Iowa, are guests of their brother, Isaac Surfus, whom they took by surprise, one day last week. They had not seen each other for a number of years. Mr. Surfus and wife will probably settle here.

Arthur Sitton was the guest of Courtland and Thomas Gibbs Sunday.

Maple Lane can boast of a new bridge, viz: the Latourette bridge. They are laying plank this week with H. Mautz as "boss."

School began at the Maple Lane academy Monday with 22 pupils in attendance, and Prof. O. H. Byland at the blackboard. Mr. Byland intends to organize the school according to the newly adopted law and we wish him much success.

Chas. Mautz and wife have rented their place and will move to Portland in the near future.

Miss Kate Mautz went to Oregon City Tuesday morning to take care of her sister, Mrs. Morris, who is quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon and children went to Portland Tuesday to take in the fair.

Oct. 4.

PANSY BLOSSOM.

Liberal.

Abner Frazer, who has been sick for some time at his sister's, Mrs. L. E. Wright's, leaves Monday for Traver, Cal., accompanied by Miss Ida Bowie as nurse.

Our school started Monday, with Miss Hattie Wilcox as teacher.

A few have late grain to cut yet.

Threshing is nearly all done in this section.

A great deal of soft wheat is reported by the Mulino miller.

The roads have been lined with wheat haulers, but the rain will put a stop to that until the roads are graveled.

Grass was never better at this time of year. Stock looks well and demands a good price.

The hog dispute between two of my neighbors was settled without going to law about it.

Pierce Wright is on the sick list.

Huckleberries are coming out of the mountains by wagon loads.

H. A. Frazer, of Salem, was in this section on business Saturday and Sunday.

The hoppers have all returned and seem to have plenty of money. All say they did well.

Simon Jones leaves for Santa Rosa, Mo., Monday, after an extended visit and business trip.

Now, boys, get your plows and go to work preparing the ground to raise more 50 cent wheat. K.

Oct. 2.

Canby.

School commenced Monday with a large attendance. Over 100 pupils will be enrolled this term.

Sol Garrison is trimming up the city shade trees, which will improve the looks of our streets.

James Phegley has purchased the Blanchard store building, on the corner of Main and Second streets.

George Knight, of Hubbard, was in town last Sunday.

Shooters were out in full force Sunday. They all report game birds very scarce.

Rev. Mr. Myers moved last Monday to Silverton, where he goes to preach during the coming year. Rev. Mr. Dunlap, from Tillamook, will occupy the Methodist pulpit here.

E. I. Sias made a business trip to Oregon City today.

Oct. 4.

CAN.

Redland.

The dry spell is again broken and the ground is in condition for plowing.

A reception was given in honor of the return of W. C. Heinbothem from Manila on Sept. 28th. A large crowd was present and a pleasant time was had. Miss Anna and Charles Heinbothem returned from Eastern Oregon about half an hour after the arrival of W. C.

M. J. Fullam is out visiting his brother. He has just returned from a surveying trip in Malheur county, where he has been all summer in the employ of Mr. Johnson.

Miss Anna Heinbothem will commence the winter term of school at this place next Monday.

James Fullam and L. Funk went to Portland last week to close a threshing outfit deal for next season. They expect to have an outfit on the ridge that will do good work.

Threshing is at last completed on this ridge. There were three machines to finish up the job. Grain generally turned out well.

A. Funk takes the first prize for best all around yield of grain. His wheat went 36 bushels to the acre and his nine acres of oats went 45 bushels to the acre.

Gilmore Behimer leaves this week for a new field to seek employment.

We notice that W. D. Berkey offers his place for sale, as he wishes to move to Portland.

Oct. 3.

W. S.

Mountain View.

Arthur Scoggins, of Barlow, was shaking hands with friends in this berg Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Grout and family are moving into their house near Seventh street, lately vacated by Mr. Dehon.

Clarence Frost spent Sunday at home with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickham spent last Sunday with Mrs. Ferd Curran.

F. M. Darling began teaching at the Hendri district last Monday.

Mr. Heckart was boarding with J. Harrington last week. Mrs. Heckart moved in from Highland Tuesday, and they will go to housekeeping again.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Ballard have gone to housekeeping in the Darling house near Seventh street.

Mr. Savage is digging a well for himself this week. Mr. Lewis, of Turner, Oregon, is helping him, and they have to do a great deal of blasting to go through rock.

Mr. Goodwin, of Forest Grove, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Duvall this week.

Miss Eletha Cummins returned to her home at Schubel Tuesday after a week's visit at the home of Miss Myrtle Curran.

Mr. Gillett built a new hen house for Mr. Beattie Tuesday.

Rev. Haynes and family have returned from their outing at Independence, and we welcome them back to our Sunday school.

Willie Everhart and wife have taken charge of the farm at Molalla, and his mother will move into town again.

Mr. Hall is helping Mr. Everhart in the store this week.

J. Thomas Herron, of Sherwood, was in this berg Tuesday night on his way to the mountains.

Mr. Moran is still confined to his bed. He is always pleased to have his friends call and see him.

J. V. Green is having some fine work done on the road in this place filling up mud holes.

Mr. Cox is in from Elwood and will visit the exposition at Portland before returning home.

It was about cold enough for a frost here Monday night.

Oct. 4.

SALINA.

New Goods Arriving Daily and Placed on Sale at Once

Our prices, as usual, will win patronage.

New Shoes in Our New Shoe Department

Our line of Fall Shoes for Men, Women, Misses, Boys and Children are now complete, embracing all the newest styles and most comfortable shapes in the best wearing grades of Vici Kid, Box Calf, Patent and Velour Calf Leather.

PRICE BROS

Main St. OREGON CITY

$2.50

Our $2.50 Ladies' Shoes for winter beats the world. It is plump kid stock, heavy sole, extension edge, fair stitch, square stock tip, elite toe, English back stay.

See Samples in Our Show Window

IT'S A BEAUTY

Come in please and look at it

McKITTRICK "The Shoe Man"

Next door to Oregon City Bank.

Oregon City

$2.50

Don't purchase a Ready Made Suit

Which is made and finished by machinery with hundreds of others the same style and pattern. Have some individuality about your attire. We can give you perfect fitting suits and guarantee satisfaction at very low prices. Ladies' Tailoring neatly done

M. GILBERT, The Portland Tailor, opp. Electric Hotel

Joseph Kuerten

Is now Proprietor

Seventh Street Bakery

Fresh Bread and Cakes Daily

A line of Fancy Groceries and Confectioneries kept

Eldorado.

Al and Will Jones and their families have returned from the huckleberry patch with 56 gallons of berries. Ed Howard and his family brought back 28 gallons.

Curtiss Helvey is worse again.

Miss Cora and Bessie Helvey are home from Portland.

I expect we will soon have a good road, as Cosper & Cummins are now cutting plank for the road.

We read in the Macksburg items that that every man had better get his hair cut short before he went to the mill with a grist, but I think that the men will do the most kicking when they eat the bread made out of the flour.

Everybody has threshed in this vicinity and their grain is not hurt as bad as was expected.

Our school is to commence Oct. 2, with Miss Lizzie Evans for teacher.

Mr. Cosper started from home last Monday, Sept. 24, with his engine and got as far as Mr. Hornshuh's, when the gear broke, got it fixed and went as far as Mr. Inskeep's when the brace broke to the forward truck. He again got started and proceeded as far as Paine schoolhouse, and, turning the corner, broke the same brace again, which let the boiler down on the ground. He thinks he is ready to go on if lucky enough not to have any more breaks.

Muriel Jones has the whooping cough, having caught it in the hopyards.

C. Smith's little girl is quite sick.

Ed Paine has his new barn raised.

Miss Effie Rauch and Miss Daisy Phelps, of Union Hall were visitors of Mrs. J. T. Woodward last week.

Oct. 2.

SCHOOLMARN.

Cherryville.

We are having fine weather at present, which is appreciated by all.

Claude Baty, who has been on the sick list is convalescent.

U. S. Endersby and B. Tapp have gone to Portland this week.

Fruit, of all kind, is a scarce article in this section.

School is progressing nicely with Miss Guthridge at the helm.

Mrs. L. Kearney is in Portland, but expects to return soon.

Oct. 3.

J. F.

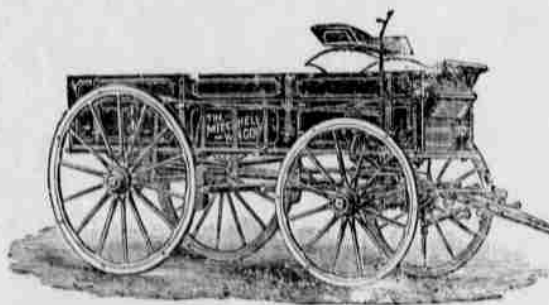

Farmers' Store.

Formerly occupied by H. Straight, has been rebuilt and enlarged, will open in a few days with a first-class stock of groceries, etc., at rock-bottom prices by

V. HARRIS.

There is Nothing Better Made Than

The Mitchell Wagon

65 years experience in Wagon Making as represented in the "Mitchell" is a better Guarantee of a good wagon made of the best materials properly seasoned than all the promises and assertions of agents of new named unknown wagons combined

Mitchell Wagons

Have a world-wide reputation for

Strength, Durability,

and the high quality of materials used, as well as for their light running qualities NO WAGON stands better on all these points than the "MITCHELL"

You'll make no mistake

If you buy a MITCHELL WAGON

You are liable to make a mistake if you buy some other. It may take you a year to find it out, but you are sure to see your mistake sooner or later.

Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co.

First and Taylor Streets,

PORTLAND, OREGON