Robbed the Grave.
 A startling incident, of which Mr John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue quoted, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave to another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts, guaranteed, at George A. Harding's drug store.

State of Oregon, County of Clackamas, ss.

BY VIRTUE OF A JUDGMENT ORDER, Deceit and an execution, duly issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court, in the above entitled cause, and to me duly directed and dated the 3rd day of October, 1899, upon a judgment rendered and entered in said court on the 22nd day of November, 1898, in favor of McMinnville College, a corporation, plaintiff, and against Ella Broderick and M. J. Broderick, defendants, for the sum of $1884, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 22nd day of November, 1898, and the further sum of $10 cents and disbursements, and the costs of and upon this writ, commanding me to make sale of the following described real property, situate in the county of Clackamas, state of Oregon, to-wit:

Beginning at the most southerly corner on Main street of lot 4, in block 2 of Oregon City, in said county and state, and running thence northerly along the westerly boundary of Main street 28 feet and 3 inches; thence westerly at right angles with last course and Main street 87 feet; thence southerly at right angles with last line aforesaid 28 feet and 3 inches to the boundary of said lot 4 on Third street; thence easterly 87 feet to the place of beginning—the interest conveyed above being an undivided half interest.

Also the following described tract, to-wit: A portion of the Archibald McKinley D. L. C., being claim No. 60, in section 31, township 2 south, range 2 east of the Willamette meridian, being all of that portion of said claim lying east of the O. and C. Railroad Company's tract north of said township line, west of the top of the second main bluff and south of tract conveyed by deed found recorded on page 256 of Book "C" of Deeds of said county and state; also all of our right, title and interest in and to the said donation land claim of Archibald McKinley; also lots 2 and 4 of block 156 in Oregon City, said county and state, as shown by the recorded maps and plats thereof on file in the office of the recorder of Clackamas county, Oregon.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution, judgment order and decree, and in compliance with the commands of said writ, I will, on

M., at the front door of the County Court House in the city of Oregon City, in said county and state, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, to the highest bidder, for U. S. gold coin, cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the within named defendants, or either of them, had on the date of the mortgage herein, or since had in or to the above described real property or any part thereof, to satisfy said execution, judgment order, decree, interest, costs and all accruing costs.

J. J. COOKE,

 Dated, Oregon City, Ore., Oct. 4, 1899.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas.

Daniel Lewis, Plaintiff, vs.
 Cora E. Stubb, Wallace R. Stubb, C. E. Oline and Grace T. Johnson, Defendants.

To Cora E. Stubb and Wallace R. Stubb, two of above named defendants:

In Justice Schuebel's Court.

John Barth was given judgment for $30 against S. G. Gross on account of the sale of some cows.

On Tuesday Thomas Dunn was arraigned charged with perjury for making affidavit that Florence Jones, of Orient, who was married to Bert Hite a few weeks ago, was 18, while her parents averred that she was only 14. Senator Brownell conducted the defense, and G. B. Dimick was the prosecuting attorney. There were two Thomas Duns in the court room, but none of the witnesses could identify either of them as the party alleged to have made the affidavit. Even had the identification been established, it is doubtful if a charge of perjury could have been sustained. The justice dismissed the case.

Rudolph Argerter, of Viola, was arraigned Wednesday on a charge of threatening to kill John J. Baageldt. None of the prosecuting witnesses appeared, and on motion of the prosecuting attorney, the case was dismissed.

Oregon City Academy.

In beginning a select or private school in Oregon City we desire to make it not only a permanent educational institution, but to enlarge it until it shall meet the evident and growing wants of Oregon City for at least full academy work.

We have been engaged in college and academy work in other places, and confidently ask for the patronage of the people.

At present we are prepared to hear classes in Latin, Greek, algebra, geometry, natural philosophy, physiology, physical geography, zoology, botany, rhetoric, composition, literature, history, pedagogy, also classes in grammar, arithmetic, geography, spelling, reading.

These studies will be given in regular course, fitting students to enter the freshman class in college or university work; or a select course may be pursued, if desired. Certain branches also may be pursued by any who cannot perform full and regular school work.

How well we shall succeed in our undertaking depends upon many things. We are not unmindful of the gravity and importance of any work that has to do with the training and preparation of the young people for a life of active usefulness, and desire to co-operate with all Christian workers, parents and patriotic citizens in the progress and elevation of our youth.

W. H. DAVIS.

CITY COUNCIL.

But Little Business Transacted

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council Wednesday evening, all the councilmen were present, and President Koerner presided on account of the absence of Mayor Latourette. A Knapp and J. N. Miller were granted liquor licenses. The recorder was authorized to issue a liquor license to Rudolph Sutrow at E. A. Brady's old stand, upon making the proper advertising application.

A petition read from Mrs. Reynard and others asking the council to build a sidewalk from 14th to Washington streets, which was referred to street committee with power to act. The treasurer's quarterly report showed receipts of $653.59, four burial permits, and six convictions for vagrancy, drunkenness, and abusive language. Also that the city liens against the Comer and McDonald properties had been settled in full. The attention of the street committee was called to the bad condition of the bridge at the flouring mills.

The following claims against the city were ordered paid:

THE MARQUAM FAIR.

A Magnificent Exhibit of Home Productions.

The 13th annual fair of the Butte Creek Agricultural Association would have been the greatest of all successes, had not the rains descended and kept the people away Friday and Saturday. The people who went from this end of the county, report a magnificent exhibit. Among those who went from here were: Senator Brownell, Assessor and Mrs. Eli Williams, Deputy Sheriff J. E. Jack, G. B. Dimick, deputy prosecuting attorney; Constable M. F. McCown, Charles Noblitt, Hon. J. L. Kruse, of Wilsonville, and John Lewellen, of Springfield.

The display of vegetables, articles of domestic manufacture and livestock of all kinds, surpassed the exhibit at any previous fair. Had it not been for the heavy rains, the fair would have been the greatest triumphant success in the history of Clackamas county. The Butte creek fair is under excellent management, who have always paid off the indebtedness, that accrued during a rainy season. Even under the adverse conditions this time, after the premiums were paid in full, there still remained $6 of the receipts, to apply on other expenses. Senator Brownell gave an address Saturday afternoon.

AT THE COUNTY FAIR.

Settin' in the gran' stand
 At the county fair,
 Seemed as if the whole world
 An' all there kin was there.

Way up on the top seat
 Me an' Jennie set—
 Wish I had the candy
 An' peanuts that we et!

Jennie's right good-lookin';
 But she likes to boss;
 Dared me to bet money
 On Jake Douglas's boss!

Like a fool I done it;
 Went down to the track;
 How I've think I found her
 'S I was climbin' back?

There I met her half way,
 With another beau,
 Stuck-up, slick-haired softy,
 That Will Jones, ye know.

Let on not to see me;
 Went right on a-past;
 S'pose she thought I'd ast her
 Where she's goin' so fast.

Warn't no use to foller,
 So I let 'em go;
 Funny how things sometimes
 All go wrong jes' so.

Lost a pile on Jake's boss;
 Couldn't ring a cane,
 Fellow swayed my goldine watch,
 Then it poured down rain.

Tell ye 'tain't all sunshine
 An' all pleasure rare
 Settin' in the gran' stand
 At the county fair.

PREMIUM LIST.

Next week we will publish the list of premiums awarded. The list was received too late for publication this week.

FRATERNAL NOTES.

What the Lodges are Doing in Clackamas County.

A full dozen members of Falls City Lodge, A. O. U. W., visited Stafford Lodge Saturday night. This gave them an opportunity to judge of the defects in the wagon road, as near as could be ascertained by an after night drive. Returning, Leighton Kelly walked ahead with the lantern, while coming down the mountain new road, so that W. H. Young could see where to drive his four horses. Stafford lodge has a cozy hall, and its members are active workers, and are interested in the good of the order. Theo Reichle, master workman, presided at the open meeting. Stirring addresses on fraternalism were made by C. H. Dye, and ex-Senator H. E. Hayes. Short talks were also made by Sam Roake, Leighton Kelly, A. C. Beaulieu, of Falls City, and Recorder B. F. Weddle and Pastmaster Workman C. W. Larson, of Stafford. Thomas Flynn, Sam Roake, Joe Beaulieu and Leighton Kelly, all favored the audience with solos. Mrs. Gage also made a talk on fraternal orders. The visitors were entertained royally, the ladies of Stafford providing a supper, that could not be excelled anywhere for quality and quantity. Other members of the Oregon City delegation were Joe Fromong, Horace Williams, George Silver and K. H. Gabbert. Tonight a delegation from here will visit Gavel lodge at Canby.

E. H. Cooper took the patriarchal degree in Falls View Encampment, I. O. O. F., Tuesday night.

Four candidates were initiated into the local lodge of Pyramids Tuesday night.

The Redmen are initiating new member every meeting night. The lodge paid the expenses of Mrs. Snider's funeral, as is the custom when the wives of members die, and a delegation of Redmen acted as pall-bearers at the funeral.

D. A. Dillman and C. N. Haines will represent Cataract Lodge at the grand lodge, K. of P., to be held in Portland next week.

For Sale—27 acres adjoining West Oregon City, Eighteen acres in cultivation; balance light brush. All under fence. Good spring of water. Excellent location. Sixty-five dollars per acre. Call on or address G. B. Dimick, Oregon City.

Vanity Fair.

To hit the foibles and foils of the day, to touch with pungent satire and laughable joke, as well as to brighten with music and song, has been the purpose of the author of "Vanity Fair." Hill's newest travesty. For this very happy purpose unusual attention was given to the artistic material comprising the company, who number 20 people, whose various special acts have been warmly commended everywhere they have appeared this season. "Vanity Fair" is due here at the opera house on Friday, Oct. 13.

PERT PERSONALS.

As we understand Mr. Aginaldo, he would like to annex the United States.—Memphis Appeal.

A Washington kodak artist has been so unkind as to shoot Justices Gray, White, Harlan and Brewer and to call the picture 900 pounds of the United States supreme court. That's just 295 pounds per justice.—Boston Herald.

The emperor of Russia fills the walls of his room with cartoons of himself and the emperor of Germany fills his prisons with the cartoonists. The point of view all depends on whether one is born with a sense of humor.—Baltimore American.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

There is a revival of the talk of a new White House, but the old one is still considered a very desirable place of residence.—Pittsburg Times.

The only thing that can add to the mystery with which modern interpreters have succeeded in surrounding the works of Thomas Jefferson is the discovery of a cipher by somebody.—Washington Star.

Hon. Amos Cummings has written a very interesting letter on the "Silent Congressman." Perhaps Mr. Cummings will undertake to name one or two in his next effort without dealing in obituaries.—Washington Post.

The Chicago Tribune calls a Chicago alderman "a pachydermatous promoter of every nefarious job that barbers civic rights for boodle." This may serve to land the honorable gentleman in a dime museum.—Denver Post.

DON'T.

Don't work yourself to death in order to make a living.

Don't forget that quitting a fault is the best way to correct it.

Don't envy your neighbor's luck; envy his pluck, if anything.

Don't expect your opinions to fit if you obtain them ready made.

There is some curiosity to know how The Congressional Directory man will handle the family of Mr. Roberts of Utah.—Exchange.

Mr. Roberts of Utah may find some consolation in the fact that he was not elected to membership in the various debating societies which have been considering his case.—Washington Post.

The mint at Philadelphia has been remarkably free from thefts, but the finding of a bag filled with nails which was supposed to contain 163 silver dollars has created a great deal of astonishment in that staid old establishment. The original contents had been carefully removed and iron of exactly the same weight had been substituted.
