

Gigantic Sale of Dress Goods

New Golf Cloakings

58, 60 and 64 inch, at $1.90, $2.25, $2.50 yard. Elegant material.

New Scotch Plaids

42, 46 and 48 inch, at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 yard.

Camel's Hair Plaids

Latest effects, 45c, 50c, 55c, 60c, $1 and upwards to $1.75 yard. Finest collection of fall dress goods ever shown in Portland.

Every department loaded down with new and seasonable goods. Every article in stock marked in plain figures. No trouble to show goods, and no fancy prices asked. The ladies are delighted with our goods and prices. See us today.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. H. Johnson has returned from a visit to the Sound.

Constable John Evans was in from Milk Creek Friday.

E. E. Cumpston returned Saturday from a visit to Newberg.

William Skeen, of Liberal, was in the city Saturday on road business.

Miss Anna Heinbothem, of Redland, was a visitor in the city Friday.

A. H. Reynolds, a well known Macksburg farmer, was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews have taken up their residence near Risley's station.

J. Ehret, George Zimmerman and William Kaylor were down from Canby Saturday.

H. Thiessen, one of the prominent farmers of Milwaukie precinct, was in town Saturday.

Road Supervisor John A. Stanton, of Marquam, was in town on road business Friday.

Miss Inez Adair, of Noble, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. G. A. Heinz and Miss E. C. Adair.

Mrs. Clara Foster has returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends at Tacoma.

Mrs. Ross Charman has moved into her new cottage, recently completed, on upper Seventh street.

Mrs. William Giesy, who conducts a millinery store in Aurora, was a visitor in Oregon City Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Davis and Mrs. Susan Williams, of Marquam, were in Oregon City Saturday.

G. W. Frazier and children left for Plainview, Mo., Friday, where they will make their future home.

Phinneas H. Smith, recently of Portland, is assisting Dr. J. H. Howard during the rush of dental work.

Mrs. H. W. Duff has returned from her farm in Highland precinct, and will remain here during the winter.

Miss Emma Scott arrived from Decrah, Iowa, Friday, and will make her home with her brother, E. W. Scott.

Mrs. M. K. Irwin, wife of Postmaster Irwin, of Garfield, was here Monday, visiting Mrs. Eli Williams and Mrs. Story.

W. C. Hicinbothem, of Redland, who recently returned from Manila with the Idaho Volunteers, was in the city Saturday, accompanied by his brother, Charles, and sister, Miss Anna.

Fall Capes and Jackets

A suplime collection of new Golf Capes, Cloth Capes and Jackets, at $4.50, $5, $6, $7.50, $8.50, $9, $10.50 and upwards to $25.

Fur Collarettes

Purchased of the largest furriers in the world for spot cash. Will be placed on sale at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $5, $5.50, $6, $7.50, $8.50. Best values on earth.

J. F. Haun was in from Wilhoit Monday.

Mrs. Jane Gray is recovering from her recent illness.

Will Dutcher returned Tuesday from his California trip.

A. D. Burnett, the Eagle creek constable, was in town Tuesday.

T. M. Cross, a prominent Molalla farmer, was in the city Monday.

O. C. Yocum was in from Government Camp at Mount Hood Monday.

Ex-Representative R. G. Smith, of Grant's Pass, was here Friday.

John Dickey, of Molalla, was a prominent visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mike Mulvey, a prominent citizen of Mullno, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

H. L. Spahr, of Needy, returned from a visit to the Portland exposition Tuesday.

William George, a prominent Beaver creek farmer, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Bellomy spent Sunday at Albany, returning Monday morning.

W. H. H. Samson is but slowly recovering from the effects of an abscess on his side.

Mrs. W. M. Shank, of Canby, was visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Martin, during the week.

J. M. Tracy, P. L. Huffman, Jacob Schilling, William Straight and B. Hawley were in from Lozan Tuesday.

Charles H. Caulfield and W. A. Huntley are enjoying an outing at the Hot Springs, near the upper hatchery.

Misses Alice Roberts and Nica Moore left Monday by steamer for San Francisco, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Goldsmith, of Eugene, are visiting their daughters, Mrs. M. Bollock and the Misses Goldsmith.

Mrs. M. A. Blake and children and Miss Maude Winchell left Monday for Montana, where they will reside in the future.

James Brown arrived from Tygh valley Saturday with another drove of horses, and was the guest of P. M. Boyles.

Max Ramsby, one of the inspectors at the internal revenue office in Portland, is enjoying a vacation during the month of October.

Mrs. Lohr arrived Monday from San Francisco, and visited relatives here. She was on her way to visit her mother, Mrs. Dehon, in Montana.

Charles Albright and daughter, Miss Elma, returned from Oakland, Calif., Saturday, on the same train that carried the remains of the late Mrs. N. B. Jerome.

George D. Wood, of Pomeroy, Wash., was visiting his brother, R. D. Wilson, during the week. He came down to place his son in a business college in Portland.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery and A. E. Donaldson attended the meeting of the presbytery in Portland this week, as delegates. Yesterday they went to Salem to attend the synod.

Colonel J. B. Eddy, publisher of the Forest Grove Times, was in the city Monday. His paper is now doing a good business, and receiving numerous timber land final proof notices.

C. G. Holt, who is interested with Dr. C. Goncher and others in the Gold creek mines in Marion county, near the Clackamas county line, was in town Monday on his way to Portland.

William Covy, of Barlow, who was in town Monday, states that hunters are becoming a nuisance in that neighborhood. With their dogs, a party of hunters recently tramped down his garden and field.

J. J. Mallatt and family, of Mullno, were in town Saturday, having returned from a visit to his son, G. W. Mallatt and family at Sauvie's Island. Mr. Mallatt says that a blight has struck the potato crop there, and the vines are all turning black.

One Point

There is one point we wish to impress upon the public: "That it is one thing to quote low prices in the newspapers and quite another to comply with these quotations." We wish to emphasize the fact that

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD. IT'S SO?

For this reason we are very guarded in our statements, and never make a promise which we are not fully prepared to carry out. The public, realizing our position, will appreciate the great values in our lines of

$14.85 Suits

and Overcoats

We Stand Behind these Garments and Guarantee them Fully in Every Way

They are positively the best values in the market. Equal to any $25 garment of the merchant tailor, and better than any $20 garment offered by any of our competitors. Suits have hand-made buttonholes, hand-padded shoulders, hand-padded collars, best of serge linings. Overcoats have velvet collars or plain, satin or serge sleeve linings, and are made of all the new textures, including VICUNA CLOTH, MELTONS, KERSEYS and COVERT CLOTH. Some are full silk lined and all our garments are made to order by the best wholesale tailors in America. In cases money will be cheerfully refunded if goods are not satisfactory.

It will Pay You to Call and Inspect these Lines

Moyer Clothing Company

The Popular Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

THIRD AND OAK STREETS

PORTLAND OREGON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Born, in Oregon City, October 1st, to J. Underwood and wife, a girl.

Born, at Clackamas Heights, October 8th, to George Zinzinger and wife, a son.

If you are interested in the study of German, call at corner 13th and Washington sts., Friday evening. J. O. ZINSEK.

There will be a grand ball and harvest home gathering of the people of Sandy Saturday night. Hon. Gordon E. Hayes will deliver an oration.

Louis Feldhammer, one of the prominent early pioneers of Clackamas county, died a few days ago at his home 12 miles up the Clackamas river.

Rev. J. F. Leise, of Damascus, held services at the Ely church at 3 p. m., Sunday, and Rev. Bruce Wolverton, of Portland, preached in the evening.

Aurora is experiencing something of a building boom. The Southern Pacific is putting up an elegant, new depot building. H. J. Miller, the hop buyer, is erecting a two-story frame structure, which will be used for business purposes. W. S. Hurst is building a large warehouse, which will be used to store hops, potatoes and other products.

John Scheringer, aged 80, died last Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary McGraw, near Linn's mill.

The deceased had been a resident in this county for about 25 years. His wife had been dead for a number of years.

The board of water commissioners went out to Clarkes a few days ago, and investigated the supply of water at Gard's springs. Measurements were taken, but it was decided that the volume of water was not sufficient to give Oregon City a supply.

The Salem Independent says: The state fair has closed. The attendance was small, the agricultural exhibit slim, and yet the weather was all that could be desired. Some mistakes, of course, were made, but the board tried to be economical and careful, and in this respect was a great improvement on former years. But in most respects it was not up to its usual standard.

The funeral of the late Nancy B. Jerome, whose death recently occurred at Oakland, Calif., occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George F. Fuller, in Holladay's addition, Portland, Saturday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. R. W. Farquar, pastor of the Hassalo street Congregational church. The floral offerings were numerous and tastily arranged. A number of Oregon City people attended the funeral. The deceased was the widow of the late Captain George Jerome, and mother of Mrs. Charles O. Albright. In early steamboat days Captain and Mrs. Jerome resided at Canby.

The greater I ken up in Just the suit of How balance on acc that he sold t in the aggr itemized diff p was A m attr bu' th co da hek for, ant.

Are You Going to Buy a Pair of Spectacles or Eyeglasses Soon

We have a fine assortment of them in steel, nickel, gold plated and solid gold; and we test your eyes with one of the best Eyemeters without any extra cost. Prices of glasses from 25c to $6.00.

We do all kinds of repairing to spectacles at a reasonable price. If you have a pair which do not fit, or if they are bent, bring them in and we will straighten them free of charge.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers

