

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

Union Hall.

Mr. C. G. Helvey has erected on his place an old fashioned log barn which is a rarity for this place.
John Thomas is working on a barn for O. B. Norton near Central Point.
Mr. Perring finished hauling his oat hay the fifth of this month.
Irvin Norton, Calvin Parker, Andy Hess and Charles Thomas took two teams and wagons and went to the coast a few days ago. Most of the party intend to move there and make their home in the near future. Old Mr. Hess and family aims to move over there in the spring.

Barney Frederick, of New Era, is digging potatoes. The yield is good, making about 100 sacks per acre.

Mr. Strait is hauling wood to New Era.

John Molzen and family have moved on the place known in these parts as Prune Hill.

Halsey Phelps returned from Eastern Oregon some time ago.

We understand that Mr. Strait has rented the place known in this vicinity as Arkansas Hill.

It seems late in the season for harvesting, but some people have just finished cutting oats. Some made hay out of them and others had them threshed.

There will not be as much cider drank around here as common, for the material to make it out of is too scarce. There is but one way—eat more potatoes and cabbage and drink less cider.

Mr. Hess says that his blackberries fell off the bushes and rolled along the road for some distance.

Oct. 16. BACKWOODS.

Cotton.

There was another heavy frost last night.

J. Gorbett went to town yesterday for a load of merchandise.

This part of the county seems to be having a matrimony boom. There has been three marriages within the last six weeks.

Our literary society has started up again, after five weeks' rest. The question for debate next Saturday night is "Resolved, that the republican party has benefited this country more than any other party." Leaders—Affirmative, J. Gorbett; negative, P. Gabriel.

J. H. Wright has been buying calves for a Wyoming man.

Mr. Woodruff is moving his household goods to Mountain Home.

We understand that the Mountain Home people are going to dedicate their new church next Sunday.

Miss Emma Freeman is now working at the old Oriental hotel in Oregon City.

John Arquet has the lumber on the ground for a new house.

T. N. Force is going to build a new house in the near future.

We understand that J. Comer raised a potato that weighs five pounds.

Oct. 13. YAW.

Rural Dell.

Damp weather after the freeze.

John Crocker made a trip to Oregon City Saturday and bought a spring tooth harrow.

Miss Lizzie Oswalt and Miss Lottie Samson went to Portland last Monday for a few days' stay at the fair.

Thomas Ogle intends to begin drying apples soon. He has repaired the furnace in his dry house.

Henry Warnock has finished digging the new school house well.

Warren Haskins is hauling lumber for the Needy bridge from Yoder's mill.

O. Kilo bought a band of goats last week.

Oct. 17. D. D.

Redland.

Miss Anna Hicinbothem commenced a six months' term of school here last Monday, with an attendance of 26.

Aug. Funk bought a team of horses from C. Shetz. Mr. Shetz and family leave for the Palouse country this week.

W. H. Bonney has bought Ed. Barrett's team, harness and wagon. Mr. Bonney is kept busy filling orders at his mill.

The job of building a porch on the school house was let to N. Smith for $25.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Allen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Brock and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Funk.

The young folks gave a pleasant surprise to Abe and Mary Kamuscher Saturday night. All report a pleasant evening.

Miss Maude Stone came out from Oregon City Friday and stayed over Sunday. Miss Maude is going to school in town.

Gilmore Behimer is at home again.

Johnnie Bargfeld came out to see his father. He returned from Manila with the Idaho volunteers. He says there is no place like Oregon.

Three stray donkeys have been practicing a new opera in Redland the past week or so. The owner is welcome to them.

Some of our people are unable to sell their wheat, owing to the damage done by rains.

Those who went to the huckleberry patch last week report the berries damaged by frost.

Considerable seeding has been done by those who took advantage of the wet weather in harvest time and did their plowing.

Mrs. Hicinbothem and Mrs. Irvin went to Portland and took in the fair last week.

Mr. Hicinbothem is laid up with rheumatism, while W. O. is improving slowly.

James Fullam made a trip to Portland to buy paint and oil for the grave yard fence, but found out he could do better at O. G. Huntley's in Oregon City, and bought it there.

Abe Kamuscher sold 400 bushels of gray oats at 30c per bushel without sacks at Oregon City.

Say, Mr. Editor, what is the matter with you and "ll-p"?

Oct. 16. W. S.

Garfield.

The people of Garfield are very busy. Some are plowing, others sowing. They are making time while the good weather lasts.

We have had several cold nights and heavy frosts.

Doc Palmateer, wife and daughter and son, have gone over the mountains on a visit to his brother, Dan, who is in very bad health.

William Wilcox took a load of prunes to Oregon City last week.

Miller Bros. have concluded to stop mining and run their sawmill again. Everyone thinks it a wise move.

Joe Hammer has returned home. He has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Della Davis. Joe has lung trouble.

Mrs. J. P. Irvin has returned home. She has been away over a week, visiting friends at Viola, Oregon City and Portland. She reports having enjoyed her visit very much.

Mrs. J. A. English has bought an elegant new organ.

Mrs. Anna Caney has been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. J. P. Irvin, and her little child, Elsie, has been quite sick, but is some better now.

Mrs. Norman Tracy's little child is very sick.

Alex Irvin was home last Sunday to see his parents.

Seth Austin and Messrs. Huntley and Canfield took dinner Sunday at J. P. Irvin's, on their way out of the mountains, where they had been hunting and fishing.

Emerson Surface was the guest of J. T. Irvin Sunday.

Emmet Hoffman is home for a week. He is working at a mill near Orient.

Mrs. Agnes Davis had a quilting party last week, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed.

Henry Andrews and daughter and his mother were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jones last Sunday.

Dave Deardorff and his two daughters, Mrs. T. Huxley and Mrs. Mary Lemon, of Sunnyside, are visiting here.

The Garfield school began Monday morning, with Irving Hackett as teacher.

C. Duncan is afflicted something as Job was.

The singing school will soon start up again. There is a good prospect of a large class.

Oct. 18. M.

Liberal.

How is this weather for freezing. It has ruined the grape crop here and badly damaged the late corn.

Fine weather for fall seeding. The ground is too dry for good plowing.

J. R. Shaver is graveling the county road from S. Wright's to the spring, and it will be a credit to this place, and shows his good judgment as road supervisor.

Our school is progressing nicely under care of Miss Hattie Wilcox.

Say! Bill where are you working the road. There is plenty of road work nearer home.

Craft Bros., of Lebanon, left this place Saturday morning with 138 calves, and were as fine a calves as ever were driven out of Clackamas county. Glad to note the change the farmers have made in their stock. Keep right on Brother Farmer with your Durhams and Herefords and then you will all be rewarded by a good uniform price for your stock in the price in the future. The hazel splitters will soon be a thing of the past.

Dee Wright and Clyde Jackson helped round up and they are rustlers. They have 100 more calves at Marquam. They will take about 1800 calves out of the Willamette valley this fall.

Willie Austin has returned from Sumpter, Idaho. He says when he left there was three feet of snow and down to zero. She is here yet, Willie.

The Dancing Club met at Grange hall and had a fine time. We hope by the next meeting the hall here will be completed.

Wm. Wright runs his chopper every Friday, and it is a great accommodation for the farmers here.

John Jackson has sold about all of his horses, and still buyers are coming after more.

Mrs. L. E. Wright leaves for Portland the last of this week, where she will remain with her daughter, Mrs. Coates, for the winter.

E. Do lge and family have moved into J. E. Coates' house for the winter.

The shingle mill starts today in full blast.

Wm Husband has rented the J. B. Jackson's place and has moved on the same.

Come forward, Frank, I have found her and ready to give you the ad.

Chris Boss will soon have his new house completed. Give it a good warning, Chris.

The dude of Liberal was out Saturday night and got frost bitten. Get in the house next time "Eh."

Sept. 16. K.

Mulino.

Mrs. Wm. Lyons died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, Thursday, October 12, 1899, aged 36 years. She was born in Union county, Penn., in 1863. She was married to Wm. Lyons Oct. 7th, 1893, and was converted and united with the Baptist church in 1891. She leaves a husband, father, mother, six brothers and two sisters to mourn their loss. The remains were laid to rest in the Zion cemetery. Mr. Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. Pratt and family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding O'er the spoils that death has won, We would, at this solemn meeting Calmly say "thy will be done." Though cast down, we're not forsaken; Though afflicted, not alone, Thou didst give and thou hast taken From us, dearest Lord, our own. Call not back the dear departed, Anchored safe where storms are o'er On the border land we left them, Soon to meet and part no more. When we leave this world of changes, When we leave this world of care, We shall meet our loving missed one In our Father's mansion fair.

Oct. 16. PANSY.

Logan.

Several new buildings have been erected in this community during the season.

Mr. Swales has a new granary and he intends to build considerable new plank fence this winter.

Mr. Thun is building one of the largest barns in Logan.

J. H. Brown, our accommodating postmaster, is nearing the completion of his handsome new residence.

Be Richly Wrapped at Light Expense

Ladies' Plush Capes in full sweep, waist length, stylish flaring colors, trimmed with thibet fur... $2.00
Ladies' Plush Capes, stylishly besided with jet collar and fronts edged with thibet fur... $4.00
Ladies' Stylish Plush Capes, Warten trimming all around, made with new lapel front, satin lined, a daisy for... $7.50

Come to us for bar gains in New Winter Shirt Waists and Skirts. "All Latest Novelties"

PRICE BROS

MAIN STREET OREGON CITY, ORE

Our $2.50 Ladies' Shoes for winter beats the world. It is plump kid stock, heavy sole, extension edge, fair stitch, square stock tip, elite toe, English back stay. See Samples in Our Show Window IT'S A BEAUTY Come in please and look at it McKITTRICK "The Shoe n" Next door to Oregon City Bank. Oregon City

Don't purchase a Ready Made Suit Which is made and finished by machinery with hundreds of others the same style and pattern. Have some individuality about your attire. We can give you perfect fitting suits and guarantee satisfaction at very low prices. Ladies' Tailoring neatly done M. GILBERT, The Portland Tailor, opp. Electric Hotel

A. J. Johnston, who spent the past summer at Wrangel, Alaska where he was employed in a large salmon cannery, is home again, and is filling his old position as chorister of our Sunday school.

Jack Gerber, Sr., and wife will move to Sellwood in a few days, where they will hereafter reside.

A chopping-bee took place at the home of Mrs. Nancy McCubbin last Saturday, and a social hop was given at the residence of her son, T. P. McCubbin, in the evening, and twenty six numbers were sold.

Our old friend and neighbor, Mr. Geo. Clark, was married in Oregon City last Saturday. Your correspondent hopes that the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be full of joy and bliss.

Several weddings are expected in this quiet, little burg in the near future. Young men are renting farms and preparations, presumably, to support better halves, are being made.

Mrs. B. Fallert has returned home from a visit to her husband at Wind River, Wash.

Fred Gerber is building a belfry on the Lower Logan schoolhouse for the new bell that the directors have purchased for the school. The bell, exclusively of all fixtures, weighs 155 pounds.

Miss Margaret Rieblhoff expects to return to Portland, where she has employment awaiting her.

Preaching services will be held at the Ravenswood Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

Madison Reed has been elected superintendent of our Sunday school, vice Mr. Fletcher, resigned.

More news next time. Oct. 17. SILENT.

Cherryville.

There was a heavy frost this morning, with plenty of ice, being the coldest morning this fall.

Mr. Endersby's baby has been very sick, but is said to be improving.

G. T. Beebe had his grain threshed the first of the week.

Miss Lizzie Shank is on the sick list, Charles Shank, who has been working for the Bridal Veil Mill Company, had the misfortune to get his hand quite badly cut a few days ago. As a consequence he is taking a rest.

Mrs. Stone was visiting her many friends in this neighborhood the first of the week.

Tom Beebe is plowing for grain this fine weather.

Mr. Frazier was up on Salmon river, visiting his son in law, O. Shidler, a few days ago.

O. Baty made a flying trip to Cottrell a short time ago. J. T. Oct. 14.

Mr. Weddle has put hay into the Jake Schatz barn. Mr. Holt will keep his horses there this season.

Much kraut has been made and still cabbages are going to waste in the fields.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings were very frosty and potatoes, tomatoes, pumpkins and squash vines were frozen to the ground.

Some plows have been going for a few days. If the rain of the fore part of the week keeps up their lick plowing will soon be good.

J. Q. Gage has purchased some wheat of the kind known as "Blue Stem" and will try it this season. The wheat, as filled from the machine, weighs 150 pounds to the sack.

Onion wagons are so few through here this season that they are almost an oddity.

Logs and slashing have not been dry enough this season to burn well.

Mr. Polifka has had some stumps blown out.

John Mosier's clover was splendid. He threshed over 20 bushels of the best seed.

Canby.

Mr. Denshal made a business trip to Oregon City last Friday.

Frank Zolner has purchased a new turning lathe and brazing machine for his bicycle shop.

Frank Hensley was in town last week, calling on old friends.

Mr. Sawtell is shipping a great many bales of teasles from this place to the East.

Farmers have commenced digging potatoes in this vicinity. They are turning out fine.

Will Armstrong met with a painful accident last Sunday while out hunting. Some one carelessly fired a charge of bird shot in his face. Dr. Deadman extracted 15 shot from his face and neck, and thinks he will pull through all right now.

George S. Batly has received the appointment as general passenger and ticket agent of the Iowa Central Railroad Company. His headquarters will be at Marshalltown, Iowa.

Ralph Knight has returned from Woodburn, where he has been employed in H. Bair's meat market. He expects to attend the Portland high school this winter.

A very pleasant surprise party was given to Rev. Dunlap and wife at the M. E. parsonage Tuesday evening. A large number of friends were present and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Oct. 19. C.

N. Y. World and Courier-Herald: $1.75

There is Nothing Better Made Than

The Mitchell Wagon

65 years experience in Wagon Making as represented in the "Mitchell" is a better Guarantee of a good wagon made of the best materials properly seasoned than all the promises and assertions of agents of new named unknown wagons combined

Mitchell Wagons

Have a world-wide reputation for

Strength, Durability,

and the high quality of materials used, as well as for their light running qualities NO WAGON stands better on all these points than the "MITCHELL"

You'll make no mistake

If you buy a MITCHELL WAGON

You are liable to make a mistake if you buy some other. It may take you a year to find it out, but you are sure to see your mistake sooner or later.

Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co.

First and Taylor Streets,

PORTLAND, OREGON