

Gigantic Sale of Dress Goods

New Golf Cloakings

58, 60 and 64 inch, at $1.90, $2.25, $2.50 yard. Elegant material.

New Scotch Plaids

42, 46 and 48 inch, at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 yard.

Camel's Hair Plaids

Latest effects, 45c, 50c, 65c, 85c, $1 and upwards to $1.75 yard. Finest collection of fall dress goods ever shown in Portland.

Every department loaded down with new and seasonable goods. Every article in stock marked in plain figures. No trouble to show goods, and no fancy prices asked. The ladies are delighted with our goods and prices. See us today.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

Fall Capes and Jackets

A sublime collection of new Golf Capes, Cloth Capes and Jackets, at $4.50, $5, $6, $7.50, $8.50, $9, $10.50 and upwards to $25.

Fur Collarettes

Purchased of the largest furriers in the world for spot cash. Will be placed on sale at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $5, $5.50, $6, $7.50, $8.50. Best values on earth.

Levi Johnson, formerly general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, passed through the city Monday on his way to Portland to join his family. From there they went to Pendleton, where Mr. Johnson will have charge of the Sunday school mission work for the Eastern Oregon district.

George Brown, the leading potato grower of New Era, was in Oregon City Saturday, and stated that he would start up his potato digger on the following Monday. The potato digger works by having four horses attached to the machine, and has a capacity of five acres or about 700 bushels daily.

Miss Josephine Fullerton, teacher of the intermediate department in the Canby school, came down Saturday, to remain over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. D. H. Glass. Miss Elgiva Mullan is teacher of the primary department. Shirley Buck is principal. The attendance now is about 100.

James Dolan, of Brownsville, a former resident here, was in the city during the week looking after his property interests. At one time he was city marshal, and also served as night watchman. He and Mr. Schram were charter members of Fountain Hose Company. Mr. Dolan was a resident here from 1864 to 1871, when he returned with his family to Brownsville.

Mrs. R. A. Miller returned Friday from a visit to the Willamette valley and Southern Oregon, having organized Native Daughter cabins at Junction City, Eugene, Astland and Roseburg, in her capacity as president. She was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. L. C. Griffith, and sister, Mrs. G. A. Peebles and daughters, Misses Alice and Lois, of Salem. Mrs. Peebles was on her way to Weston, to meet her husband, who is a professor in the state normal school there.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Now that hop picking is over, the Macksburg Sunday school will go on as usual.

Three new members were initiated by court Robin Hood of Foresters on last Friday evening.

Money at 7 per cent; $200 or less on good city or country property. Inquire at Courier-Herald office.

Several members of Willamette Rebekah lodge visited Omega lodge, of Portland, Tuesday night.

J. F. Yost, of Barlow, has one of the largest and best brick and tile factories in this part of the country.

Liberal inducements will be given a sawmill man to put in a good mill 10 miles from town; fine timber.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dedman, at Clackamas, Thursday night, October 12th, a son. Weight, 12½ pounds.

Mrs. Thomas Law lost a valuable cow Saturday. She claims it was poisoned, as it was sick only a day and showed the symptoms.

Fifty thousand rabbit and hare skins wanted during the winter months. Address J. A. Wood, 418 Ellis street, San Francisco, Cal.

The East Side Railway Company is storing hops for the farmers in its warehouse at Oregon City, to be shipped over its line when sold.

Charles and Albert Fankhauser had a runaway accident at Harmony a few days ago. Charles was thrown out and sustained a fractured leg.

The Abernethy Chautauqua Circle held its first meeting of the season at the residence of Hon. William Galloway at Parkplace Wednesday.

A telephone has just been placed in the Southern Pacific depot. This will be a great convenience to merchants and others who have business with the railroad company.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church will give a social at Shively's hall next Tuesday evening, Oct. 24, at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 cents. Come and have a good time.

One Point

There is one point we wish to impress upon the public: "That it is one thing to quote low prices in the newspapers and quite another to comply with these quotations." We wish to emphasize the fact that

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD. IT'S SO!

For this reason we are very guarded in our statements, and never make a promise which we are not fully prepared to carry out. The public, realizing our position, will appreciate the great values in our lines of

$14.85 Suits and Overcoats

We Stand Behind these Garments and Guarantee them Fully in Every Way

They are positively the best values in the market. Equal to any $25 garment of the merchant tailor, and better than any $30 garment offered by any of our competitors. Suits have hand-made buttonholes, hand-padded shoulders, hand-padded collar, best of serge linings. Overcoats have velvet collars or plain, satin or serge sleeve linings, and are made of all the new textures, including VICUNA CLOTH, MELTONS, KERSEYS and COVERT CLOTH. Some are full silk-lined and all our garments are made to order by the best wholesale tailors in America. In all cases money will be cheerfully refunded if goods are not satisfactory.

It will Pay You to Call and Inspect these Lines

Moyer Clothing Company

The Popular Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

THIRD AND OAK STREETS PORTLAND OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. H. Conyers was in Oregon City Saturday.

Col. Robt. A. Miller spent Monday in Salem.

J. W. Watts, of Stone, was in Oregon City on Tuesday.

Dr. C. Goucher, of Malino, was a visitor in town Saturday.

Judge C. N. Wait, of Canby, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

H. W. Gard, of Clarkes, was at the county seat on Tuesday.

Chas. Leavitt, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Thursday last.

Walter Bradley has returned from his surveying trip in Idaho.

Miss Edith C. Adair left Saturday to visit relatives at Salem.

John Robinson, of Clackamas, was a visitor in town Saturday.

Mrs. B. C. Curry returned from Seattle Thursday evening last.

W. F. Kirk, of Beaver Creek, was at the county seat on Tuesday.

J. M. Parrish, of Highland, was a visitor in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. G. W. Mallet, of Sauvie Island, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

K. McFarland, the powder man of Clackamas, was in town Monday.

J. A. Talbert and Matt Rickman were up from Clackamas Saturday.

S. A. D. Hungate has returned from his Eastern Oregon surveying trip.

A. S. Dresser returned Saturday from an extended visit to Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Edward Johnson left Sunday for Waterville, Wash., to join her husband.

Miss Greta Strickler visited Mrs. Henry Gans, of Oswego, during the week.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery attended a Young People's rally at Salem Sunday.

A. Zimmerman and family returned Friday from several weeks' visit in Nebraska.

A. H. Wing, school clerk of district No. 28, at Macksburg, was in the city Saturday.

John Denison, Oscar Kay, Robert Snodgrass and Lon Sandinger were in from Milk Creek Saturday.

Frederick Bardou, of McMinnville, was in the city Saturday on probate business connected with the Fish estate.

R. C. Caldwell has returned from an extended stay up the Columbia. His parents recently removed here from Salem.

Fred Gudke returned this week from Tangent, where he visited friends and shot Chinias by the dozen.

Miss Ruth Cowing has returned to her duties in the Good Samaritan hospital after a visit to her parents here.

Harvey E. Lounsbury, traveling freight agent of the S. P. R. R. in Oregon, was visiting friends here during the week.

Peter Roos, Casper Weismandel and son returned from a two days' hunt in the mountains on Friday. They shot a deer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Donaldson left Tuesday for a visit to Boston and the New England states. They expect to be gone about three months.

K. H. Gabbert, of the COURIER HERALD staff, accompanied by his wife, visited friends and relatives in Eugene and Southern Oregon during the week.

A. A. Kenny, who was formerly in the United States navy, has purchased the Chan Ferguson place in the Maple Lane district, paying therefor the sum of $2600.

Fred Humphrey succeeds W. H. Burghardt, jr., as sole man in Huntley's bookstore, the latter having accepted a position with J. K. Gill & Co., in Portland.

Miss Alice Cunningham, of Springfield, who has been visiting friends in Portland, left on the overland Monday evening for San Francisco, where she will spend the winter.

Charles W. Kelly, J. H. Howard, N. M. Moody and Mr. Dillman have returned from their fishing-hunting trip to the mountains. Kelly says that they found neither gold, copper or any other metal.

R. L. Holman and family were up from Oregon City a few days last week visiting the old folks on the farm, and incidentally getting a few Denny pheasants. They returned home Saturday.—McMinnville Telephone Register.

Casper Weismandel, of Macksburg, was in the city Sunday and Monday. Mr. Weismandel is one of the old subscribers of the Courier, and he secured the first copy of that paper ever printed. He was present at the time (nearly 17 years ago) and secured it.

Louis Funk, of Redland, was doing business in town Tuesday. Mr. Funk has nearly all his grain in for the coming season. He says that grain in his section was injured more than it was thought at threshing. Some of his neighbors having brought in wheat that was refused at the mills.

Are You Going to Buy a Pair of Spectacles or Eyeglasses Soon

We have a fine assortment of them in steel, nickel, gold plated and solid gold; and we test your eyes with one of the best Eyemeters without any extra cost. Prices of glasses from 25c to $6.00.

We do all kinds of repairing to spectacles at a reasonable price. If you have a pair which do not fit, or if they are bent, bring them in and we will straighten them free of charge.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers

