

YOU GAIN BY TRADING AT HOLMES' PARKPLACE CASH STORE

WARM UNDERWEAR

Ladies' vests and pants, gray and ecru, fleeced, shopped and trimmed, special at 25c.
 Children's union suits, as well made as $1 garments, special 25c.
 Ladies' extra fine French ribbed vests and pants, natural gray, perfection finish, standard value for $1.50; special at $1.
 The lines of ladies' union suits are exceptional values at 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25 and $1.50.
 Infants' Saxony and Swiss ribbed shirts, 25c.

The stock of ladies', misses' and children's underwear and hosiery is complete in all its details; furthermore, we guarantee the goods and prices the lowest. We have the standard makes in natural gray, cream, pink, blue, scarlet, white, ecru. New fascigators, bootees, mittens, leggings, hoods, capes, etc.
 Special Notice—We call particular attention to our line of ladies' and children's wool and cashmere hose. No use quoting prices. See them and you are sure to buy more. You will come back.

WARNER'S RUST-PROOF CORSETS, 20th century models. Every pair warranted and fitted to your form, if desired, by expert demonstrators.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

The greatest bargaining in trimmed hats. Miss Celia Goldsmiths.
 Hats, Hats, Hats. Great bargains at Miss Celia Goldsmiths.
 The Forest Grove Times now virtually announces itself a successor to the Hatchlet.
 Weinhard's hall will be cut up into offices soon which will be ready for occupancy about Feb. 1st.
 The city is planking the upper end of Seventh street 20 feet wide. This is a decided improvement over the gravel and crushed rock heretofore put there.
 Mrs. Robert A. Miller gave a delightful first afternoon to the members of the Avon Club last Saturday. Plans for the winter's work were discussed and refreshments were served.
 One of the notable court house weddings of recent date was the marriage of Annie Kauffman and Andrew Beer. Both were popular young people. County Judge Ryan officiated.
 D. W. Howard, of Canby, is now selling the "Best" incandescent vapor gas lamp, which gives a much better light at less than half the cost of kerosene. He has several lamps on exhibition.

Regular services will be held at the Baptist church on Sunday by the pastor. The subject for the morning discourse will be "Faith versus Sight;" the evening, "A Scene in the Court of Justice."
 W. H. Mattoon, of Viola, was in town Wednesday, and reports that farmers are busy digging potatoes and sowing grain. He believes that the area sown in grain will be larger than last year.
 County Treasurer Jacob Shade has received a letter from Mrs. Shade, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. J. Collins, at Callistoga, Cal., stating that the latter, who has been very ill, is much improved in health. Mrs. Shade may conclude to return soon.
 Dr. E. A. Sommer has removed his office to his residence. Dr. W. E. Call will remain at the old stand. It is understood that their partnership was more of a friendly nature than as a matter of business. They will continue to consult together in severe cases.

Among the new suits filed in the circuit court this week are the following: Divorce suits, Jennie vs. Charles Williams, desertion; Adeline vs. Patrick Carberry, desertion. Henry Hamann filed a suit to recover $150 on a note from William Kasalsky.
 G. W. Shaser, a pioneer of 1845, who was a resident of Oregon City until 1847, recently died at Olympia. On the way across the plains he was married to Miss Packwood, of the emigrant company. He will probably be remembered by some of the early emigrants here.
 Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject, for Sunday, Nov. 5, "Mortals and Immortals." Sunday school at 12:10. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to attend these services.

As an indication of the decrease of business in the circuit court of Clackamas county the records of the clerk's office show that the receipts for filing suits for October, 1898, were $323.55, while for the month just closed the fees were $215.25. October is usually a good month in a financial way for the clerk's office, as the circuit court convenes in November.
 Lieutenant Nellie May, of Albany, arrived down on the local Tuesday afternoon to attend the Salvation Army gathering in Portland. She also expected to meet her sister, Mrs. Captain Heagen, who has been stationed at Aberdeen, Wash. Both are Oregon City girls and have become prominent in Salvation Army work. They will be assigned to new locations at this meeting.

When You See In Our Ad. It's So

During the past two weeks hundreds have taken advantage of our

GREAT PROFIT-SHARING SALE

And many of our customers have departed happier and richer by $10, and with superior bargains besides.

All this week we will continue to give away $10 and $5 bills. An Envelope given with each Man's or Boy's Suit, Mackintosh, Overcoat or Reefer. A $10 or $5 bill in each ten envelopes. OUR USUAL LOW PRICES prevail during this sale.

Moyer Clothing Company

The Popular Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

THIRD AND OAK STREETS

PORTLAND OREGON

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. G. Noe, of Needy, was in Oregon City Saturday.
 Mrs. W. Cary Johnson visited Salem Wednesday.
 Hon. George Ogle, of Molalla, was in the city Tuesday.
 Mrs. J. P. Johnson, of Salem, is visiting friends in Oregon City.
 Mrs. Boyd, of LaOamas, Wash., is visiting her son, Elmer E. Boyd.
 J. W. Smith, the Macksburg merchant, was in the city Tuesday.
 C. T. Howard, the Malino flouring mill man, was in town Tuesday.
 F. P. Larson, a well-known farmer of Stafford, was in town Wednesday.
 Mrs. G. W. Grace has returned home from an extended visit at Cuba, Mo.
 Miss Emma Hardenbrook, of Yencella, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Boyd.
 Mrs. K. H. Gabbart returned Thursday from a visit to her parents, at Eugene.
 Cal Winslow left this week for Pendleton. His family will follow him in the spring.
 J. F. Eckerson, a well-known fruit grower of Canby, was in the city Wednesday.
 D. W. Howard, a prominent citizen of Canby, has been doing business in the city this week.
 L. Heinz and H. H. Helper, two prominent farmers of Macksburg, were in town Tuesday.
 J. H. Wright, of Meadbrook, was doing business at the county seat Monday and Tuesday.
 Rev. Harold Oberg was given a very creditable reception at his new home at Hillsboro.
 D. M. Groshong, of Wilhoit, has just returned from Eastern Oregon, where he spent the summer.
 W. H. H. Samson has so far recovered from his abscess troubles that he is now sojourning on his farm.
 Charles Spangler, who has been employed in the flouring mills here, returned to Carns yesterday.
 Mrs. F. P. Talkington and daughter, of Salem, were visiting Dr. George Hoy and family during the week.
 Hon. and Mrs. George Knight and W. H. Evans, of Canby, attended the A. O. U. W. entertainment Tuesday night.
 Sam Bennett, the well known salesman at Price Bros.' store, left Wednesday for a trip up the Willamette valley.
 G. J. Scully, accompanied by his wife, visited Gabe Potter and and wife over Sunday. They live in Astoria.

Dr. Leavitt, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Monday.
 Will Green returned Wednesday from a trip to Cathlamet, Wash.
 J. H. Daly, a prominent citizen of Macksburg, was in the city Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Randolph have rented their place at the head of Seventh street and will leave about the 15th for California.
 Ed Young came in from Macksburg Tuesday with a four-horse load of potatoes, which he sold to local parties for 45 cents per sack.
 L. Hornshuh is spending a few days in Oregon City. He is now located at Albany, where he is employed in one of the leading mercantile establishments.
 Miss Bertha May and Mrs. Ida Cooper, of Oregon City, are visiting the family of J. W. Exon. The ladies and Mrs. Exon are sisters.—Dayton Times.
 Dr. J. F. Calbreath, of McMinnville, the newly appointed superintendent of the state penitentiary, has been visiting Receiver William Galloway, of the land office.
 C. V. Surfus and wife, of Butler county, Iowa, who were visiting his brother, I. D. Surfus, and other relatives, for the past six weeks, left on their return trip home Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howell and H. W. Trembath have returned from San Francisco, where they attended the golden jubilee of the Odd Fellows. They report a delightful sojourn.
 John Shannon was in from Beaver Creek Saturday and reported that the Beaver-Creek Hall Association would begin its new building this week. It will be 30x60, with 14-foot posts, and the site is opposite the store and postoffice.
 Dr. Casto, of the Alpine farm, was in Oregon City Wednesday. He left at this office a sample of his potato crop that went 300 bushels to the acre. One of the samples left was 14 inches long and weighed two pounds, the other was scragly and weighed over four pounds.
 John Frost, who has been attending the Walla Walla college for some time past, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Morris, of Parkplace, and will go to Healdsburg, Cal., college in a few days to finish his education with a view to entering the ministry.
 Louis and William R. Sager, of Clarkes, were visitors in town Tuesday. Their mother, Mrs. T. L. Sager, has been very ill, but is now recovering. William established the first cigar factory in Skagway, and Louis returned not long ago from the Klondike. The latter expects to return to Dawson in February.

If you have anything to sell, advertise in the COURIER-HERALD and you will be pleased with the results.
 Guy Frost, of Philomath, who was visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lawrence, died Sunday of abscess of the brain. The deceased was about 17 years of age and was taken home for burial Monday. He had come down on a visit for a week, and succumbed to his unfortunate disability. Rev. A. J. Montgomery conducted brief services Monday morning at the residence of Mrs. Lawrence.
 Chief of Police and Mrs. O. E. Burns gave a Halloween party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Alice Stevens. There was music and dancing and refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Stella Yacht, Maggie Young, Alice Stevens, Maud Maddock, Daisy Baxter, Bessie Wood, Bernice Kelly, Burs Reddick, Ida Kelly; Messrs Harry Empkins, Claude Hoffman, George Simmons, Walter Nemyre, Fred Humphrey, Web Burns, E. E. Burns, jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burns.

New arrivals in riding and walking hats at Miss Celia Goldsmiths.
 Born, in Oregon City, Oct. 30th, to James Cotta and wife, a girl.
 Dr. Sommers has removed from the Barclay building to his residence, rear of Huntley's drug store.
 The old brick flouring mill, which has not been running for several years, was started up Wednesday. The capacity of the Portland flouring mills here is now from 900 to 1000 barrels daily.
 William O. Hulbert, formerly a resident of Olympia, Wash., has purchased the feed yard from Mr. Bussard, the former owner. Mr. Hulbert, with his family, have become permanent residents here. Mr. and Mrs. Bussard have removed to Eugene.
 The Reading Circle at its last meeting requested Mr. Bollinger to examine several books and recommend one for November's reading. "Richard Carvel" has been selected. Reading this book entitles any one to the privileges of the circle. The last Monday evening of the month has been selected as the evening for the criticism of the work read during the month.

Bring chicken wheat—Parkplace store Miss Gertrude Finley was the recipient of one of the most delightful surprise parties of the season at her home Tuesday evening. Hobgoblin ghosts and patriotic guessing games were features of the occasion. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Andresen; Misses Mary McIntyre, Addie Clark, Kattie Payne, Gertrude and Metta Finley; Messrs Ira Hoffman, James McIntyre, John B. Finley, W. G. Griley and John W. Loder.
 The Clackamas County Humane Society held its regular annual meeting Tuesday night and re-elected the following officers: President, Miss Annita McCarver; vice-president, George A. Harding; secretary, Rev. A. J. Montgomery; treasurer, E. G. Caudfield. The officers are also members of the board of directors. The following were re-elected members of the board of directors: Dr. W. E. Carl, H. C. Stevens, W. A. Huntley, Mrs. E. G. Caudfield, J. E. Hedges.
 Money at 7 per cent; $2000 or less on good city or country property. Inquire at Courier-Herald office.

This time we want to call your attention to our line of Musical Instruments.

We have Guitars from $5.25 to $25.00	Zithers from $4 to $8, Deweylin Harp from $6 to $8, (this is the latest, come in and hear it), Accordions from $2 to $10, Mouth Harmonicas from 5c to $1.50. Strings and extras for all instruments.
Mandolins 3.00 to 22.00
Violins 2.50 to 30.00
Banjoes 5.00 to 15.00
Autoharps, Guitar Zithers and Columbia

Burmeister & Andresen
 The Oregon City Jewelers

We also sell the Kimball Pianos and Organs on easy installments.