

GRAND Clearance Sale

Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and everything in the Millinery Line at 25 per cent less than cost for the next ten days.

Miss Celia Goldsmith.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Heman Lee was down from Canby Wednesday.

C. T. Tooze, of Wilsonville, was in town Monday.

W. H. Husbands, of Liberal, was in town Saturday.

J. A. Bydman was registered at the Electric hotel Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Young have moved to Meadowbrook.

Mrs. William Barlow, of Barlow, has been very ill during the past week.

Mrs. Hattie Broughton is very ill, and her condition is but little improved.

L. P. W. Quimby, of Portland, state game warden, was in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Beeson and Mrs. Beeson were in from Shubel Tuesday.

Mrs. F. M. Samson, of Marquam, visited Mrs. W. H. H. Samson, Monday.

M. V. Hill and Wesley Hill and wife, of Beaver creek, were in town Tuesday.

W. E. Myers, a well known sawmill man, of Dodge, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. W. L. Molloy went to Woodburn Monday to visit friends for a few days.

Mrs. Margaret A. Wilson, of Milwaukee, was a visitor in Oregon City Monday.

Charles Logus was up from Portland Tuesday, looking after his property interests.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ringo were down from Highland, visiting friends here Tuesday.

R. M. Allen, who is now an attaché of the Clackamas hatchery, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Miss Amanda Hussock, who has been ill with fever for several weeks, is slowly convalescing.

W. H. H. Wade, a prominent citizen of Currinsville, was in Oregon City Monday and Tuesday.

Judge J. W. Meldrum and family took Thanksgiving dinner with Hon. and Mrs. George A. Steel.

C. S. Howard and family left Saturday night for San Jose, Calif., where they will make their future home.

William Logus goes to Portland in a few days, where he will assist in Wells, Fargo & Co's office until after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Howell, of Springfield, returned from Portland Saturday, where they spent a short honeymoon.

George J. Currin, of Ione, Morrow county, was in town Monday. He is visiting relatives and old friends in this county.

Mrs. W. H. H. Wade, of Currinsville, who was visiting relatives at Salem, returned Tuesday night. Mr. Wade met her here.

Miss Maggie and Master Hugh Minns left Monday for Chicago to join their parents, who preceded them several months ago.

Uncle Jacob Harless, of Molalla, returned Monday night from a visit to his old home in Indiana, and reports a pleasant trip.

Mrs. J. B. Robinson and two sons arrived Monday from Sacramento, Calif., and are visiting her mother, Mrs. Fannie Cochran.

Miss Onie Gregerson and Charles Burns, jr., were awarded the cakewalk prize at the mask ball, given at the armory, Thanksgiving night.

J. K. Morris returned Monday night after an absence of several months in Eastern Oregon. He was at Prineville the greater part of the time.

Chauncey Barney, who formerly lived at W. H. H. Samson's, and read law in Senator Brownell's office, is now professor in a school at Montpelier, Idaho.

Charles N. Wait, the newly elected mayor of Canby, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

J. C. Stuart is recovering from his recent illness.

Gilbert Hedges returned Wednesday from a visit to Woodburn.

Mrs. S. S. Mohler has been visiting friends at Vancouver, Wash.

H. Paulsen, a prominent citizen of George, was in town yesterday.

Riley Hays, the Oswego road supervisor, was in the city Wednesday.

F. C. Andrews came down from Seattle Wednesday, to visit his family.

Lewis Mosherberger was in from Molalla Wednesday, on road business.

Stephen Hutchison and James Parrish were down from Highland Wednesday.

S. W. U'Ren, of Monmouth, was visiting his son, W. S. U'Ren, during the week.

S. B. Kent, a prominent Elliott Prairie farmer, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Dr. C. E. Loomis, special agent of the land department, has returned from a visit to Eugene.

J. G. Wilhelm, the Sellwood brewer, is sojourning at Paso Robles, Calif., for the benefit of his health.

J. H. Walker and family moved into their elegant new residence on upper Seventh street this week.

Fred R. Hedges, who is attending medical lectures in Portland, visited relatives here during the week.

Gustave Arndt and Joseph Bonn, who live in Clackamas county, near Aurora, were here on road business Wednesday.

Ed Taylor is confined to his home at Canemah with illness, and A. N. Munsey is officiating in his place at the post-office news-stand.

Mrs. Mionie M. Traylor, of Drain, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Beeson, at Shubel, for the past six weeks, left for her home Tuesday.

Hon. George A. Steel, who was recently appointed a United States forestry inspector, left Saturday night for New Mexico, to look after duties pertaining to his office.

Seth Austin was down from the Upper Clackamas hatchery this week, getting instructions from the state fish commission as to the details of looking after the hatchery property this winter.

J. H. Howard, grand sashem of the Redmen, left Wednesday night for an official trip up the valley. He had just returned from Rainier, where he organized a wigwam with 39 charter members.

Sam L. Stevens, who was attending the state university at Eugene, returned home Sunday on account of illness. He was making splendid progress in his studies, but ill-health compelled him to return home. He will remain here until after the holidays.

W. S. Hurst, of Aurora, was in town Monday. He reports business active in the potato line, having shipped 28 carloads in November and six in December. The shipments were made principally to Los Angeles and lower California points. He stated that there was a slight slump in the potato market.

O. L. Barber, of Elliott Prairie, was in the city Monday, and congratulates himself on having made a good sale of his hops. He sold 50 bales for 10 cents per pound, and 31 bales for nine cents. The hops, however, were of extraordinary good quality, and he was fortunate in making the sales at the right time. A number of growers are selling their product for six and seven cents per pound.

Bert Greenman, superintendent of the Upper Clackamas hatchery, completed his work for the season, and returned home Sunday. It was late in the season before operations were begun on account of the high water and delay in getting the buildings up. However, the result of the work has been very satisfactory, and a big catch is anticipated for next year. Two million, two hundred and ninety-seven thousand eggs were placed, and 98 per cent of the output was hatched and planted.

Stop at the Racket store and see our fine line of undershirts.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

The Racket store carries tailor-made skirts.

The Racket store carries fascinators and baby hoods.

Write or call for special price list at Parkplace cash store.

Born, at Logan, Nov. 29th, to William Kreuger and wife, a son.

The Racket store is the place to get kid body dolls and heads of all kinds.

County Clerk Dixon issued a marriage license on December 5th to Lottie Bennett and Herman Fischer.

Remember the Racket store has all kinds of notions.

A. P. Anderson and Miss E. Plummer, both of Clackamas county, were married at Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday.

Charles Shields and Francis Welch have re-opened the meat market on upper Seventh street, above Snively's opera house.

Rev. T. P. Haynes will fill his regular appointment and preach at the U. B. church Sunday, Dec. 17, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Lost—Pocket or note book, containing money and papers, between Oregon City and Bolton. Liberal reward for return to Courier-Herald.

The pastor of the Baptist church will preach a special sermon Sunday morning on the subject of education. All interested are especially invited.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blount, an old resident of Canby, aged 85, was committed to the asylum Wednesday for treatment. William Blount was appointed guardian of her property.

A RARE CHANGE—A brand new first-class buggy or wagon (any size) or harness to trade for rough and dimension lumber, or will sell cheap for cash. Inquire at Courier-Herald office.

The Racket store also carries a fine line of ribbons, the Kid-fitting corset, flannelette wrappers and gowns, gloves, underwear and hosiery and other articles too numerous to mention.

C. N. Greenman, J. G. Pillsbury, N. N. Robbins, William Eudy, H. H. Johnson and Peter Nehren were the pall-bearers at the funeral of the late Mrs. Frances Caldwell, held Tuesday.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, Dec. 10, "Sacrament." Sunday school at 12:10. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to attend these services.

Wednesday afternoon John Duffy's wood scow broke loose from its mooring place, and floated down to the rapids, before it could be towed ashore. Duffy went into the water while trying to stop the scow from breaking loose, and when he rose to the surface of the water, exclaimed: "Gee! its cold."

J. W. Graham, a well known pioneer, died at his home at Graeme on Monday, aged 67. He was at one time prominent in Clackamas county politics, and was known for many years as the proprietor of Graham's ferry, 12 miles up the Willamette. He deceased was a native of Scotland. He left a wife, five daughters and three sons. The oldest son, Charles, recently returned from Germany, where he was studying music.

Herman Oelschlaeger, interfered in a family row at Clackamas a few days ago, and got himself into trouble. Herman Piper had him arrested for assault battery, and Oelschlaeger had a hearing before Justice Webster Tuesday. U'Ren and Schobel appeared for the defendant, and the jury failed to agree. The Pipers now have a divorce suit in the circuit court. The women in the house were relatives of Oelschlaeger, and he started in to take their part in the row.

A meeting of prominent Clackamas county Patrons of Husbandry, met at the court house, to attend to matters connected with the fire and life insurance plans of the grange. Every grange in the county was represented. State Lecturer J. S. Casto, of New Era, was chairman of the meeting, and William Grisenwaite, of Beaver Creek, was secretary. David McArthur, of New Era, was elected as director for this district for both insurance organizations for the term of two years. Among those in attendance were Richard Scott and T. R. A. Sellwood, of Milwaukie; J. L. Hattan and Mr. Rowen, of Stone; J. C. F. G. and L. H. Kitchen, of Logan; B. H. H. Koon and George Sandia, of Mount Pleasant; J. L. and Homer Kruse and T. L. Turner, of Wilsonville; C. N. Wait and Halsey Phelps, Canby; J. S. Casto and David McArthur, New Era; William Grisenwaite, Beaver Creek; R. L. Ringo, Highland; W. H. H. Wade. There were others present, but their names could not be secured.

We are armorers For the winter Knight

Cheeks pinched—nose blue—most uncomfortable is the man who goes about without an overcoat when it's cold. Perhaps, because of a whim, he's worrying along through the winter coatless, and he thinks he's smart. Not smart a bit—and he'd think so himself, if he only knew how little he need pay here for a good overcoat of everlasting color, and almost the same kind of wear.

With one of our Kersey, Covert Cloth or Oxford-gray Overcoats you can bid sturdy defiance to the cold, at the same time appear as well-dressed as any body. We show extreme fashions for the swell dresser, and more sedate coats for the modest fellow. Our prices are more reasonable than is usual for garments of such excellence.

$10 to $45

A. B. Steinbach & Co.
POPULAR ONE PRICE HATTERS & CLOTHIERS.

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest. New Location 4th & Morrison Streets

Grand Gift Sale

Appreciating the liberal patronage bestowed upon us this fall we will distribute to the public the following articles:

- Twentieth Century Daisy Air Rifles.
- Webster's Unabridged Dictionary 1,281 quarto pages. Full sheep.
- Toy Pianos, 15 keys.
- 21 Piece High-grade China Tea Set.
- Footballs, heavy on canvas. 10-inch diameter.
- Magic Lantern, 12-inches. 12 slides.
- Toy Trunks, barrel top Saratogas.
- Doll Carriages, trimmed with fancy figured cloth, embossed cane bottoms, folding parasols.
- Blackboards, size of frame 17 1/2 by 24 1/2 inches.
- Dolls, wasnaiveisque, kid body, fancy dressed.
- Tool Chests, size 3 1/2 x 5 x 11 inches, contains ten large tools.
- Safes, full nickel plated, reliable combination lock.
- Drums, embossed metal, American flags in colors around drum.
- Engine, Tender and 3 Cars, length 28 inches.
- Wash Sets, washboard, wringer, clothes dryer, table 11 1/2 by 18 1/2 inches.
- Dangerless Poppuns, 26 inches long.
- Tin Kitchen Set, 36 pieces.
- Embossed Blocks, 15 pieces.
- Animal Wagons.
- Iron Toys.

A rare Chance to secure CHRISTMAS GIFTS absolutely FREE

Coupons will be issued; 10 per cent rebate given with each sale

Sale Closes December 25, 1899

I. SELLING

Main Streets, Suspension Bridge Corner

The Royal Sweep

The latest in Ladies' winter water-proof wraps—two colors—Seal Brown and Sycamore Green. Green wraps $5.00 each; Seal Brown $6.00 each. Gentlemen's warranted box-coats—last winter was $10, this winter $8, latest colors—grey and plad. Only a limited number c them in stock. Get your pick before numbers are broken. They are all the latest styles and the very best material.

McKITTRICK "The Shoe Man"

Next door to Oregon City Bank.

Oregon City