PROBATE COURT.

County Judge Ryan Made Several Orders During the Week.

The last will and testament of Hiram Fellows, deceased, the well known pioneer of 1847, who died at Highland on November 23rd, was admitted to probate last Saturday, and Eli Fellows, of Highland, was appointed executor. The will devises that Joseph and Orlando Fellows, of Highland, and Mrs. Julia E. Nelson, of Merrill, Mont., shall be given $1 each. The remainder of the property is bequeathed to Daniel and Eli Fellows at Highland. The real and personal property is valued at $7,500.

W. H. Husbands, administrator of the estate of Henry Klise, deceased, was granted an order to borrow $630 from A. B. Klise to pay off the indebtedness of the estate; also to execute a mortgage as security for the same.

In the matter of the estate of James G. Wilson, deceased, Margaret A. Wilson, executor, filed her final report. She reported a balance of $9,131.95, and that all claims were paid in full. She was directed to pay each of the following legatees $15 each in accordance with the provisions of the will: James G. Wilson, Anna R. Wilson, Robert E. Wilson, Samuel Wilson, Margaret Wilson and John G. Wilson, the two latter being minors. It was further ordered that the executrix be released when the proper receipts are filed.

In the matter of the estate of Joseph Ferguson, deceased, C. Ferguson, administrator, filed his final account, and January 2nd, was the date set for hearing objections to the same.

H. W. Trembath was appointed guardian of the person and estate of John R. Trembath, insane. He filed a bond for $1500.

John T. Strite, executor of the estate of Samuel Strite, deceased, filed a report of the sale of real property for $1800 to A. H. Wing, which was confirmed.

In the matter of the estate of Clarissa Fellows, deceased, A. S. Dresser, administrator, was allowed 30 days to file inventory and appraisal.

Colton.

It is raining continually and the roads are getting in an awful condition. Milk creek is up and booming.

C. O. Hubbard is still quite ill and medical aid seems to be of but little benefit to him.

Emery Gottberg hauled the lumber for the Canyon creek bridge during the heavy rain last Monday. Emery must be rain proof.

W. E. Bonney will put in the new bridge across Canyon creek today. There are two or three more bridges that will need repairing soon.

T. N. Force has his new residence almost completed.

Joe Carlson, who has been working at Cole Creek, Wash., is home for the winter.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Kleinsmith. She gave a spelling match last Wednesday night, which was well attended.

What is the matter with the mail carriers? We don't get our county papers until Wednesday. This makes the news nearly a week old. Yaw.

Liberal.

We had a couple of days it did not rain.

Glad to note that W. H. White is improving under the skillful care of Dr. Goucher.

P. M. Graves has brought his cattle home from the mountains.

L. Look was visiting W. H. White on Sunday.

F. Klingler is laid up with boils and suffers terribly with them.

The dancing school is progressing nicely under Prof. Halpruner.

The dancing club met Saturday evening and voted to have a free dance with the money in the treasurer's hands in the near future.

Mrs. Maville returned home Monday evening, after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Kinsey, of Canemah.

Dee Bruner returned home last Thursday with his bride from Fifteen-mile creek. May prosperity and happiness be strewn along their path of life.

L. H. Barnes has his grubbing machine ready to begin work when it stops raining.

The late high water in Molalla river did lots of good work in the new channel.

William Skein killed his hogs last Monday.

Stock has begun to go down a little, if the grass is good. Very few cattle are being fed for market this winter in this section. K.

Springwater.

There is an old saying, "More rain, more rest."

There was a shooting match at Carl Howell's last Tuesday, for geese. They all got geese and went home happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker went to Oregon City Tuesday to fetch out his son and daughter in law.

There is going to be a dance at the new Grange hall at Springwater on the 22d inst.

Miss Bird Raney is coming home from Portland Christmas.

John Tracy, of Garfield, was the guest of Carl Howell last week.

There was a grand social at W. J. Luellen's hall Thanksgiving eve, and they all reported a good time.

Dock Wallan's new house is nearly finished and we are expecting to hear the wedding bells Christmas.

There is going to be a Christmas tree at Luellen's hall.

Dock Howell and Miss Hattie Warnock were married last Tuesday. We wish them much joy. H. H. Dec. 5.

Mountain View.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenely, of Portland, spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. Murrow, and family.

John T. Francis returned home on Thanksgiving day, after an absence of five months in Seattle.

Allen Frost is on the cripple list this week.

Mr. Forbes has moved into a house near the U. B. church.

Mahlon Moran and wife are at home again this week.

Mr. Hamilton and family have moved to Fifth and Monroe streets.

Mr. Stafford has moved into his new house on the border of Mountain View. There was another charivari on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. Bullard. His granddaughter, Miss Lottie Bennett, was married Tuesday.

Rural Dell.

The big rain Saturday night made the ground too wet to farm.

Warren Haskins was plowing an orchard in Hubbard last week for Prof. Buck.

John Johnston, who has been in Eastern Oregon for several months, returned home last week.

Mr. Kilo, of Portland, who bought a farm recently from A. Hardesty, is building a house on the opposite side of the road from Grandfather Samson.

J. M. Austin killed eight head of hogs yesterday.

The Evergreen Literary Society held its second meeting last Friday evening. The subject debated was "Resolved, that women should have the equal right of suffrage," which was decided in favor of the negative. The most interesting feature of the society seems to be the society paper, the Evergreen Blade, under the excellent management of L. H. Yoder. The subject for debate at the next meeting is "Resolved, that the United States will be benefited by the expansion policy." Leader on the affirmative, William Yoder; on the negative, Ellis Ridings.

Our new school house well has a fence around it.

Grandma Ogle seems to be improving in health.

J. P. Sumner, of Woodburn, was a visitor at Rural Dell last Sunday.

Mr. Beedie arrived from the East some time ago, but has decided not to move onto his farm this winter, so he will remain in Woodburn until spring.

George Ogle and J. M. Austin were making some improvements on the road between the Oregon City and Silverton road and the Oscar Sturgiss place last week.

Nov. 28.

There was quite a large number out (considering the cold rain) to pay their last tribute of respect to Mr. Spahr by attending his funeral services Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Stuckey is in Oregon City at present to attend to some business.

Mrs. Sax is intending to move to Portland. Perhaps she will have an auction sale.

Mr. Kilo began moving into his new house today.

The Smyrna people have decided to have a Christmas tree this year.

Miss Maggie Swartz left Sunday for Portland, where she will stay for a few weeks.

Fred Shaver, of Elliot Prairie, passed through here today.

Everybody be sure and hear the debate Friday evening.

Miss Maude Yoder seems to be the best speller, as she held the floor at both spelling schools. D. D. Dec. 4.

Union Mills.

Hugh Clow returned home last week from Oregon City, where he has been working for the past month.

Addie Christensen, of Union Mills, is now working at Mulino.

O. F. Kay, of Meadowbrook, was seen in our midst Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Burns was the guest of Elvira and Grace Clow Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Perry, of Mulino, visited Mrs. Oscar Daniels one day last week.

Mr. T. A. Clow has been suffering with sore eyes for a couple of weeks.

One day last week Mr. Briggs caught a silver gray fox near Uncle Gabe's barn where it had been visiting the turkey roost.

The ladies of Union Mills, are preparing to have an old fashioned Xmas tree in the warehouse, which Uncle Gabe so kindly let them have for the purpose. The ladies kindly invite all who would enjoy an old time tree to come and bring their families, presents and lunch, which will be served after the tree is disposed of and before the music starts the grand march, which will begin the dance for the remainder of the night. This is to be on the night of 23rd.

Jasper Trullinger took advantage of late high water and sent a number of fine sawlogs down Milk Creek to Union Mills.

Mr. Frasier's little son, Harry, has been very sick.

Sometime since Union Mills boasted of a rural letter carrier so Meadowbrook says: "There are others" who do not seem to mind the mud every Sunday. For he gets there just the same, Nov. 28.

Eldorado.

Mr. Tell Soole, of Columbia county, was a visitor of J. F. Woodward's. He reports plenty of bears and deer where he lives.

Deputy Clerk E. H. Cooper and wife were in this vicinity visiting relatives and friends over Thanksgiving, and we don't know if it was because he ate so much dinner or what, but when he went home he put on another man's overcoat and didn't discover his mistake until the man went after it the next morning. The first time we ever

Barlow.

J. King's little boy, 6 years old, fell while playing in a barn loft Sunday and was so severely hurt that he was unconscious for quite a while, but he is all right now.

Messrs. King and Erickson went about 100 miles south looking for land suitable for a farm and stock ranch.

Mrs. R. R. Bratton was called to Oregon City by telephone Tuesday to see her little niece, Chloe Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Smith, who they thought was dying of typhoid fever, but we learn that the child is recovering.

Grandma Barlow has been seriously ill lately, but is now rapidly recovering.

Our public school is now full and the youthful minds are devouring great wads of culture under the direction of Miss Maggie Guttridge, of Oregon City.

A literary and debating society was organized at the school house last Saturday evening and will be open to the public every Saturday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. Question for next meeting: "Resolved, that education is a necessary qualification to voting."

We understand that our near neighbor, Canby, is about to acquire another saloon. If that isn't enough, they may come over and take ours. What Barlow wants is a good general store. This is the best location in the state outside of a city.

Moses Quint was given up by the old-school doctors some time ago, but is now slowly but surely recovering (so he says) under Christian Science treatment. Here's to you, Uncle Mose, regardless of the source, and success to the scienceless science.

If Congressman Roberts, of Utah, is not allowed to take his seat, it will simply be a case of the mother church persecuting her offspring. It is not generally known that the Mormon church is a Christian church. C. Dec. 6.

Canby.

City election took place in Canby last Monday. Two tickets were in the field and some hard hustling was done among the friends of the various candidates with the following result: For mayor—Herman A. Lee, citizens, 15; Charles N. Wait, independent, 29. For treasurer—George Knight, citizens, 17; Frank Zollner, independent, 26. For councilmen—James Evans, citizens 41; S. J. Garrison, citizens, 27; Adam H. Knight, citizens, 35; E. C. Shull, citizens, 35; J. A. Graham, independent, 26; scattering, 8.

A. G. Stogsdell is slowly improving. Mrs. Ed Shull was quite sick the fore part of the week, but is some better now.

Mr. Chas. Boroughs starts for his old home in southern Indiana next Friday night. He expects to be gone for several months settling up the estate and visiting old friends.

Mr. Lewis Rogers will take a trip back to Michigan to visit his mother, who is very feeble. He starts next Monday morning.

The members of the Christian church are calssoming and repairing the church throughout, and when it is finished it will be one of the nicest places of worship in the city.

Mr. Sil Lumpkins is remodeling his dwelling house and will move in as soon as completed. Billy Bissel is doing the artistic work.

Mr. J. Enger, our depot agent, will go to Junction City instead of Mt. Angel.

Mrs. L. Rogers has moved into Sol Garrison's house, while Mr. Rogers goes East.

Otto Vorpahl went to Portland this week to visit his sister.

Mr. Carl and wife and Mr. Rosenkranz went to Portland today. They will attend the opera this evening. Oct. 6.
