

MACKINTOSH SALE

Our custom for years has been a MACKINTOSH SALE in season, not at the end of a season, when nobody wants the garment.

We take the initial step, and cut prices in Ladies' and Children's Mackintoshes. Take advantage of this sale. We guarantee our Mackintoshes.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

Remember Heinz & Co.'s Main street bakery makes all kinds of Christmas cakes and pies and sells them at prices less than you can make them.

E. E. Williams, who at one time conducted the largest grocery business in the city, arrived Friday morning from Denison, Texas, and expects to remain here for a month.

Mr. Gaylord came up from Oregon City this week, and took his family back with him. Mrs. Gaylord and children came here some time ago for the benefit of her health.—Dufur Dispatch.

Mrs. Mary C. Hardesty, of Needy, was visiting her brother, W. W. H. Samson, during the past week. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Parker, of Marquam, who recently arrived from Coon Rapids, Iowa.

B. D. Robbins, who owns a farm near Sumpter, Baker county, is visiting his uncle, C. C. Robbins here, and his cousin, O. P. Sharp, near Wilsonville. Mr. Robbins will probably remain in Clackamas county during the winter.

Fred Meindl, teacher of the Holcomb school, went to Forest Grove Friday, to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the inter-collegiate oratorical association. He was elected president of that organization, while attending the state normal school at Monmouth last winter.

Stop at the Racket store and see our fine line of undershirts.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Miss Yetta Milstein, of this city, was married to Sam Paley, in Portland, December 3rd.

There will be grand masquerade ball at Beaver Creek hall on the evening of January 1st. Everybody invite. Full particulars later.

A. H. Wade, of Molalla, has traded his farm there for the Strite place at Clackamas. Mr. Wade will remove to the latter place.

The Sunday Welcome says that J. P. Conyverse, of Clackamas county, has loaned the city museum a piece of vint maple, shaped like a pair of buggy shafts.

Christ Hansen, who lives on the Peter's hill, near Stafford, was arraigned in Justice Schuebel's court Monday, on a charge of using obscene language. He was fined $10.

J. L. Hattan & Co., of Stone, have removed their rock errick from Lincoln county, and set up the same at Baker's ferry, where they will get out stone for monuments and other purposes.

The jury in the suit of Staver against Fanton, of Carus, to recover for a very bad second-hand engine, sold defendants, failed to agree when the case came up for a hearing in Justice Schuebel's court.

The Milwaukee Dramatic Club will present "Me and Otis" tonight at the town hall in that place. Among those named in the cast of the drama are: Postmaster O. Wissinger, William Jacks, R. Burnett, L. Cruikshank, T. Rogers, Misses Edna Ross, Rosalie Scott and Annie Rogers.

August C. Fisher, a young man, who was formerly employed as a fireman in the paper mills, died of pneumonia at the home of Mrs. M. F. Boyles, Friday morning. The body was embalmed by Undertaker Holman, and on Sunday night was taken to Ontario, Canada, for burial by a brother of the deceased, who resides at Portland. The deceased was 29 years of age.

Will Dutcher had a hearing before Justice Schuebel last Thursday on a charge of maintaining a fish wheel in the fishway at the falls. The state claimed that he had violated the fish laws of 1885, while the defense contended that the statutes of 1893 governed the case, and that no offense had been committed, as there was no fish derelict. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Senator Brownell appeared for the defense.

Mrs. W. H. Fitzpatrick, of Lewiston, Idaho, and Mrs. Culpin, of Portland, visited Mrs. J. C. Bradley, Sunday. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was formerly a resident of Clackamas county.

COME and Pay Us a Visit

If you are in need of anything in the Clothing Line

It will pay you to come to Portland and examine our enormous stock. Besides the advantage of such a large variety to select from, thus enabling you to obtain exactly what you want—we save you from $2 to $5 on a Man's Suit or Overcoat, and $1 to $3 on Boy's Suits

Men's Suits $6.00 to $25

Men's Overcoats $8 to $30

Boy's Suits $2 to $15

Child's Reefers $1.50 to $8

Money cheerfully refunded if goods are not satisfactory

Moyer Clothing Company

The Popular Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

THIRD AND OAK STREETS

PORTLAND OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. J. Guyer was in from Beaver creek Saturday.

Miss Ella Boehlke was up from Oak Grove Monday.

Silas D. Hedges was down from Salmon Saturday.

Ed Armstrong, of Barlow, was in town Saturday.

R. M. Cooper, of Carus, was a visitor in town Monday.

Ed Burghardt, of Barton, was in Oregon City Friday.

Special Sale on Shoes at the Park-place cash store.

W. F. Fischer, of Oswego, was a visitor in town Friday.

P. T. McCubbin, of Logan precinct, was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casseday were in from Carus Saturday.

Everybody likes Kuersten's pumpernickel, the bread of health.

Fred Watts, of Nebraska, is making a short visit to relatives here.

W. M. Stone, a prominent Redland farmer, was in town Friday.

Mr. Lewellen, the Springwater merchant, was in the city Monday.

Miss Edith Hardesty went to Oregon City Tuesday.—Silverton Appeal.

Jacob Miley, a well known hop grower of Wilsonville, was in town Friday.

Henry Palmateer, a prominent Garfield farmer, was in town Saturday.

George Clark, a prominent citizen of Logan, was in Oregon City Saturday.

S. E. Hunter, a prominent resident of Sunnside, was in the city Saturday.

D. R. Dimick, the Canby livery stable proprietor, was in the city Monday.

John Burgoyne, a prominent citizen of New Era, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Woodward, of Midino, were visitors in the city Monday.

A. M. Vineyard, a prominent citizen of Canby precinct, was in town Saturday.

F. Way has removed his family from Meadowbrook, and are now residents of this city.

Henry Hornschuch, road supervisor of district 18, Beaver creek, was in town Monday.

Paul Naumann, who recently returned from Eastern Oregon, is home from a visit to Salem.

Miss Maud Warner, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is now out of danger.

Rev. W. Brenner filled the pulpit of the Lutheran church at The Dalles last Sunday.

L. W. Robbins, the Molalla merchant, was in the city Sunday on his way to Portland.

Mrs. Mary V. Howell has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Martyn, at Ashland.

Ernest and Robert Ginther and Jacob Hermann were in from Beaver creek Saturday.

Scott Godfrey has returned from Spokane, but has not decided whether or not he will remain here.

John Denison, the well known Milk creek farmer, was in Oregon City Sunday on his way home.

Hon. Ben Hayden, the noted pioneer lawyer of Polk county, was a visitor here, Friday and Saturday.

Jay King, John Erickson and C. E. Stewart were registered at the Electric hotel from Barlow Friday.

John Skirvin, a former resident of Marquam, was in town Saturday. He is now making his home on the Abernethy.

Miss Johnson, who has been living with J. A. Randolph at Viola for some time past, left during the week for California.

Mr. Bogue, of Oregon City, was in the city this week visiting his son, William, and greeting old friends.—Toledo Leader.

Harry Austin has returned to the Upper Clackamas hatchery, where he will look after the plant and property during the winter.

J. O. Peterson left Monday for Eugene to matriculate in the state university. He expects to attend for three or four years.

Gilbert Noe, who teaches school in the Samson district, near Marquam, visited at the home of Postmaster Horton, Saturday and Sunday.

W. C. Hawley, president of the Willamette university, also president of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association, was in town Saturday to attend a board meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Fitzpatrick, of Lewiston, Idaho, and Mrs. Culpin, of Portland, visited Mrs. J. C. Bradley, Sunday. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was formerly a resident of Clackamas county.

Hattie, the seven-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Broughton, died on last Thursday night, December 7th, of acute chorea. The funeral occurred at the family residence on Saturday, Rev. Bollinger conducting the services. The interment took place in Mountain View cemetery. The services were largely attended, and the floral offerings were tasty.

Henry Gray, of Astoria, accompanied by a woman, both dope fiends, were arrested by Officer Shaw Thursday night, and locked up in the city jail. They had been in the city for a number of days without any apparent means of support. When taken into custody they were wandering around on the streets at a late hour, evidently without a place to lay their heads. The following day the county authorities purchased tickets and returned the fugitives to Swilltown, Astoria.

A recent number of the Daily Engine Guard has the following bit of interesting news from the Blue river mines. Frank Stewart says the 10-stamp mill on the Lucky Boy mine will not start up until the latter part of next week. Machinists are very busy placing the last of the machinery in position. Mr. Stewart says only about one inch of snow has fallen at the mill this winter. A little snow is visible on the high points of Gold hill.

Thomas P. Jackson, a pioneer of 1845, has sold the remaining 320 acres of his donation land claim to Nathan M. Moody for the consideration of $4,000. Although Mr Jackson came here in 1845, he did not settle on his donation land claim until 1848. In the early 60s Mr. Jackson conducted a hotel at Lynn City on the west side and owned the ferry charter, but his property was all swept away by the high waters of 1861-2. Mr. Jackson was born in Pennsylvania in 1814, and moved to Illinois in 1840. Mrs. Jackson died about 12 years ago. His five children are now all living in Eastern Oregon. Mrs. Susan Mael, of Long Creek, is here having a sick son treated. Mrs. Louisa Beeson, John W. and Joseph B. Jackson, reside at Long Creek, and A. K. Jackson at Susanville.

was elected delegate to the Pacific coast conference of Chautauqua assemblies to be held in San Francisco on December 22nd. This conference will select the talent for the four coast assemblies to be held in July. The board voted for the following talented lecturers and entertainers: Clara Barton, Governor Roosevelt, Bob Burdette, Pope Miller and Bocker T. Washington. The latter is an Alabama negro, and the other assemblies may not vote for him in the conference. It was decided to improve the grounds in several respects. H. E. Cross was re-elected ground manager. The following committees were appointed: Executive—W. C. Hawley, J. W. Gray and C. H. Dye. Finance—J. T. Apperson, G. A. Harding and E. E. Charman. Transportation—T. F. Ryan, Carl, Cross, Harding and Apperson. Athletics—Dr. W. E. Carl, Cross, Ryan, Charman and Dye. Improvement of grounds—Ryan, Dye, Cross and Charman.

Ask for Kuersten's bread, cookies doughnuts, etc.

A RARE CHANCE—A brand new first-class buggy or wagon (any size) or harness to trade for rough and dimension lumber, or will sell cheap for cash. Inquire at Courier-Herald office.

THIS WILL BE A BUSY CHRISTMAS

We have prepared for it by buying all the newest and best we could find, and since we had our store enlarged and more show cases put in, we are better prepared to wait on our customers. However, it would be advisable to come before the rush as we can take more time to show our goods and you will have a larger assortment to select from. We have many new lines this year.

Watches for ladies, gents and children in gold, silver and nickel from $2.50 up.

Chains and Locketts at all prices.

A Fine Assortment of Rings Set with Diamonds, Opals,

Ruby, Emeralds, also Plain and Band Rings.

In Stick Pins, Link Buttons, Studs, Emblem Pins, Breast Pins, Earrings, we can show many new designs.

Our Clocks we guarantee to give satisfaction.

Doerflingers Cut-Glass guaranteed first quality.

About Silver Novelties and Toilet Articles we have so many designs and new articles this year that we can not mention them. We will be pleased to show you this line. We have articles from 10c to $10

For the Table we have Sterling and Rogers Bros. silver plated ware.

We can supply everybody with Musical Instruments We have Violins, Guitars, Mandolins, Banjos, Accordions, Zithers, Autoharps, Mouth Harmonicas.

We also sell the Kimball Organs and the latest style White Sewing Machine.

Our China Souvenir Ware we had made with all new views. This makes a fine present to send to your friends.

Fine Silk Umbrellas from $1.35 to $10.00.

Silver Mounted Canes from 50c to $1.50.

Burmeister & Andresen

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS