NEW ERA, Jan. 20.—Mr. Starlight, or Bill Starlight, did you see any ladies going up the hill? If there were none, then in your beautiful article that you had published you lied. No one else saw any. As for the slurs you published, I consider where they came from. Fools have no argument, but gas and gab. Of all creatures, I most despise a man who will write and publish lies.

I find in the last report of the commissioners the names of several relatives that drew from the taxpayers of the county $57.72 out of $81.78 for work in December, and their names are Bremer. This shows that the Bremers don't employ their relatives! I notice another little item in the report: The name of C. Bremer, a minor, also the name of R. Bratte, which means R. Bradley, another minor. There is a law that provides a penalty for employing minors or non-taxpayers to do road work. There may be others that can be called hundred dollar men. I will look this matter up at some other time.

Hereafter when you write sign your name. Don't skulk behind any "Starlights." What I write I sign my name to. I know who you are.

M. F. Moore.
