The indignation and disgust expressed at the blunders and incapacity of the yeomanry staff, to whom is ascribed the rank failure, threatening to overwhelm jority and minority reports, respectively, the movement started with such a fanfare of trumpets, are increasing daily. Those who were able to carry the scheme to success have been met at every turn with red tape and all kinds of obstacles and slights by the inner circle of titled incapables, resulting in scores of good men withdrawing from participation in the plans. In the case of the South Bedfordshire yeomanry, a whole company of 180 selected men has disbanded in disgust.
