Road Addenda.

The following subscription list was crowded out of the road meeting proceedings last week, and illustrates the substantial interest many Clackamas county farmers are taking in road matters:

We, the undersigned, hereby severally agree to pay to the county court of Clackamas county, Oregon, the sums set opposite our respective names to aid in the construction and completion of a modern road from Arthur's Prairie to Upper Logan school house, the subscriptions above to be on the following conditions:

First—That the county court of Clackamas county give a sum of money to aid in the construction of said road equal to the aggregate of all the voluntary subscriptions raised for such purpose and cooperate in such work.

Second—That the above road work be done this coming season, and finished before the 1st of November, 1900.

Third—That the subscribers have the right to work out their subscriptions, under the directions of the county court, provided said subscribers furnish the kind and quality of labor desired, on demand of the supervisor, or foreman in charge; otherwise, the amount is due in cash on demand of the supervisor or authorized local committee, and the amount will be turned into the county.

Fourth—Also provided the citizens of Oregon City and vicinity and other interested parties will raise a sum equal to our aggregate subscription and apply the same upon what is commonly known as the old toll road from Bakers Ferry bridge to the lower Clackamas bridge.

It is our purpose to raise by private subscription the sum of $2000 to aid in the construction of said portion of road, and we pledge ourselves to work together to the end that the same may be completed this year.
