

Spring Novelty Silks

We display an unequalled assortment of Novelty and Fancy Silks in the latest and newest effects to date, at popular prices.

Dress Goods

Our Great Stronghold

Always up to date in popular weaves and popular makes. And we candidly state without fear of contradiction that we acknowledge or fear no competition from any quarter of the earth in selling fine Dress Goods.

Our Stock is Complete

We are ready for the trade. Our stock is superb. Our name is a household word. Mail orders tell the tale. See us or all kinds of dry goods.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON

PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. E. E. Charman is confined to her home with illness.

Rev. J. H. Beaven has recovered from his recent illness.

Ed and Robert Wright were in from Meadowbrook Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah J. Heiple, of Eagle Creek, was in the city Tuesday.

L. E. Armstrong, of Barlow, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Miss May Mark is now manager of Mrs. Sladen's millinery store.

Dr. W. T. Lyon's children have recovered from their recent illness.

William Gardner, of New Era precinct, was in Oregon City Friday.

M. S. Shrock, the Needy school teacher, was in the city Saturday.

E. F. Whitten, a well known farmer of Oswego, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. A. C. Beaulieu has been seriously ill for the past three weeks.

James Baty, a well known Molalla farmer, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Ralph C. Grimm, a well known resident of Needy, was in town Saturday.

H. Iderhoff, one of the leading farmers of Stafford, was in town Monday.

F. F. Wilcox, of Redland, a well known farmer, was in the city Saturday.

Rev. C. A. Luce, of Marquam, was visiting Rev. R. A. Atkins, Tuesday.

A. J. Pickard, of Eugene, was a visitor in the city, during the first of the week.

James Waters and George Townsend, of New Era, were visitors in Oregon City Saturday.

Ralph Young left Monday for Eastern Oregon, where he will spend the summer.

James Smith, a well known merchant of Macksburg, was in the city Tuesday.

C. C. Mullan, a prominent young citizen of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Saturday.

O. P. Miller, a well known former resident of Oregon City, was up from Portland Friday.

J. W. Trullinger, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Monday, on his way to Lake City, Modoc county, Calif, where he expects to reside in the future.

George Marshall, of Portland, was visiting his aunt, Mrs. E. J. Marshall, at Canemah, last Sunday.

William Whittington and wife moved out to Springfield Monday, where he will start a blacksmith shop.

Miss Mary Hornschuch began a term of school at the Timber Grove school house, near Clarkes, last Monday.

E. F. Surface and Ed Burlingame, of Garfield, two prominent young men of that section, were in town Monday.

L. E. Grazer, the Barlow cottonwood farmer, and Antone Zeith, a Canby farmer, were in Oregon City Monday.

E. C. Hackett and family have moved in from Garfield, the former having completed his school, a week previous.

W. H. H. Wade, of Carrinville, who returned home Saturday, left Mrs. Wade at Portland for medical treatment.

T. A. Campan has been re-engaged to teach the Marks' Prairie school. F. Peters was elected director, and Colman Marks clerk.

George Clark, of Logan, unloaded almost enough tiling from the Southern Pacific freight cars Monday, to drain almost his entire farm.

Mrs. Berryman Jennings, the well known pioneer woman, has been seriously ill at her home near the mouth of the Clackamas river.

Leonard H. Vincent, the well known schoolteacher, Charles Henzy and Oliver Everett, prominent farmers, all of Wilsonville, were in town Saturday.

Fred Warner, who has been a head engineer in the Willamette paper mills, for several years past, has gone to Seattle to accept the position of chief engineer in a sawmill there.

Deputy County Treasurer A. Luelling attended the regular meeting of Milwaukie Grange last Saturday. There was a good attendance and five new candidates were initiated.

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell, of Coquille City, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Ben Hendrickson, at Mount Pleasant. Last week Mr. Russell's initials were given wrong.

Eugene Comins and family, of Shubel, left for North Yakima a few days ago, where they expect to reside permanently. Mr. Comins was one of Clackamas county's best citizens, and will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dundas, of New Era precinct, were in the city Saturday, and state that no school teacher has yet been engaged for the Brown district. There is a vacancy there for an experienced teacher.

W. B. Partlow, the sage of Mount Pleasant, has discovered that he celebrated the wrong birthday a few days ago. He went to Barlow and celebrated his 71st birthday, as in times past, but upon investigating the family records last Sunday, found that he was 72 years old. He is wondering whether or not, it would be advisable to go to Barlow and celebrate the lost birthday.

E. Sadie White, who has a prosperous business at Sumpter, arrived Monday night, and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin. She reports business lively there, and thinks that the boom will continue for some time to come. She stated that her brother-in-law, Frank McDevitt, who formerly resided here, was working on the Sumpter American. William Maw has been working on the same paper for some time. Both are setting type and receiving $18 per week each. M. E. Bain is also there, and is apparently looking after mining business.

Adams Bros. are adding a fine line of Ladies' Furnishing Goods to their other departments at the Golden Rule Bazaar.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Born, in Oregon City, March 15th, to the wife of A. J. Davidson, of Oswego, a son.

Large stock of tin and granite ware just received at the Golden Rule Bazaar. Get our prices.

Cyrena, the six-months' old child of Mr. and Mrs. Dionne, of Willamette Falls, died last Thursday of spinal meningitis.

Voters should lose no time in registering if they expect to vote at the coming June election. There is no evading the law.

Spring Neckwear—All the new styles, the daintiest, the prettiest examples of the manufacturer's art at the Golden Rule Bazaar.

The Barclay high school juniors are getting everything in readiness to tackle the Y. M. C. A. juniors in a game of baseball.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company are building section and tool houses at the station here, which will materially benefit the appearance of the yard.

At the first of the series of indoor baseball games played between the Y. M. C. A. and Company F teams at the armory Saturday night, the former won by a score of 25 to 6.

Mark Twain's idea of luxury was a pair of suspenders for each pair of trousers—Call and examine our new line of suspenders. Special prices this week at the Golden Rule Bazaar.

The eight-year old son of William J. Kidd fell from the top rail of a fence last Saturday, caused by the board breaking, and sustaining a fractured arm. He will be laid up for several days.

A. E. Lewellen, a well known citizen of Springfield, died of inflammation of the lungs Monday, aged about 40. The deceased was a son of ex-County Commissioner John Lewellen. He left a family.

The wife and children of the late Seba Norton, of New Era, desire to express through the columns of this paper their kind appreciation of the kindnesses performed by many friends during his late illness.

The Oregon Agriculturist and Rural Northwest of the late date, gives in full Herman Anthony's paper on "Bee-keeping," read before the farmers' institute, recently held at New Era. The paper was a practical one in every respect.

Separate Company F is growing in numbers, and some of the boys are becoming experts at target practice. Lieutenant Leighton Kelly states that eight or 10 ex-volunteers of Company I have joined the new Company F.

It is announced that there will be a change in the Southern Pacific time card after April 1st. The south-bound night overland will pass here at 9:30. A local to run between Portland and Oregon City will be put into operation.

William Surfus, aged 30, was committed to the state insane asylum Monday by County Judge Ryan. He had only been afflicted for a short time, but imagined that people were following near-by with the intention of killing him.

In Justice Schuebel's court Monday, William Tracy was found not guilty of an assault upon the person of Antone Rupp, a fireman employed in the woolen mills. George Dyer pleaded guilty to assault on Arthur Snyder, and was fined $8.

Separate Company F went to the depot in a body Wednesday morning, to pay silent respect to the bodies of the dead soldiers on the passing train. Appropriate services will be held at Portland in honor of these unclaimed bodies of soldiers killed in the Philippines.

Tom Brown, superintendent of the Salmon river hatchery, accompanied by Bert Greenman, deputy fish commissioner, left Friday for Salmon river. It is the intention to begin taking steel-heads as soon as possible. Mr. Greenman will return after getting everything in readiness.

Superintendent S. W. Downing, of the Clackamas hatchery, has received 100,000 trout from Lake Michigan, which he is feeding. These lake trout weigh from five to 85 pounds when full grown and will be transplanted in Washington and Oregon waters.

On Saturday and Sunday, Rev. Mr. Matthews, assisted by Rev. LaOzols, of Highland, and Rev. Moffatt, of Newberg, will hold religious services at the house of Isaac Lee, Mount Pleasant. The meetings promise to be of great interest. Everybody is welcome.

Two important transfers of real estate were filed in the county recorder's office, the latter part of last week. One was the sale of the Currin donation land claim to James Kitching, formerly of Linn county, for the consideration of $5,000. Jacob K. Miller, of Needy, sold his farm to Levi Hostetter for the consideration of $5,100.

Thomas J. Laws, a soldier in the Fourteenth Infantry, who died in the Philippines last summer, was buried at Vancouver, Wash., last Sunday. The funeral was conducted with marked military and church honors and ceremonies. The deceased left a widow in this city, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sabin.

Pearl Hall, of Buena Vista, aged 20, died at the Red Front House, of typhoid pneumonia. He had been employed in the paper mills. On Monday, the remains were sent to Buena Vista for burial, where his parents reside. A number of friends accompanied the body to the train. He is said to have been an exemplary young man.

The government commission sent out to examine into the advisability of purchasing the locks here, have filed a voluminous report. The United States government has decided that it will not pay $450,000 for the locks, but if an agreement cannot be reached as to the purchase price, it is probable that new locks will be erected.

John Bullard, of Carrinville, was examined before County Judge Ryan Saturday on a charge of insanity, and was committed to the state insane asylum. This is his first attack, but he was considered dangerous in the neighborhood of Carrinville, as he carried a revolver. He was disarmed when arrested by Sheriff Cooke Saturday. The unfortunate man is 46 years old.

Millinery Opening

Ladies are cordially invited to attend the Millinery Opening March 28th, 29th and 30th at the Red Front Store.

Mrs. M. E. Hamilton.

Highest cash price paid for second hand household goods at Bellomy & Busch.

Lost or Strayed—A red steer, two years old in the spring. A star in the forehead, some white on flank, marked with a hole in the left ear. A liberal reward will be given for any information leading to the animal's recovery. R. Dundas, New Era, Or.

County Clerk and Mrs. Elmer Dixon have formally adopted Katie Souers, and her name was changed by the county court to Inita Katie Aletha Dixon. The father of the child, Henry U. Souers, formally consented to the adoption, the mother having died about two years ago. Mr. Souers retained control of his son, but gave up the girl on account of his continued ill health.

The Epworth League grand oratorical contest will take place at the Methodist Episcopal church, this (Friday) night. An elaborate musical and literary program will be presented, to be participated in by some of the best talent in Portland. Attorney G. B. Dimick will present the gold medal. The contestants are Marie Deyer, Alice Kinder, Carrie Seely, Florence Hickman, Gertrude Maple, Lennie Seely and Pearl Tucker.

Mrs. Mary Burns, widow of Lawrence Burns, died in Portland Monday, aged 85. The funeral took place from St. Lawrence's church in Portland Wednesday morning, and the body was buried in Mountain View cemetery. Larry Burns and wife were former residents of Oregon City, and are kindly remembered by the pioneer residents. They came here from New York, and owned the place where Porter recently erected his new house on the West Side. Mrs. Burns moved to Portland in 1887.

Mrs. T. J. Wyatt, formerly of this city, died of consumption at the residence of her aunt, in Waitsburg, Wash., March 6th. Mrs. Wyatt was born in Columbia county, Washington, was the daughter of John Miles and was 22 years, 6 months and 18 days old. She was brought up by her aunt, Mrs. James Shell, in Walla Walla county, Washington, and was married to Mr. Wyatt December 26, 1896, and resided in Oregon City four years, where Mr. Wyatt was employed in the pulp mills.

Two of the boys who stole J. L. Swafford's chickens, near Elyville, and later returned them, handed in the following story: "The leader tried to lie out of it. He wanted to give us two boys a little bantam rooster and five cents apiece, if we would take his chicken back, but we did not. Before he caught us he wanted some other boys to go up to F's place, and the boys wouldn't go. Then he almost forced us to go up to Elyville to swipe chickens. We boys didn't try to lie out of it."

Don't fail to go to Miss Goldsmith's or one of those hats below cost.

The primary for Abernethy precinct will be on the 31st, at 2 p. m., at Cross' storehouse. W. L. Holcomb, Precinct Chairman.

The following obituary notice was sent in by a relative of the late Mrs. Charity Offield: "She was the wife of J. P. Offield, and died at her home near Russellville, March 2nd, 1900. She was an early pioneer of this state, crossing the plains from Missouri in 1859. The deceased was 81 years of age, and raised a family of 10 children, eight of whom with her husband, are still living. She was a member of the Methodist church. She was a kind and loving wife and mother, and left many friends to mourn her loss. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Gwynn, taking his text from Job 14-14.

A correspondent at Canby sent in an account of an entertainment, that arrived too late for the last issue. The correspondent says that he was unable to be present, "but judging from the accounts of every lady, (and the Canby people know a good thing when they see and hear it), the renditions must have been of a high order. The musicals was Canby's own native production—James Kocher, violinist, and Vesta Knight, organist. Both are children of prominent business men of Canby. The praise of the star of the evening were so unqualifiedly approving of a girl yet in her teens that we naturally desired, and sought an introduction to the Madonna—Miss Aimee Morris, of Spokane, Wash. Miss Morris is at present visiting Miss Ethel Whitlow, the Canby milliner. Miss Morris is a sister to J. L. Morris, of Sheridan, Oregon."

A local teachers' institute will be held in the Barclay school building, Oregon City, on Saturday, March 31st, 1900, to commence at 10:30 o'clock a. m. All teachers are invited to attend, and are asked to extend the invitation to other educators and friends of education in general, who do not receive a printed invitation. At the forenoon session Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald Byland will present "Psychic Culture," and the "Public School Teacher, His Rights and Duties," will be presented by Robert Ginther and H. D. Wilcox. After the noon intermission an excellent musical and literary program will be presented. Mrs. J. W. Gray will sing a solo, Mrs. Clark Ganong, Mrs. Nelson Lawrence and Miss Imogene Harding will sing "Forget Me Not." Mrs. R. A. Miller will give a Shakespearean Reading from the "Merchant of Venice," and Mrs. Clark Ganong will sing a vocal solo. The program committee are County Superintendent N. W. Randall, Professor J. W. Gray and Miss Fannie G. Porter.

1900 BICYCLES 1900

We sell the following Makes for Cash or on Installments:

Rambler, White, Stearns, Barnes, Mitchell, Ideal and Golden Eagle

Price for Chain Wheels $25 to $40

Price for Chainless $60 to $75

OLD WHEELS TAKEN IN TRADE

Burmeister & Andresen

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

