SOCIAL NOTES.

The Week.

Mrs. W. Alldredge gave a quilting day afternoon at her home on upper Seventh street. Refreshments were served, and the social features were all that could be desired. Those present were: Mesdames Church, Lawrence, Seamann, Grace, Robinson, Atbey, Reckner, Renner, Ely, Cole, Nelson, Green, Ringo, Gibson, F. Alldredge.

The Saturday Club gave a very sucressful "mystic gate" social at the home of Mrs. Charles Albright Friday evening. About 75 persons were present. In the decorations of the parlors and mystic gate, Oregon grape predominated in artistic arrangement. The musical program consisted of a piano duet by Alda and Vesta Broughton, a piano solo by Edna Caufield, a plane sole by Edith. Cheney, a piano duet by Mrs. L. L. Forter and Edna Caufield with response, a vocal solo by Miss Lulu Spangler, of Corvallis, and response. Partners were selected by congadrum slips of paper, the mystic gate, they were handed a lorecast of the future.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney were the recipients of a delightful surprise party in honor of the ninth anniversay of their wedding day. The affair was sale by a committee consisting of Mrs. T. S. Lawrence, Mrs. G. W. Church and Mrs. G. W. Grace. The evening was passed pleasantly in a social way. Cakes turnished by the guests and ice cream by the hostess were served. Those present were: J. J. Cooke, A. S. Dresser, W. A. White, W. H. Howell, B. S. Bellomy, G. W. Church, G. A. Heinz, Rev. J. H. Beaven, T. S. Lawcance, George Marr, O. A. Cheney, E. Titus and F. E. Andrews. each accompanied by their wives; Mrs. T. F. Ryan, Mrs. F. F. White, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. C. H. Dye, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Doolittle, I. LeMahieu.

The Great Barlow Minstrels.

This popular organization of black face artists will be at Shively's opera house next Monday night, headed by the next president of minstrelsy, Harry Ward. Thit they have a good show, we do not need to say; their reputation insures it. The Barlow managers, always looking how to best please the public, long ago decided that but one way was possible and that was, not only to keep their entertainment abreast, but in advance of other minstrel shows. This rule has been its own justification, Watch for the street parade Monday noon. Tickets on sale at Huntley's.
