

Up-to-dateness

In a spring suit, the width of a seam, the size of a button or the location of a pocket may sometimes determine the up-to-dateness of the garment. We give the closest attention to all the little kinds of fashion.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 828 East College St., Jacksonville, Ill. "Words cannot express what I suffered. I sought relief among the medical profession and found none. Friends urged me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed ninety-five pounds. Now I weigh one hundred and fifty-six pounds—more than I ever weighed before. I was so bad I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing down pain, and such distress every month but now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Diercke-Barlow Wedding.

Miss Beatrice Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Barlow, was married to Charles Diercke, of Portland, at the bride's parents, Wednesday at 8 p. m. Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, was the officiating clergyman. Miss Imogene Harding was bridesmaid, and Charles Rueff, of Portland, was best man. Miss Zeida Goldsmith, of Eugene, played the wedding march.

The bridal couple stood under a canopy of bridal wreaths and for-got-me-nots, the latter in the form of a lover's knot.

The parlors were tastily decorated, white lilacs, Oregon grape and dogwood predominating. A lot of rare potted plants were also in evidence. A splendid lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Diercke left on the 10:20 car for Portland, where they will occupy a dwelling prepared for their reception on the corner of Everett and Twenty-first streets.

The bride is a member of one of Oregon City prominent pioneer families, and the groom is a prominent musical instructor in Portland at the top of his profession.

W. W. Myers for Commissioner.

We want good men for county officials. Here is one who can't be beaten, one who has done more good for Oregon City and indirectly for the county than any other man. Let any one challenge this if he is game. His name is W. W. Myers. I would like to see him in a better office, but there is none in which he can do so much good as county commissioner, and I recommend him for that office.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Multnomah.

Joseph Weber and Frank I. Weber, partners, doing business under the firm name of Weber Bros., Plaintiffs.

vs.
Warren Merchant, J. W. Fleming, John Patterson and the First National Bank of Roseburg a corporation, and L. McGregor, Defendants.

State of Oregon, county of Clackamas, ss.

BY virtue of a judgment order, decreed and executed, duly issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court, in the above entitled cause, to me duly directed and dated the 21st day of March, 1900, upon a judgment rendered and entered in said court on the 21st day of December, 1899, in favor of Joseph Weber and Frank I. Weber, partners, doing business under the firm name of Weber Bros., plaintiffs, and against L. McGregor, defendant, for the sum of $189.25 now due on said judgment, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 5th day of February, 1900, and the costs of and upon this writ, commanding me to make sale of that part of the following described real property, situate in the county of Clackamas, state of Oregon, to-wit:

Commencing at a point eighty rods south and one hundred and ten rods east from the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of section twenty (20), township one (1) south, range two (2) east, Willamette meridian, running thence north forty-eight rods; thence east fifty rods; thence south forty-eight rods; thence west fifty rods to the place of beginning, containing fifteen acres.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution, judgment order and decree, and in compliance with the commands of said writ, I will on Saturday, the

at the hour of 1:30 o'clock p. m., at the front door of the county court house in the city of Oregon City, in said county and state, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, to the highest bidder, for U. S. gold coin cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the within named defendants, or either of them, had on the date of the mortgage herein, or since had, in or to the above described real property or any part thereof, to satisfy said execution, judgment order, decree, interest, costs and all accruing costs.

J. J. COOKE,

Sheriff of Clackamas County, Oregon.

By J. E. JACK, Deputy.
