

OREGON CITY COURIER OREGON CITY HERALD CONSOLIDATED.

A. W. CHENEY, Publisher Clackamas County Independent.

Legal and Official Newspaper of Clackamas County.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Subscription Rates: Paid in advance, per year $1.50.

Advertising Rates: Standing business advertisements, per month $1.00.

Patronize Home Industry: OREGON CITY, APRIL 13, 1900.

Opposition of his political enemies. Even his enemies here wished his nomination.

Our German fellow citizens who have been so loyal to the republican party while its advocates denounced the democrats for favoring English free trade.

CHEAP GOODS IN EUROPE

Below is a list of tariff-protected articles, controlled in this country by the trusts.

Table with 3 columns: Item, U.S. Price, Eng. Price. Includes Lead, Wire, Barb wire, etc.

LABORER AND MACHINE.

The Scientific American says: "Modern machinery has so greatly enlarged the productive power of the workman that it becomes possible to pay him wages far in advance of those earned by his hand-labor predecessor."

WORK TO DO.

The degree of success of the citizens' ticket will depend on the efforts of the citizens who have made it.

There are scores of republican voters in the county, upright and well meaning who are not familiar with the merits or demerits of the two opposing tickets.

tions of Brownell and his tools, and the bedeviling influence of the republican sack. It should not be forgotten for an instant that no trick is too contemptible for the managers of the republican county campaign.

COMMERCIALISM.

In America, the land of promise—heretofore the inspiration of every heart longing for liberty and opportunity—capitalism and commercialism are triumphant.

To the Man That Was Pinched.

Editor Courier-Herald: I see a letter in your last issue signed by George L. Story, a two-by-four lawyer of Oregon City, accusing me of being a treacherous cuss, etc.

LABORER AND MACHINE.

The Scientific American says: "Modern machinery has so greatly enlarged the productive power of the workman that it becomes possible to pay him wages far in advance of those earned by his hand-labor predecessor."

WORK TO DO.

The degree of success of the citizens' ticket will depend on the efforts of the citizens who have made it.

There are scores of republican voters in the county, upright and well meaning who are not familiar with the merits or demerits of the two opposing tickets.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Proceedings of Regular April Term, 1900.

Be it understood that at a regular session of the board of county commissioners for the county of Clackamas and state of Oregon, begun and held in the court house in said county and state on Wednesday, the 4th day of April, 1900, the same being the regular time fixed by said board for holding a regular session of said board for the transaction of county business.

COMMERCIALISM.

In America, the land of promise—heretofore the inspiration of every heart longing for liberty and opportunity—capitalism and commercialism are triumphant.

To the Man That Was Pinched.

Editor Courier-Herald: I see a letter in your last issue signed by George L. Story, a two-by-four lawyer of Oregon City, accusing me of being a treacherous cuss, etc.

LABORER AND MACHINE.

The Scientific American says: "Modern machinery has so greatly enlarged the productive power of the workman that it becomes possible to pay him wages far in advance of those earned by his hand-labor predecessor."

WORK TO DO.

The degree of success of the citizens' ticket will depend on the efforts of the citizens who have made it.

There are scores of republican voters in the county, upright and well meaning who are not familiar with the merits or demerits of the two opposing tickets.

CITIZENS' TICKET

(Continued from page 1)

For treasurer, A. Luelling and H. Harding, of Oregon City, and O. D. Eby, of Marquam, were placed in nomination.

COMMERCIALISM.

In America, the land of promise—heretofore the inspiration of every heart longing for liberty and opportunity—capitalism and commercialism are triumphant.

To the Man That Was Pinched.

Editor Courier-Herald: I see a letter in your last issue signed by George L. Story, a two-by-four lawyer of Oregon City, accusing me of being a treacherous cuss, etc.

LABORER AND MACHINE.

The Scientific American says: "Modern machinery has so greatly enlarged the productive power of the workman that it becomes possible to pay him wages far in advance of those earned by his hand-labor predecessor."

WORK TO DO.

The degree of success of the citizens' ticket will depend on the efforts of the citizens who have made it.

There are scores of republican voters in the county, upright and well meaning who are not familiar with the merits or demerits of the two opposing tickets.

CITIZENS' TICKET

(Continued from page 1)

For treasurer, A. Luelling and H. Harding, of Oregon City, and O. D. Eby, of Marquam, were placed in nomination.

COMMERCIALISM.

In America, the land of promise—heretofore the inspiration of every heart longing for liberty and opportunity—capitalism and commercialism are triumphant.

To the Man That Was Pinched.

Editor Courier-Herald: I see a letter in your last issue signed by George L. Story, a two-by-four lawyer of Oregon City, accusing me of being a treacherous cuss, etc.

LABORER AND MACHINE.

The Scientific American says: "Modern machinery has so greatly enlarged the productive power of the workman that it becomes possible to pay him wages far in advance of those earned by his hand-labor predecessor."

WORK TO DO.

The degree of success of the citizens' ticket will depend on the efforts of the citizens who have made it.

There are scores of republican voters in the county, upright and well meaning who are not familiar with the merits or demerits of the two opposing tickets.