Spreads Like Wildfire
When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by Geo. A. Harding, Druggist."

R. Scott's Answer.
MILWAUKEE, O., Apr. 16, 1901.
You have an article in the Courier-Herald of the 13th inst., headed "Another of L. L. Porter's Dirty Jobs," stating that I have entered into agreement with him to give him the county printing for two years, provided, that he, in return, secures for me the nomination for joint representative.
It is unnecessary to say anything more in answer to that charge, than that Stipp is a liar when he made that statement to you. As it came from Ananias' headquarters, I know the people will take it for what it is worth.
You, or any other sane man, know that a contract made with the present board would not bind the members of the new board, as they are a majority and could rescind any contract the present board might make.
Now, Mr. Editor, you know me too well to ever think that I would enter into any kind of deal that would reflect in any way on my private character, for I have never done anything in public business that I would not have done had it been my own.
The deal charged was never thought of or talked of to me by Porter, or any one else. You ask if Sectt and Porter want to own the county? It would be better perhaps if they did have a little more to say when you send bills into the court that have to be cut down 300 per cent, and then allowed a good profit.
In regard to my being a candidate for joint representative, I do not deny it, and did not know it was any crime. I am still a republican and shall always work for its principles.
R. SCOTT.
[The bill mentioned was not cut down 300 per cent but 200 per cent. The bill was put in for but 75 per cent of the price paid by the county before, and according to contract I was entitled to it too, but to save the county a lawsuit I submitted to the arbitrary cut by the board. The charge was not excessive for the quality of work furnished.—Editor.]

Impressive Easter Services.
The larger portion of the population in Oregon City attended church last Sunday in honor of Easter. Written descriptions of the floral decorations in the various churches would hardly do the matter justice.
At the morning service at the Congregational church nine new members were received into membership. The rite of infant baptism was administered. Rev. C. E. Clapp, of Forest Grove, gave appropriate addresses both morning and evening. An elaborate musical program was presented in the evening under the direction of Professor Cumpston. Mrs. B. C. Ganong sang the "Resurrection."
St. Paul's Episcopal church was crowded Easter morning. The whole service was full of the reverent joy appropriate to the great theme of the day. The sermon was preached by the rector, Rev. P. K. Hammond. The festival music was grandly rendered by the very able choir, the solo parts being finely sung by Mrs. Ganong, Misses Mary Conyers and Imogene Harding, Mrs. Lawrence and Dr. Freeman, and the offertory anthem, the "Resurrection," was sung with thrilling effect by Mrs. R. C. Ganong. The congregation are very much pleased with the new windows placed in position the previous week as an Easter gift from the Daughters of the King.
The usual impressive services were observed at the Catholic church, except that there were some added features in the music. A new mass was sung, and Mr. Surryne assisted in the music. Mrs. John W. Moore was director, Miss Lou Draper organist, Mrs. Ed Sheahan soprano, Miss Mattie Draper, alto, Nick Michels tenor, Chris Michels and Mr. Surryne basses.
The other churches had special Easter services, but no programs were obtainable.
