PROBATE COURT.

In the matter of the estate of Martha Jennings, deceased, W. E. Carll, administrator, John W. Meldrum, G. L. Hodges and Cleo R. Rineason were appointed appraisers.

In the matter of the estate of Benjamin Hendrickson, deceased, Albina Hendrickson was appointed administrator. The total value of the real and personal property is $1750.

In the matter of the estate of David E. Callahan, deceased, Sam Engle administrator, it was ordered that the remainder of the estate be turned over to the widow.

In the matter of the estate of Wilhelm Robenow, deceased, the will was admitted to probate, and Wilhelm Robenow, the widow, was appointed executrix. The estate is valued at $800, and the heirs are: Wilhelmine, Robenow, the widow, Damasus, Mary, Augusta and Wilhelmine Robenow, daughters in Germany; William Robenow, a son, and Emma Landes, a daughter, Portland; Anna Weiss, a daughter, and Richard Robenow, a son, Damasus.

In the matter of the estate of Bernhard Quant, deceased, Richard Scott, the executor, petitioned that the final account be set aside, and that the administrator be permitted to proceed. An order was made granting the petition.

In the matter of the estate of Charles Bunnell, deceased, W. F. Bunnell, administrator, the same came up for a final hearing on final settlement Monday. The heirs filed objections to each and every disbursement claimed by said administrator, except the sum of $204 allowed as extra compensation. The heirs claimed to have furnished funds to help delay the expenses of administration as follows: J. A. Bunnell, $364.92; B. L. Bunnell, $104.89; Sarah A. Ashby, $67.20; F. R. A. Saltwood, $127.25. These claims the administrator refused to pass on, but the court ordered that he pass on the said claims within 10 days, and that the hearing of final account be postponed until July 6th.

B. A. Beach was appointed administrator of the estate of Gussie E. Beach, deceased, and the following were named as appraisers: E. L. Johnson, C. E. Nash, George H. Horton.

To Loan on Farm Property—$500, $1000, $1500, at 7 per cent, one, two or three years. Dimick & Eastham, lawyers, Oregon City, Oregon.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

A. J. Fecter, of the Chicago Training School, called at the rooms last week on his way to Salem.

The Sunday meetings are well attended. Last Sunday Hon. J. T. Dow gave his interesting lecture on "Man" to an appreciative audience.

V. O. Rowton, of Castle Rock, Wash, dropped in for a social bath after his wheel ride from McMinnville Tuesday.

The game of basket ball Saturday evening between Boltonites and the home team resulted in a score in favor of the home team of 14 to 31. The game was orderly executed and good feeling prevailed throughout. Secretary Grilly umpired the game and Rudolph Gantzen and Willie Peters were referees. The ice cream social after the game was enjoyed by nearly all in attendance.

This is the time of the year when membership in the Y. M. C. A. is particularly profitable. The cool refreshing quarters in our bathing department are especially inviting during the warm season and is shown by the large attendance since the recent warm weather has set in. The baths are kept constantly in use, some persons taking one and two baths a day. The small annual sum of $6 pays for a bath as often as you want to take it for an entire year, six days out of every week. One bath a day for 365 days aggregates at customary prices the enormous sum of $90. At the Y. M. C. A. you get a bath a day and more if you like for $6 a year and enjoy the pleasure and avoidance of sickness and doctor bills, by always keeping clean. This privilege alone in Oregon City should appeal to every intelligent man to take a membership in the institution. If you regret the expenditure of your $6 at the end of the year your money will be refunded, and you will be the first man who ever wanted his money back. Hot and cold, shower and tub baths may be had at all hours from 9 o'clock a. m. till 10 o'clock p. m. every day except Sunday. Persons non-members of the association must be charged the regular price of 25 cents a bath.

The business men's class continues to meet regularly on Monday evening of each week and is largely attended. The gallery is open at all times for spectators.

The young men's intermediate and junior classes have closed for the season and will begin again at the fall opening of the work. The juniors continue to have access to the baths at their regular rates for classes, but not otherwise.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. gave a very enjoyable social at the home of Mrs. J. A. Stuart on Thursday of last week. On the program were instrumental selections by Mrs. W. C. Green and Chester Muir and recitations by Geraldine McCown, the two little Zieser girls, Grace Wood, Beth Cooper, Hazel Davidson; a solo song by Little Master King. Ice cream was served, and a satisfactory sum was netted for charitable purposes.

The Episcopal ladies gave a delightful social at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Sommer last Friday evening. An excellent musical program was presented, followed by dancing. Ice cream and refreshments were served. Mrs. Sommer had the house tastily decorated in honor of the event.

A number of the immediate neighbors of Mrs. A. R. Doolittle gave her a delightful surprise party, last Monday.

Mrs. G. W. Grace gave a delightful croquet party at her home on upper Seventh street, Wednesday evening. Croquet, music and cakewalks were features of the evening. Ice cream and cake were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Max Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Will Aldredge, Frank Aldredge, the Misses Myrtle Cross and Bernice Adams.

The Parkplace High School Alumni Association, held a very interesting reunion at the home of Professor and Mrs. J. W. Gray last Saturday night. Twenty-four of the members of the association were present; also the board of directors and faculty of the Parkplace school. The various parlors were decorated to correspond with the various class colors, and a very interesting program was presented. Refreshments were served. At the business meeting that followed, the new officers elected were: President, Francis Galloway; vice-president, Clark Williams; secretary, Mabel Eiters; treasurer, Daisy McAnulty.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place in Portland on Tuesday, June 26th, at St. Joseph's church, when Miss Pauline Rath, of Portland, was united in marriage to John H. Wornars. Rev. James Bauer performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a gown of white Henrietta, and the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Gleason, of Oregon City, wore white over pink. Nicholas Rath, a brother of the bride, was best man. After congratulations, an excellent breakfast was served at the Perkins hotel. The groom was formerly a prominent lawyer of Oregon City, and the bride is the only daughter of George Rath, a well known resident of George precinct, in this county. Mr. and Mrs. Wornars will make their future home at Wallace, Idaho.

Orin Cheney was given a delightful party last Saturday afternoon in honor of his fifth birthday. Thirty-one little invited guests were present. Misses Clara Warner, Vera Caulfield and Edith Cheney waited on the young people, served the refreshments, etc., and performed the functions of chaperones. The host received a number of presents from his young guests. Those present were: Mary Ellen Grace, Hulda Meyer, Bessie Warner, Eulalie Schuebel; Eva and Everett Dye, Ruth and Dorothy Latourette, Arthur and Walter Dente Joseph, Marie and Eddie Sheehan, Verne Roake, Gaylord Roake, Elbert Charman, Florence and Marie White, Helen and Buelah Marr, Orin White, Zena Moore, Ona Renner, Retta Scoggin, Perrin Latourette, Grace Bevin, Norman White, Ray Muir, Clay Green, Herbert Harris, Orin Cheney.

EDUCATIONAL.

Matters of Interest To School Districts and Teachers.

The annual teachers institute to be held next week gives promise of being the most successful ever held in Clackamas county. Superintendent Bowland has spared no expense to secure the best available talent, making it a high class summer training school with entertaining features. The instructors are President Hawley, of Willamette University; President Coffey, of the Washington state university; Professor Jarvis, of the Portland schools, and Professor H. S. Gibson, of the Oregon City schools. The institute begins on the morning of July 31st at the circuit court room, and remains in session three days.

Miss Nellie Younger has closed a very satisfactory term of school at Rock Creek, and is now at her home in this city.

The regular apportionment of county school funds will be made by the county superintendent on July 2nd.

At the meeting of the West Oregon City school board held Saturday night, J. W. McKay was elected director to succeed Thomas Gibb, who resigned on account of his continued residence in Idaho. The contract for erecting the Bolton school building, was awarded to Frank S. Baker for $403, he being the lowest bidder.

It has been discovered that three more pupils passed the eighth grade county examination in addition to the list printed last week. An error in numbering the examination papers sent in, caused the delay in reaching the correct results. These three passed a very creditable examination, and were pupils of Miss Eula Strange's school at Damascus. They are Pearl Hillary, Victorine Wilson and Winifred Osborn.

Robert Gunther, a prominent Clackamas county school teacher, closed the spring term at Liberal last Friday.

Miss D. Lyie Lawrence has been elected a teacher in the Baker City schools, and her elective position as teacher of the Bolton branch of the West Oregon City school, is now vacant.

Richard Scott was elected director of the Milwauke school district last Saturday night to succeed the late J. G. Bonnell. Mrs. H. C. Salisbury was elected principal. Miss Minerva Thiessen, teacher of the intermediate department, and Miss Kate Casto, teacher of the primary department.

Professor J. W. Gray has been re-elected principal of the Parkplace school, the coming year to be his ninth in that capacity. Mrs. H. C. Salisbury and Miss Margaret Williams were re-elected grade teachers. Miss Hulda Holden did not apply for a position, as she intends going elsewhere.

Miss Margaret Guttridge, of Springfield, has been elected principal of the Canby school, and Miss Elvira Mallan, of Milwauke, and Miss Vesta Knight, of Canby, grade teachers.

Miss Eva Todd closed a very successful term of school last Friday, in district 81, and has been re-engaged to teach there in the fall.

Less than half of the pupils of the county who took the uniform eighth grade. It is probable that if the eighth graduates of the Oregon City grammar school, had taken the same examination, the result might have been different. The school law should be changed to require every pupil pass the uniform eighth grade examination under the direction of the county superintendent.
