School Teacher's Headache.

It's not a new variety of headache. It's the old pain consequent on conditions which result from study, confinement, and careless eating. It is only one symptom of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has heretofore and on the 13th day of July, 1900, filed in the office of the county clerk of Clackamas county, state of Oregon, his final account as administrator of the estate of John Wallace Graham, deceased, and that the Hon. Thos. F. Ryan, Judge of the county court of said county, has, by an order duly entered, set the 4th day of September, A. D. 1900, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, as the time for settlement of any objections that may be filed in said court thereat and for the settlement of said final account.

Farmers and Others.

When you visit Portland don't fail to get your meals at the Royal Restaurant, First and Madison. They serve an excellent meal at a moderate price. Their waiters and waitresses aim to please everybody, and very seldom fail. Just think! A good, square meal, with pudding and pie, 15 cents. You call and be convinced that it is without doubt the best place in the city.

HOME AGAIN.

Far down the lane A window pane Shines mid the trees through night and rain; The weeds are dense Through which a fence Sprays out, one sees not where nor whence.

No thing is heard, No beast or bird, Only the rain by which are stirred The draining leaves And trickling eaves Of crib and barn case scarce perceives.

Why should I wait? The hour is late; She has not heard me at the gate. Upon the roof The rain was proof Against my horse's hurrying hoof.

Along I steal With cautious heel And by the lamp lit window kneel, And there she sits And rocks and knits Within the shadowy light that fits On face and hair, so sweetly sad and gray.

Upon my cheeks Is it the streaks Of rain, as now the old porch creaks Beneath my stride? And open wide The door flings, and she's at my side.

A QUESTION OF METHOD

Young Bowen's Contempt For Army Red Tape.

Young Clancy Bowen brought to New York from his western home a life equipment of so much energy, combined with the unshakable belief that it was easy enough to "do things" if you only "got down on your four legs and exercised."

green inked bundle of paper, all pasted together and strung out with a pinned copy of his letter to his captain, came to the soldier. He brought the thing to Clancy at the first opportunity.

"Snakes!" said the young man. "Is that quite all? Conversational, ain't it? Well, let's see. 'Respectfully forwarded to the adjutant, Benicia barracks, with request that a search be instituted for the purpose of finding the clothing said to have been packed away'—That's from your captain, and they call it the first 'indorsement.'"

"Second indorsement. The box locker referred to was shipped, with all its contents, to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., on Dec. 8, 1899, and he says he knows you might possibly get it if you applied to the quartermaster at Fort Leavenworth. That's good news. Course they haven't made it take any more journeys since. Now your captain takes a hand. He's respectful, but he puts his paw right down. I see that, 'request that the contents be forwarded as soon as practicable.'"

"Fourth indorsement. Respectfully referred to the quartermaster. That's at Leavenworth. Now we're getting warm. 'Fifth indorsement. Respectfully returned the adjutant, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas,' he says. Well, he's found your stuff and wants 'authority to ship.' That's what we're after. 'Sixth indorsement. Respectfully forwarded to the assistant adjutant general something or other department of Missouri, requesting authority to forward.' Well, he just very respectfully returns to the quartermaster up there, who returns back to him, and then he returns it to somebody else, who tells 'the commanding officer' at Leavenworth that he can send you your old pants if he wants to, William, but he must be sure and send the papers back." Clancy sighed seriously.

"Tenth indorsement. Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Respectfully referred. Oh, respectfully referred, to the quartermaster for his information and guidance. Want to save the wear and tear on the quartermaster's brains. Be cheaper to buy you new duds, I should say. Here's a few more. 'Eleventh indorsement.' Clancy paused, his brows knitting. "Oh, this is good stuff," he cried out. "It tells the story, all of it. Listen: 'Respectfully returned to the adjutant, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., with the report that under authority indorsed hereon and in conformity with—there's a lot of dates and requests that he has to conform to, but he made out to pack your things in a box, and, William, they're a-coming. There's more indorsements, though: 'Respectfully returned to Private William Bowen, inviting attention.' I guess so! Have you got the goods, William?"

The Buffalo ordered to Taku.

There is some talk of an extra session of congress. One hundred and forty longshoremen struck in Portland. Wednesday, July 18. England will seize and hold Li Hung Chang believing him to be in league with Prince Tuan. Loss of allies in three days was 800, the Russians and Japs suffering most. Probably no white man likes to tell story of Pekin horror.

The Cherokee Indians oppose the census and refuse to be counted. Thin blood, weak lungs and paleness. You have them in hot weather as well as in cold. SCOTT'S EMULSION cures them in summer as in winter. It is creamy looking and pleasant tasting.

Curiosities of the Alphabet. To those who have never considered the subject it might appear that each letter is of equal importance in the formation of words, but the relative proportions required in the English language are these: a, 85; b, 16; c, 30; d, 44; e, 120; f, 25; g, 17; h, 64; i, 80; j, 4; k, 8; l, 40; m, 30; n, 80; o, 80; p, 17; q, 5; r, 62; s, 80; t, 90; u, 34; v, 12; w, 20; x, 4; y, 20; z, 2.

It is this knowledge of how frequently one letter is used compared with others that enables cryptogram readers to unravel many mysteries.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Forty foreigners and 193 native converts were massacred July 9th at Tai Yuen Fu. The forts of Tien Tsun are in the hands of the allies.

At cabinet meeting it was decided that there was no need for an extra session of congress. Secretary Root says 12,000 troops can be spared for China.

Farmer, Business Man, Manufacturer and all others interested in the welfare and prosperity of Clackamas County.

At the earnest solicitation of the State Fair management and believing that much good would accrue to this county by this advertising it, the Oregon City and Clackamas County Board of Trade have undertaken to enter Clackamas county in the competitive exhibits of counties, for the best display of the resources of each, and to that end have appointed the undersigned committee to take charge of the matter of collecting and arranging such an exhibit. The committee is confident that if all who are interested will assist in making the exhibit such as it can be made that we cannot fail of putting Clackamas county in the first place, where she undoubtedly belongs; but, to do this, the hearty co-operation and assistance of all will be required and that is what we now solicit from you in this matter. The committee is willing to do all that is possible of its members to do, and to that end are anxious and willing to correspond and advise with all in regard to anything that they may have to advance that will tend to add to the success of this exhibit. It is necessary to have specimens or exhibits of all kinds of vegetables, grain, grasses, hops, fruits, berries, wool, mohair, trawls, butters, cheese, wool, flour, meal, pottery, woolen goods, yarns, fancy work of all kinds, and in fact anything and everything that is grown, raised, made, gathered or manufactured in Clackamas county. Prepare these specimens or exhibits and either bring or send them to Oregon City in care of Judge Ryan, chairman of this committee, or if more convenient give them in charge of any member of this committee, who will be pleased to look after them. With each specimen or exhibit send your card with name and address, name and variety of article and other information regarding the exhibit that you may deem of interest, so that you and the sections of the county where the same is raised or manufactured may have proper credit. The committee most earnestly solicits and requests the advice, assistance and co-operation of every inhabitant of this county in this work. Do not hesitate to send your specimens or exhibits, because you think others will send the same article, but send yours anyway. Trusting that our appeal will not be in vain, but will meet with such a response as will insure success.

We are respectfully, THOS. F. RYAN, Oregon City, Chairman. O. W. EASTMAN, Oregon City, Secretary. E. E. CHARMAN, Oregon City. RICHARD SCOTT, Milwaukie. JAMES TRACY, Logans.

The Dough Head Discoverer. That truth is stranger than fiction is illustrated by the following true story, relates the Lapeer Press: About 40 years ago a boy was kicked by a horse. The physician attending the case found his skull was broken, and a good share of his brains had leaked out. Thinking to do the best he could and knowing he would not do to leave the place, the doctor took buckwheat flour, and making a thick batter, rephrased the skull and filled the cavity. That boy lived and grew to be a man, weighing 250 pounds and is smart as most men. Living not far from Oakwood, he does business in Lapeer quite often and is all right, only once in awhile that dough wheat batter will rise, and then he is daft for a time. Dr. William Rossman, who died in this city, did the surgical job.

Princess Pauline Metternich, famous wife of the Austrian ambassador to Paris under the second empire, threatens a book of memoirs. At this time the book publishers are agog. Probably nobody in Europe could furnish a better tale of court intrigue, elegant dissipation and aesthetic recklessness. But now comes the disheartening announcement that the princess is a most moral person, possessing to a large degree a true lady's capacity for silence. This has knocked all speculative chances for the book as high as a kite.

She Loves Children. The ex-queen of Hanover, who accompanied her husband, the blind king of Hanover, into exile after he lost his kingdom through the war with Prussia in 1866, now resides in the Villa Thos, at Gmunden, in upper Austria, within a few minutes' drive of Schloss Gmunden, the residence of her son, the Duke of Cumberland. Like Queen Victoria, she delights in the society of young people, which perhaps accounts for the small ravages time has made upon her health and vivacity until very recently. Not long ago she celebrated her eightieth birthday.
