William Henderson and family have returned from Fletcher, Idaho, where they spent the past year for the benefit of Mrs. Henderson's health.

Mrs. Alice Henderson is spending a few weeks at Philomath, her former home.

LALLAH ROOKE.

Beaver Creek.

Times are lively in Beaver Creek.

The Thomas boys, Gill and Abb, aged 18 and 15 years, respectfully, have hauled and delivered 1350 cords of wood inside the last years.

The Henriel and Imel family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scanlon Sunday.

Mrs. Stoker and daughter visited friends and relatives in Portland last week.

Christmas is over and everybody is happy.

Logan.

We have been having very bad weather, snow, sleet and rain.

The roads are in a very bad condition.

School commences in North Logan school on January 7th, with Miss Alice Guttridge as teacher.

The fence around the school grounds has been completed. Mr. King did the work.

There is quite a change in North Logan, as the old settlers are moving out, and new ones coming in.

Miss Edna Chase returned home December 23, after an absence of nearly three months. She will return to Portland next week. Her health is better than it has been for four or five years. She is under the doctor's care.

GERANIUM.

Safford.

The 20th century is upon us. It came in cold and white, and has remained so much to the discomfort of old Oregonians. The snow is sloppy and disagreeable to get about in.

Potatoes have taken such a fall that farmers, who have some still in the ground, have dropped the digging fever and count on letting go a little longer.

Mr. Moses' new windmill and tower make a very good land mark. He is building two chicken houses, granary and a large addition to his barn. In the spring he will go into the chicken business on a modern scale.

Henry Schatz has an addition built the end of his barn, which he will use as a driveway and general storeroom. His nephew, John Schatz is architect and builder.

Now is the time of the year to do your root grafting of fruit trees.

The Tualatin Grange elected officers at their last meeting. A. F. Turner was elected master and H. A. Kruse, overseer. With such wide-awake young men as leaders, the Order will undoubtedly prosper.

The Stafford A. O. U. W. installed officers last Saturday evening. C. W. Larson was installing officer, and the meeting went off in tiptop shape.

The Stafford school in district No. 41, with Miss Alice Downing as teacher, is steadily growing at the rate of three pupils weekly. The roll call now numbers over 60, with an average of daily attendance of 55.

Half-starved dogs have begun to roam about the neighborhood picking up a living wherever they can find it. Such creatures are a menace to a community and the sooner someone sends them to the happy hunting grounds the least complaint will be heard of supposed coyotes and their ravages.

George Gage lost a hog about a month ago, and after searching for it for several days, came to the conclusion that someone had put it into a barrel to save seed for both man and beast.

Crows are more numerous this winter than ever before.

Thefeld Reichlr spent Sunday with friends here. A trip to this place from the metropolis on a Sunday morning is not a small undertaking through the mud these short winter days.

LENATHY.

Logan.

The Logan Cheese Manufacturing Company held its annual meeting Monday, Jan. 7, 1901, and elected the following officers to serve one year: Secretary and treasurer, O. D. Robbins; directors, J. C. Sprague; president, F. Gerber; vice-president, F. P. Wilson, F. Yoer, A. Swales. The company has built up a fine trade and established themselves in a grand way to make a success of the business. The factory has made a successful run this summer for a beginner, and the supporters of it are commencing to have visions of the great wealth and prosperity. That the industry has been a success and a benefit to the farmers generally, is witnessed by the following statements taken from the annual reports of the company: For the first six months ending Oct. 31, 1900, there was received a total of 13,014 pounds of milk, from which were

Mitchell Wagons

Guaranteed to be the best possible to build. Represent 65 years experience in wagon build; ins, which is a better quality high grade article (best possible to build) than all the talk irresponsible dealers and agents for cheap wagons can possibly give you

MITCHELL & LEWIS Co., the makers of the MITCHELL WAGONS pay 25 to 30 per cent above the market price of the best grades of wood stock for the privilege of a closer inspection and more rigid examination of each piece and to enable them to skim off the cream of the wagon timber offered on the market—HENCE WE CAN ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEE a superior quality of timber in MITCHELL WAGON S and it is just as impossible to build a good wagon without good timber as it is to build a good house without a good foundation. The foundation of a wagon is the timber. We know that everybody claims to have the best, but you can't see under the paint. In buying a wagon you must trust to somebody's word—we claim to be trustworthy and reliable; beside, we leave unpainted the underside of such parts as we can (reaches tongues, etc.) so that you can confirm our statements. We guarantee every stick fully. MITCHELL WAGONS are light-running, well proportioned and well finished, and taken as a whole THE BEST WAGON ON THE MARKET TODAY. You can't make a mistake if you get a MITCHELL.

Advertisement for Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Includes text: 'For Malaria, Chills and Fever', 'THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.', and 'The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.'
