John P. Meakin at McMinnville.

On the evening of January 22nd, at the opera house will be given a free entertainment by the local Woodmen of this city, and an interesting lecture by Prof. John P. Meakin.

Neighbor Meakin is by profession a lecturer, dramatic reader and vocalist. His lectures, "Footprints, or Onward and Upward," "Human Progress and Fraternity," "The Man with the Hoe," are gems of the highest order, and should be listened to by every thinker and lover of humanity.

Western Edition American Agriculturist.

By special arrangement with the publishers, we are enabled to offer THE ORANGE JUDD FARMER, the leading agricultural weekly of the Western and Mississippi Valley States, in club with this paper, at an exceedingly low figure. THE ORANGE JUDD FARMER is remarkable for the variety and interest of its contents, and is undoubtedly the best and most practical paper of its kind. Prof. Meakin has spent many years in fraternal work, for which he is by nature eminently fitted. He loves the brotherhood and works with mind and heart for the moral and intellectual advancement of the race. He is Head Camp Lecturer for the Woodmen of the World. He is a past grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, is an Elk, also a member of the Women of Woodcraft, Rathbone Sisters and several other orders.

He is a Woodman belonging to camp No. 338, of Salt Lake City. He sees in the Woodmen of the World one of the great factors of the uplifting and bettering of mankind, and from this basis he toils on. To hear him is to become a better man and to know him is to love him. An evening with Prof. Meakin is a lifetime, beyond money calculation.

He is singing the song of love. "You may forget the singer but you cannot forget the song " We can assure our readers that our neighbor will give you an enterminment unlike any other iraternal lecturer that ever came among us. He has no long array of figures or statistics to tire his audience, but will entertain and elevate all who hear bim. Remember the date, Jan. 22nd, also that the entire entertainment is free .-McMinnville Reporter.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle-hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's, Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. are not experimenting when you take Grove's-its superiority and excellence having long been established.
