SPRINGWATER ROAD.

Amounts Subscribed by the Public Spirited Citizens.

Through the courtesy of H. E. Cross. president of the board of trade, we publish the following list of sub-cribers to the improvement of the road between Logan and Springwater. Mr. Cross is one of the most public spirited men of Clackamas county and to him is due the credit for the starting of several important road improvements during the past two years. The plan is to build four or five miles of the Abernethy road this year if a sufficient number of pub-lic spirited citizens will assist. If this county keeps on it will be the banner county in the state for building roads by public subscription. Besides the following amounts several smaller contributions have been promised:

It is quite easy for a girl to slip aboard an outgoing steamer and stow herself quietly there until well at sea. A case happened a little while ago, the girl coming to meet her fiance here. As both were poor, the former resorted to this perlious expedient to accomplish the desired end. One would think that such a heroic endeavor would deserve a better reception. But on arriving, having been worked very hard on ried almost to distraction, the maiden was so changed by her ordeal of love that when her betrothed met her he refused to marry her. A few days later, while being taken back to the
