Our Salem Letter.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 1, 1901. Editor Courier-Herald: Since writing before thing have not changed much as to senatorial question. McBride still continues the fight and Corbett holds his own. Still indications would seem to point to the fact that none of the men now being voted for will be senator.

Brownell has introduced a bill to have precinct assessors elected as he has he would. He also introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of school funds. This is a matter in which all the people are directly interested, and should have a thorough and complete investigation.

Porter obtained the passage of a resolution calling for an examination of matters connected with office of state printer.

This is another matter that needs looking up to. The present legislature seems to think it would improve matters to let the state printing to lowest bidder. Senator Porter has also secured the passage of a bill to reduce the salary of county judge in our county to $80 per month. This is a move that will reduce our running expenses somewhat. This with the office of roadmaster abolished will make quite a material reduction in our taxes.

We are having a half holiday today in commemoration of John Marshall and Hon George H. Williams is expected to address the assembly this evening. Tomorrow the senatorial fight is expected to commence in earnest. McBride cannot hope to pull through and his friends ought and are in duty bound to support Mitchell in case he enters the fight. There is some talk here that the friends of H. W. Scott are trying to induce him to allow his name to be used. There is no doubt as to his ability to represent us and the state of Oregon, but when it comes to popular feeling Hon. J. H. Mitchell holds first place and we hope to see him elected. It seems to me that the democrats, rather than see no one elected, will join in the fight and vote for some republican. Even one ballot along this line would cause a stampede among republicans, and the fight would soon end.

Our senators and representatives are doing good work here—all striving to their utmost to do what they can. The capitol building is poorly planned in many respects. First of all it is poorly ventilated. Secondly, many of the officers are cramped for room, notably secretary of state, treasurer and state land office.

Occasionally we see some of our Clackamas county friends in the capitol. J. U. Campbell, Harry Moody, J. W. McAnulty, James Hutton and A. M. Kirchen have visited our burg. J. H. Davling came up this morning with a big dose of the grip. We hope he will be around again soon.

We see Tony Nolmer, an old-time Oregon City resident and editor, up here occasionally. He is the same jolly fellow as of old. He said he made a mistake when he left Oregon City.

Will try and get a summary of the bills introduced by our delegation some of these days and send you a gist of the same. CHAS. L.

The Legislature.

Felt the Great.

Prof. C. W. Felt closed a two-night's engagement at the Workmen's hall Friday evening, with his hypnotic entertainment. The second night drew a house packed to the doors. The professor gave some interesting and instructive tests in hypnotism and mind reading, exposed a few spiritualistic fakes, and otherwise pleased everyone with experiments in what is now coming to be recognized as a science of value to the world. That his efforts to amuse and instruct were appreciated in Baker was evidenced by the fact that the Stamping Room only six was being at his closing entertainment.—Baker City Herald.
