

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

New Era.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Engle was the scene of one of the most interesting events of the season...

Frog Pond.

We have not been doing much farming of late. Just waiting for good weather and resting up.

We are glad to learn of our mistake in regard to the original naming of Frog Pond. It is understood that someone else has a word to say in regard to it.

We are expecting our representative, Hon. J. L. Kruse, home from the legislature. His daughter, Miss Lorena, is convalescing from an attack of typhoid fever.

The Hon. Elbert Ahrendt and George Cline are canvassing our town for the modern Brotherhood of America. The intention is to start a lodge at Wilsonville.

One of our industrious young men has been working all winter on a wood sawing machine, and now that he has completed it, it won't work. Perseverance wins, Henry.

A. J. and C. Turner have been reclaiming some of the hitherto unproductive land with a breaking plow and five oxen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ford and mother spent one day last week visiting friends. The Literary and Debating Society continues to bring out a good crowd Saturday evenings.

We are having all kinds of weather and the indications are we will have some kind of a storm on school meeting day, as electioneering and wire-pulling has begun.

Miss Lizzie Bohlander and her mother of Beaver Creek were visiting friends last Wednesday.

Mrs. J. G. Cummins has been quite sick but is improving. GENEVA.

Mr. Editor what has become of our good correspondent? For weeks we have been watching for a little news. To let you down town folks know we are still alive in this neighborhood I take hold and write a few words.

All of us are very busy with our farm work. The weather is rather rainy, but this we cannot help. God is the Father and controller of all the rain. It is our duty to do our best under the circumstances.

The old farming prophets say we are going to have a grand crop this year. Hope their sayings will be crowned by a big one. God of the harvest is the same today as he was three thousand years ago to the Jewish nation.

In order to have His blessings, all depends what kind of people we are. If we obediently walk in the ways of his commandments then God will surely bless the labor of our hands.

Last week Henry Parry arrived home to his family from Wardner, Idaho. He is suffering with an injured leg, the effects of an accident at the mines where he worked.

The new pastor is preaching an excellent sermon. Joseph R. Lewis was at the church last Sunday. All are glad to see him able to be around again after a long spell of sickness.

Last Sunday Mrs. D. E. Jones was down sick with a gripper. Miss Lizzie Parry came home week last Monday from Wardner, Idaho.

Mrs. Henry E. Thomas of Portland was visiting here last week.

There is no doubt that it will be pushed along as fast as is practical. We congratulate the committee on its efforts to succeed and are also able to say that the people made no mistake in selecting this committee.

Some of the boys are going down on the Columbia this summer to try the logging camps. We wish them success.

George Stewart left last week for Washington, where he has secured a job in a shingle mill.

The Hatchery school celebrated Washington's birthday with appropriate exercises, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Andrews, and a very enjoyable time was had.

Roy Sprague celebrated his 21st birthday on the evening of the 23rd. A party of young friends were present at his home and a very enjoyable evening was spent in music and games.

Rev. Smith of Portland preached here Friday and Sunday evening.

F. E. Mueller went to Portland Monday on business.

O. Moehnke went home to the Fisher-Bloch wedding. He will leave for Kelso, Wash., this week.

David Moehnke is at home on the sick list. Albert Studeman intends to leave for some place in Washington this week.

Wm. Hornshuh, of Oregon City, spent Sunday with his brother, E. W. Hornshuh.
