Galveston Disaster.

B. F. Munson, of Oregon City, has been appointed sole agent for this section of the state for the book, "Description of that great horror. The name of the work is 'The Great Galveston Disaster' by Paul Lester, the noted author, the only authentic edition, and contains a full and thrilling account of the most appalling calamity of modern times including vivid descriptions of the hurricane and terrible rush of waters; immense destruction of dwellings, business houses, churches, and thousands of human lives; thrilling tales of heroic deeds; panic-stricken multitudes and heart-rending scenes of agony; frantic efforts to escape a horrible fate; separation of loved ones; narrow escapes from the jaws of death; terrible sufferings of the survivors; vandals plundering bodies of the dead; wonderful exhibitions of popular sympathy; millions of dollars sent for the relief of the stricken sufferers. The work is comprised in one large volume of over 500 pages, and embellished with a large number of engravings made from photographs taken immediately after the disaster and during the work of the rescuing. Every citizen should have one of these books and thus materially assist the relief fund of the grief-stricken Galvestonites.

The editor of this paper has carefully examined this work and finds it to contain all that is claimed for it and cheerfully recommends it to the readers of this paper and others interested in getting an authentic book description of this great calamity.

and the jury returned a verdict of suicide. The Bakers are old and highly respected residents of Eagle Creek, and are held in high esteem. It is learned that there are some grown children in the family. Mrs. Baker had been in poor health and despondent for months past.

An opinion was expressed by the mayor and seconded by the recorder, that all ordinances did not require to be printed. The councilmen, who were thoroughly familiar with the charter, contended otherwise. These officers then claimed that the ordinance authorizing the payment of the Weinhard sewer bill was the carrying out of the contract before the new charter was adopted. It is a fact, however, that the publication of ordinances has been a charter regulation for many years past, and the Weinhard bill cannot be paid off until the ordinance is legally advertised.

The Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association held a meeting last Friday afternoon, and elected City Superintendent of Schools H. D. Wilcox, as secretary, to succeed Professor J. W. Gray, who resigned to go to Alaska. The matter of transportation to the grounds also was discussed, but it is believed that the matter will be adjusted so that the interests of the Chautauqua will not suffer. The talent for the coming session will be of unusual high standard. With the array of high standard talent, the coming session will be one of unusual attractions.

A delightful surprise party was given Miss Elsie Gibbs at her home Saturday evening, by a number of friends and relatives, in honor of her birthday. Games and music were participated in until a late hour, after which refreshments were served and all departed for their several homes, wishing Miss Gibbs many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Myers and family, Mrs. Jackson, Misses Bessie Roman, Edith, Jessie, Letha and Otis Jackson, Ethel Green, Anna Shortlidge and the Messrs. S. T. Roman, Michael and John Gaffney, Benj. Beard, Isaac Shortlidge, Jas. Myers, Courtie and Tommy Gibbs.

Albon F. Meinig was in from Sandy Tuesday and filed three quartz locations for himself, P. R. Meinig and O. Percival on Shoney creek. The claims are designated as the Bonanza, Bohemia and Northern Light. The quartz produces gold, silver and lead. They also have discovered a very rich vein of galena ore, 18 inches in width, Mr. Meinig exhibiting some samples while here. These parties have been prospecting and doing development work in that section at irregular periods for several years past, and one favorable indication is the occasional discovery of samples of coarse gold in the gulches, and the theory is advanced this must have come from some rich quartz formation.

A special meeting of the council was held Friday night to consider matters of special importance. Mayor Dimick appointed A. S. Dresser city attorney. A final settlement was effected with Mitchell & Hard, the sewer contractors, and the balance of $500 due them was the city council, forbidding that cars be ordered paid, the damage suit of County Judge Ryan having been compromised for $220. In the matter of the violation of the resolution passed by the council, forbidding that cars be ordered paid, the damage suit of County Judge Ryan having been compromised for $220.
