

SOUTH AND EAST VIA Southern Pacific Co. Shasta Route

Table listing train schedules for Southern Pacific Co. Shasta Route, including destinations like Ashland, Sacramento, San Francisco, etc.

Fullman and Tourist Cars on both trains. Chair cars, Sacramento to Ogden and El Paso...

"Best of Everything"

In a word this tells of the passenger service via THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE 8 Trains Daily between St. Paul and Chicago comprising:

The Latest Pullman Sleepers Peerless Dining Cars Library and Observation Cars Free Reclining Chair Cars

Farm for Sale.

19 miles south of Oregon City, 2 miles south of Molalla. Known as the Teasel Farm. Containing 200 acres...

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of Geo. W. Lee, deceased. Notice is hereby given by the undersigned, R. L. Ringo, executor of the estate of said George W. Lee...

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATOR

Notice is hereby given that I have been, by order of the County Court of Clackamas Co., Ore. duly appointed administrator of the Estate of William D. Bedford, deceased...

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, executor of the last Will and Testament of Seba Norton, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Clackamas County, State of Oregon, his final account...

O.R.&N. OREGON SHORT LINE AND UNION PACIFIC

Table listing Oregon Steamships, Columbia River Steamers, Willamette River, Willamette and Yamhill Rivers, Willamette River, Snake River.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Clackamas County.

In the Matter of the Estate of Lenora Ross, Deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed administratrix of the above entitled estate...

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas. Ellen A. Farnham, Plaintiff vs. Willis J. Farnham, Defendant.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas. Matt Olson, Plaintiff vs. Bertha Olson, Defendant.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clackamas. H. A. Vorpahl, Plaintiff vs. W. F. Vorpahl, Defendant.

The White Man's Burden

can be named in the single word—Dyspepsia. It is the one disease, which more than any other, affects the American people.

There's a remedy for dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has lifted this burden from the bodies of hundreds of thousands.

First class stamps at Cheney's art gallery.

Go to Cheney's and get small photos retouched and finished on platinum; 16 for 75c.

The Dewey Washer.

The Dewey washer does away entirely with the washboard and can be easily operated while sitting down.

NIGHT WAS HER TERROR.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep."

ONE NIGHT ONLY Friday, March 8

First representation in Oregon City of the magnificent scenic production...

Angel of the Alley

The Greatest Melodrama ever offered for the public entertainment.

SEE

The Underground Dive The Interior of Sing Sing Prison The Electrocuting Chamber The Celebrated Race Horse, Howard Gratz

SHIVELY'S HALL

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Friday, March 1. France has 2,700,000 women farm laborers.

It is claimed that the row between J. P. Morgan and the seven great steel concerns that were fighting him has been settled.

The Berlin Vorwaerts says Russia has obtained what she wants from China and it is too late now for the other powers to kick.

Dr. Von Siemens, a rich, eminent Berliner, has predicted in a public address that unless new commercial treaties are constituted, Germany will enter upon a period of unparalleled distress.

St. Petersburg correspondence in the Berlin papers states that Russian industry is a total failure.

In the Rhineland, Germany, over 86,000 metalworkers are out of employment or working half time.

Germany's trade with Central America amounts to from seven to twelve million dollars per annum and is growing.

The American salt trust is selling 2000 tons of salt a month in England.

W. M. Everts, statesman and great lawyer, died at his home in New York city at the age of 83 years.

In London the cost of the Boer war is placed at £140,000,000.

New South Wales, Australia, refuses to enlist men for the South African contabulary.

The sessions of the Austrian reichstag are diversified by continuous quarrels in half a dozen languages, and occasional knock-down arguments.

Prest. Schurman, of Cornell University, says we must keep a large army in the Philippine islands and for a long time to come.

In the province of Kang Su, 50,000 Chinamen have started another rebellion.

England, Japan and Germany have warned China against Russia's designs, of whose preponderant advantages as a neighbor of China they are jealous.

Buenos Ayres will export 2,000,000 tons of maize.

The president desires to make an end of the Chinese business as soon as possible.

Two big pile rafts will be built this season at Westport, Or., by H. R. Robertson. He will employ between 200 and 300 men.

By concurring in the senate amendments to the army appropriation bill, the house has left the president no reasonable excuse for calling an extra session of congress.

A $27,000,000 telephone trust, embracing several states, is being formed in New York city.

During February, the government's military and naval expenditures were $1,389,000. The total public debt is $1,386,000,000.

Thirty miles from Carlsbad, N. M., oil has been struck at a depth of 80 feet.

A New York company will build a million-dollar electric railroad in Auckland, N. Z.

The fire in the penitentiary at Lincoln, Neb., caused a damage of $200,000.

Since 1852, the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. has lost 20 vessels, by which 850 persons perished.

The report that the Boer general, Botha, has surrendered, is not confirmed in London; however, in the hope that it is true, the military authorities have suspended contracts for war supplies.

Boss Hanna has pulled himself a peg higher (he believes) by becoming a colonel in the Ohio Grand Army.

Prof. N. S. Shaler, of Harvard, an aged geologist of great learning and varied practical experience, predicts that during this century the American continent alone will produce $30,000,000,000 in gold.

Neither in London nor in South Africa are the British shutting their eyes to the fact that the war with the Boers gives them yet a long job ahead.

At Louisville, Ky., Tommy Ryan won a gory 17-round fistie contest over Tommy West.

By an overwhelming majority the people of London have adopted the measure that the city own its water-works, London already owns its light and street railway plants, and the government the city's telegraph and telephone lines.

The over 100,000 government jobs directly or indirectly under the control of the president pay annually over $50,000,000 in salary, which explains the power of the political machine.

Wednesday, March 6. The Irish members raised a big row in the house of commons because Balfour closed the whole educational estimates without giving them an opportunity to vote.

Krupp charges too much for armor-plate and a motion has been made in the German reichstag that the government build its own armor-plate plant.

In English government circles the question of taking sugar off the free list is receiving attention.

Destruction by fire of the public library at Grand Haven, Mich., caused a loss of $100,000.

In the Chinese province of Kiang Su the Mohammedan revolution is growing.

Li Hung Chang has asked Von Waldersee not to inflict any more expeditions on China.

DeWet and his commando have escaped the English.

Yesterday's session of the Austrian reichstag culminated in a flat fight between Czech and German members.

John E. Searles, erstwhile a sugar-millionaire and concerned in many corporations, has made an assignment.

A big German woolen mill firm has failed for 300,000 pounds.

A statistician places the cost of Solomon's temple at over $53,300,000,000.

The German government has ordered 300 barrels California wine for its army and navy.

J. J. Hill contemplates unhorsing J. P. Morgan's iron trust by developing his own vast mineral resources in Northern Minnesota.

According to a Dublin authority, "fitful" the finest whisky drinkers in Ireland are members of the British parliament.

According to the Nguneste Nachrichten of Germany, "England is incapacitated from alliances of any sort, because she has been tremendously weakened by the South African war; as a military power she is not worthy of serious attention."

Each regular soldier in the English army costs 111 pounds, exclusive of horses.

The 19,446 resident officeholders of Washington draw in salaries $19,628,555.

H. V. Hilprecht, the great archeologist, who has been making explorations in the ancient ruins of Babylon, dates "the founding of the temple of Bel and the first settlement in Nippur between 6000 and 7000 B. C., possibly even earlier."

Thursday, March 7. Miss Fortia Knight, a native of Salem now residing in London, began a breach of promise suit against the Duke of Manchester on his arrival at Liverpool with his new Cincinnati wife.

Lancaster, O., is virtually at a standstill because the natural gas has given out.

Morgan of Alabama has presented in the senate a resolution for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and admonished England that if she forcibly attempted to enforce the terms of the treaty, a war would result which would sweep away her great empire that had controlled for scores of years the commerce of the world.

C. N. Scott, treasurer of Trinity church, Portland, has been arrested on the charge of embezzling $1546.

Since the transcontinental lines were harmonized, a committee of New York bankers fixes the through freight rates on all of them.

A Swedish army officer has invented an air torpedo.

The Pekin correspondent of the London Morning Post writes that it looks as though partition of China were commencing.

The British war office will send ten South Africa 1000 bicycle soldiers. The British army will attempt to clear the whole Orange River Colony of Boers.

The trade outlook is serious in Austria, Germany and Italy. In all the larger cities of Austria-Hungary there is an alarming increase of unemployed workmen.