

EASTER OFFERINGS

It is never too early—because you may be late—to secure needed and desirable articles for Easter, particularly where the quantity is limited, as is the case with the manufacturers' entire line of Fine Tailored Suits and Skirts, purchased for 60c on the dollar.

95c--Kid Gloves

For Easter; all new shades; fitted and warranted. We sell Gloves; besides we save you money.

25c--A Snap

In "Rust-Proof" Summer Corsets; all sizes. Two bias bands around the waist. No stretching. Secure a pair.

NOTE—Bargains in Rainy-day Skirts not to be had again this season.

Corsets

The new Girdle "Rust-Proof" in pink, blue, drab and black; perfection in fit; special, not "for this day only," but any day, 50c.

Mt. Hood Shirts

Are not placed in competition, nor can they be compared with freak garments sold as bargains over the so-called bargain counters. Mt. Hood Shirts have merit. They are made in Portland by American girls.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON

PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Michael Moehnke, of Shubel, was a city visitor Friday.

George Hicinbotham, of Redland, was in Oregon City Friday.

A. Lacey, a prominent Springwater granger, was in town Friday.

Miss Jennie Noble is visiting relatives in the vicinity of Wilsonville.

J. K. Graham, the Beaver Creek dairyman, was in the city Friday.

W. F. Kirk, of Beaver Creek, was a visitor in Oregon City Saturday.

Postmaster G. A. Schuebel and daughter were in from Shubel Saturday.

Mrs. H. P. Bestow, of Portland, was visiting relatives in the city Friday.

Miss Gertrude Schaner has been visiting the family of L. Fisher, of Needy.

W. H. Boring and E. T. White, of Damascus, were visitors in town Saturday.

J. G. Noe, the well known Needy schoolteacher, was in Oregon City Friday.

Miss Muriel Stevens returned Thursday from a three week's visit in Portland.

L. T. Anderson, teacher of the Carnus school, was in the city Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. Younger, who was ill for two or three months past, is very much improved.

Captain Phil Shannon, the Springwater Indian war veteran, was in the city Friday.

Henry Ginther and other members of the family from Shubel, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. William Brobst, of Wilsonville, is receiving medical treatment in a Portland hospital.

Miss Frankie Fouts, of The Dalles, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Fouts.

Miss Leonora Lazelle returned Saturday from San Francisco, where she had been visiting for a month.

Mrs. Laurel M. Hoyt, of Hillsboro, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. R. H. Tabor and Mrs. Ralph Miller.

J. B. Dimick, father of Mayor Dimick, was here from Hubbard Saturday.

He was recently offered $18,000 for his farm.

Rev. C. U. Cross came down from tory to removing to that place. Mrs. Wiggins and children will follow in a few days.

G. B. Trotter, of Logan, has removed to Portland.

Louis Young left for Eastern Oregon Wednesday morning.

G. G. White, of Monitor, was a visitor in Oregon City Sunday.

George Clark, of Logan, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. G. B. Jackson went to Canby Tuesday to visit for a few days.

Don Meldrum is home from Pacific University at Forest Grove, for a few days.

D. C. Ronas, of Canby precinct, was in the city Tuesday, looking after road matters.

Dr. J. W. Welch, of Silverton, was a Portland-bound passenger Tuesday morning.

W. A. White, who has been doing carpenter work at Seattle, is home for a few days.

S. A. D. Garley, a prominent lawyer and politician, of Arlington, was in the Wednesday.

Morton Latourette came down from Eugene to attend the funeral of his grandmother, the late Mrs. Shaw.

Mrs. W. H. Godfrey and son, Gay, came down by boat last week, and remained over Sunday with Mr. Godfrey.

John Wright, of Colton, and Miss Laura Wright, of Meadowbrook, were in Oregon City Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Adolph Willey and children are home from a three week's visit to her mother, Mrs. Johnson White in Portland.

Samuel W. Shaw, who came down from Westlake, Idaho, to attend the funeral of his mother, returned Sunday evening.

George, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Oaff, left last Thursday night for Iowa, intending to make his home near Council Bluffs for awhile.

Mrs. Paul Husock and children left Saturday evening for The Dalles, where they expect to make their future home.

Mr. Husock and son followed later.

Louis Young returned Friday from a trip to Springwater, and reports that four new barns had been erected in the Logan county, since his last trip there.

Josiah Howell, the well known Canemah pioneer, was out on Main street Monday for the first time in two months, having recovered from his recent illness.

Road Supervisor John Aden, of Stafford, was in Oregon City Monday after powder for roadwork. He considers the prospect fair for a good wheat crop during the coming season.

A. L. Morris, of Molalla, the ex-Southern Pacific passenger conductor, was in town Tuesday. He has spent the greater part of the winter near Woodburn, but expects soon to leave for British Columbia.

L. Grazer, who has charge of the 75-acre cottonwood orchard, belonging to the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, near Canby, was in town Saturday. He reported that the cottonwood trees were growing nicely.

R. R. Grabel, wife and six children arrived this week from West Plains, Howell county, Mo., and expect to make Clackamas county their future home. They are relatives of Mrs. Rachel Pursifull.

Harley L. Hall, of Wells station, the well known foot ballist of last year's O. A. C. team, was a Corvallis visitor Wednesday. Mr. Hall recently returned from Oregon City, where he had been employed during the winter in the paper mills—Corvallis Times.

B. Fallert, one of the active promoters of the Logan cheese factory, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Fallert has already put 40,000 feet of lumber in his new barn, and expects that 20,000 feet more will be used before the final improvements will be completed.

Cicero Larkins was in from Clarkes Monday, and reports good success in raising peas and feeding the product to hogs. He first tried chopping the dried peas, but when the roads got too bad to go to mill, fed the whole bean with satisfactory success. Mr. Larkins says that hogs will not eat swelled peas.

J. A. Thayer, who bought out Dr. J. B. Moore, will take the Mandalay with his family, and will take in the Stanislaus section in California with a view of locating. These people have formed many warm friends here whose best wishes go with them—Coquille City Herald.

Deputy County Surveyor J. W. Meldrum returned the first of the week from Yamhill county, where he was engaged for three weeks partitioning the Sellwood estate. The property bordered on the Willamette river, and had to be divided so that each of the five heirs would own land bordering on the water front. Mr. Meldrum was the surveyor and one of the appraisers.

A. W. Quinn returned last Saturday from a visit to the home of his boyhood days in Clackamas county. Mr. Quinn says that he was surprised to find such little change or improvement in that country. Everything is apparently running along in the same old ruts they did during the generation past and gone. His sister, Mrs. Dart, came up with him and will remain for a visit of some time.—Dufur Dispatch.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Money to loan at lowest rates. C. H. Dye.

Sailor hats for 25 cents in all colors. Miss Goldsmith.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Charles died last Thursday.

Spring and Easter hat display, March 29th and 30th. Miss Goldsmith.

The Artisans gave a very novel entertainment at their hall Thursday night. It was styled a masquerade social, and was followed by dancing.

Clifford Mosier, an escaped inmate of the state reformatory school, was captured by Officer Rechner Thursday night, and the boy was returned to that institution Friday.

The two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watts, died at Rock creek, near Stone, last Saturday. The funeral and interment took place at the Logan cemetery.

It is stated that Rev. S. Copley will resign his pastorate of the Evangelical church, and expects to remove to California. A new pastor for the church here will be appointed when the conference convenes.

Items handed in stating that so and so are visiting in Portland, should state whose guests they are while in the metropolis. About a hundred people, more or less, go to Portland every day to simply shop.

Mrs. Jessie Vert, of Pendleton, grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star, made Pioneer Chapter an official visit Tuesday night. An exemplification of unwritten work was given, and a banquet was served.

Frank Cooley and company left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis, where they will play a week's engagement. From there they will go to Oregon City where they will disband for the season.—Eugene Guard.

C. O. T. Williams filed his official bond as district clerk for $20,000 at the meeting of the school board held Monday night, which was approved. Dr. W. E. Carl was installed as director to succeed E. E. Charman.

Mrs. E. S. Bollinger entertained the Congregational Missionary society at her home Friday afternoon. There was an unusual good attendance, and among the features was a paper by Miss Nettie Walden; also an address by Mrs. J. M. Mark.

Some crazy typesetter credited J. G. Briggs with $10 50 in the New Era road report of the county commissioners, and it raised a breeze in that neighborhood. The amount should have been credited to Frank H. Briggs.

The County Board of Commissioners held an adjourned term Monday and Tuesday. An order was made that a license be levied on all bicycles in accordance with the law passed at the late session of the legislature. Hereafter wheels only will be taxed that are used on bicycle paths.

At the recent meeting of the County Board of Commissioner John Kalbfleisch and John G. Griffith were allowed $100 and $15 respectively on account of damages claimed by the location of the Fenton road. Both parties have appealed to the circuit court, not being satisfied with the awards of that body.

Ernest Butler was married to Miss Elsie Walling at the residence of the bride's parents, near Oswego, at 4 p. m., Thursday afternoon, Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiating. The wedding was private, only immediate relatives being present. Mr. and Mrs. Butler are making their home in the France house on Twelfth street.

Charles S. Hobbie, of Oregon City, and Miss Ella E. Douglas, of Dallas, were married at the residence of Grandma Farley, Monday, March 11th, 1901, at 8 o'clock p. m., Rev. F. L. Young officiating. Only immediate friends were present. The young couple will make their home in Clackamas county—Dallas Observer.

Social items for the Sunday Oregonian must be handed the reporter by 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Advance notices of functions to be held Friday and Saturday evenings will receive attention. Personals about people visiting to and from Portland, Oregon City and Canemah. Items are not wanted after having been printed everywhere else, fake editions, etc.

On Monday Water Bailiff McCown and E. C. Greenman went to the upper Clackamas to make investigations concerning illegal fishing, while Bailiff Moody looked after the lower river and the Willamette. The former destroyed a newly-erected fish trap, and investigated a sawmill that was dumping sawdust into the river. On Tuesday night a set net was captured below the Clackamas rapids.

The directors of the Co-operative Meat Market held a meeting Saturday night and elected the following officers: President, Richard L. Greaves; vice-president, H. C. Carmack; secretary, W. J. Wilson; treasurer, J. W. McKay. On Monday all persons who had subscribed stock were notified to pay up the same within 30 days. A local butcher, who has a slaughter house, offers to furnish the proposed new concern, meats at wholesale at the same rates as sold by the Union Meat Company in Portland. By purchasing of the local slaughter house they would save the freight from Portland, and besides get the hams and livers.

Alfred Beiland, of Sherwood, was accused last week of stealing a cow and selling her to a woman in Oswego. Alfred has been in jail here and is recognized of Sherwood as a bad man, so bad that the law officers of that precinct preferred that strangers should hunt him. Our constable, E. B. Sappington was the one selected. He started on Thursday last week. He found his moon in a logging camp on an island in the Willamette river above Corvallis. When arrested Beiland looked up and said: "Who told you that I am here." He made no objection to returning to Sherwood where Constable Sappington delivered him last Saturday last.—Hillsboro Independent.

He was a recent arrival and secured employment in the paper mills as Mark Thompson, but his letters came to the postoffice addressed Mark Phelps. This condition of affairs made Chief Burns

Watch for Our New Ad.

Goods sold lower than ever to make room for new Spring Stock.

THE FAIR

Opposite Postoffice.

suspicious, and on last Friday he and Sheriff Cooke placed the young man under arrest. After a short stay in the city jail, the suspected criminal made a confession, acknowledging that he had served a term in the Idaho penitentiary, and had escaped from the Portland city jail about a year previous by slipping out through the court room. He had been arrested by Detective Barry for stealing a bicycle and disposing of the same at a second-hand store. The Portland authorities were notified of the arrest, but sent back instructions to discharge him from custody, as it was impossible at this time to find witnesses that would secure a conviction.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A Rush for Divorce Decrees.—Other Matters.

Judge McBride held an adjourned term of circuit court Saturday. The greater part of the day was taken up with arguments in a suit brought by the heirs of Joseph Mueller in Germany to set aside a sale of property located in this county made by John Mueller to Frank Krause and wife in 1891, without the formality of proper probate proceedings. John Mueller was an uncle of the deceased and waited on him during his last illness. During this period he received a power of attorney to sell the Clackamas county property, and turn over the proceeds to the heirs in Germany. He sold the property to Krause for $1755, receiving in cash $1000, and secured the balance by a note and mortgage payable to himself. He forwarded the heirs different amounts in installments until the aggregate reached $1000. The heirs in Germany afterward learned the property sold for a larger amount and made complaint to the German consulate in Portland. John Mueller claimed he retained the remainder on account of money advanced and compensation for the care of his nephew during his last illness. It appears, to that Krause had brought suit against Antone Mueller and others to quiet the title to the property. A. Schultz, of Portland, appeared for the Mueller heirs, and wants the property properly administered on in the probate court. Wallace McCamant appeared in the interest of Frank Krause, and A. R. Meadshall represented the interests of John Mueller. The court took the case under advisement.

Decrees of divorce were ordered in the following Multnomah county suits: Margaret vs. John Arthur, desertion; Lizzie vs. James W. Gregory, cruelty; Ella W. vs. James W. Baird, desertion; Charles vs. Grace A. Draper.

In the divorce suit of Joseph W. vs. Susan Shadinger, the summons was ordered published.

Funeral of Mrs. Martha J. Shaw.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Martha J. Shaw were held at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. E. S. Bollinger, the pastor, assisted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of the Presbyterian church. The attendance was large, many people appreciating the worth of the venerable pioneer woman. The floral offerings were elaborate and tasty in design. The Native Sons attended the services in a body. The pallbearers were R. D. Wilson, Daniel Williams, C. H. Dye, James Wilkinson, George A. Harding and W. Carey Johnson. The pastor paid a glowing tribute to the unostentatious life of the deceased, and her consistent Christian course; of her early connection with the local churches; also her often expressed desire not to be a burden to others on account of illness, and her prayer had been answered. She was one of the noted pioneer women, who made the beginning of this country. The interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

Rambler Bicycles

Are Always in the Lead

There are several reasons for their being in the lead. The Rambler people have made wheels for 22 years and know how to put up a strong, reliable, easy running wheel. Their guarantee is as good as gold. This year the factory turns out a more complete line than ever.

These wheels are fitted with the best and most expensive tire made, the G & J heavy detachable.

If you never had a Rambler, start in with one now and you will never have any other make.

If you do not know how they are made we will gladly spend our time and explain all the different parts of the wheel.

We sell wheels for cash or on installments, and take second-hand wheels in exchange.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN

The Oregon City Jewelers

Chainless, $60,
Racer, $50,
Light Roadster, $40,
Heavy Roadster, $35.