

EASTER OFFERINGS

It is never too early—because you may be late—to secure needed and desirable articles for Easter, particularly where the quantity is limited, as is the case with the manufacturers' entire line of Fine Tailored Suits and Skirts, purchased for 60c on the dollar.

95c--Kid Gloves

For Easter; all new shades; fitted and warranted. We sell Gloves; besides we save you money.

25c--A Snap

In "Rust-Proof" Summer Corsets; all sizes. Two bias bands around the waist. No stretching. Secure a pair.

NOTE—Bargains in Rainy-day Skirts not to be had again this season.

Corsets

The new Girdle "Rust-Proof" in pink, blue, drab and black; perfection in fit; special, not "for this day only," but any day, 50c.

Mt. Hood Shirts

Are not placed in competition, nor can they be compared with freak garments sold as bargains over the so-called bargain counters. Mt. Hood Shirts have merit. They are made in Portland by American girls.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. F. Boohe, a Portland attorney, was in the city Saturday.

County Recorder T. P. Randall spent Sunday at Butteville.

J. F. May, of Needy, was a visitor in Oregon City Monday.

Miss Clara Warner is now employed as a salesman at the Fair.

J. E. Hedges returned Saturday from a visit to Malheur county.

Sam Stevens is now chief clerk in P. A. Stokes' store at Canemah.

Mrs. Will L. Miller is visiting her brother, J. W. Ganong, in Portland.

James Brown arrived this week with a drove of horses from Eastern Oregon.

O. D. Robbins, L. H. Kirchem and J. S. Gill were in from Logan Saturday.

Newton McCoy, a prominent Portland attorney, was in Oregon City Thursday.

C. A. Burghardt, the Barton postmaster and merchant, was in the city Saturday.

John Noblitt, the Molalla horseman, was in Oregon City for several days during the week.

John F. Risley, of Milwaukie, was in town Saturday, and reported that Mrs. Risley was very ill.

George Pusey, of the Crown paper mills, has gone to Floriston, Calif., for a short business visit.

H. S. Gibson, principal of the Rainier school, was in Oregon City, visiting his family over Sunday.

John Drescher, of Monitor, was a visitor in Oregon City for two or three days, during the past week.

Mrs. Julia A. Nelson, who recently from Montana to Highland, was in Oregon City, during the week.

J. M. Tracy, of Logan, was in the city Saturday, and has closed a deal to add another farm to his possessions.

F. J. Harkenrider, of Garfield, field deputy assessor for the north end of the county, was in the city over Sunday.

Trafton and Emery Dye, students at Pacific university, were visiting at home for several days during the past week.

Charles Frost, of Canemah, who was attending a business college, is now employed in a Portland wholesale grocery house.

Miss Elizabeth Evans went to Elliott Prairie Saturday intending to begin the spring term of school at that place last Monday.

Lawrence Mack, a student at the state agricultural college, was down to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. S. J. Mack.

William Bybee, the pioneer mining man and big farmer of Jackson county, was in town Monday evening on his way to Portland.

W. C. Wilson, a Beaver Creek farmer, who was in town Monday, reported that wheat did not look promising in his neighborhood.

Miss Mary Vedder, of McKee, Marion county, was granted a permit to teach in this county, she having secured the Monitor school.

A. M. F. Kircelliener, editor and proprietor of the Antelope Republican, was in the city last Friday, and made this office a pleasant call.

George W. Lakin, of Milwaukie, was re-admitted to the state insane asylum Saturday. His new attack of the malady is due to excessive drinking.

Howard Brownell, of Oregon City, a former student of T. A., was in town the first of the week shaking hands with the friends of former days.—Forest Grove Times.

W. E. Young, formerly of Marquam, was in the city Monday, having assisted a party with some horses from Eastern Oregon. Mr. Young expects to bring down a band on his account about June 1st.

Clark Williams went to Salem Saturday to represent Pacific University in the investigation of the charges against Minchin, the alleged college oratorical plagiarist, who won the medal at the recent state contest.

James Beeson, of Shubel, accompanied his sister, Mrs. Mary F. Traylor and three children to the city Monday. The latter left on the morning train for Drain, intending to move on their farm near that place. A part of the children remained with relatives at Shubel.

Mrs. Mary Gilmer and daughter, Miss Bessie, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye. The former is a sister of Mr. Dye. Miss Gilmer is one of the capable teachers of physical culture and elocution in Fresno, and has been urged to form a class among the young people of Oregon City.

William Twist and family, who recently arrived from British Columbia, are temporarily stopping at the home of Mrs. Twist's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Shubert at Elwood. Mr. Twist was engaged in the hotel business in British Columbia, and expects to locate in this county.

Ole Mikkleson, of Sandy, was in the city Monday, and reported that a number of immigrants have been looking for land in that section, and two three purchases have been made. Mr. Mikkleson was offered $2800 for 120 acres of land, only partially improved and cleared with some buildings. There is considerable stir about the rich discovery of lead made by Meinig's in their ledge on Sheehey creek. They went down a thousand feet below on the mountain and ran in a thousand-foot tunnel. The assay shows $25 to the ton in lead value, besides gold and silver.

Nixon Blair, deputy field assessor, left Monday to begin the work of assessment on the West side of the Willamette river, he reported that grain looked exceedingly well in that section, and there was a growing tendency among the farmers to turn their attention to dairying, and practice diversified farming more extensively. Mr. Lee, of Monitor, who has been carrying on a creamery business for the past nine months, buys up all the surplus milk in that vicinity. The creamery is located on the Clackamas county side of the line.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Money to loan at lowest rates. C. H. Dye.

Spring and Easter hat display, March 29th and 30th. Miss Goldsmith.

Born, to Peter Traglio and wife, Thursday, March 21st, a daughter.

Born, in Oregon City, Sunday morning, March 24th, to County Judge and Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, a son.

Carpet weaving done by John Harrisberger, Mt. Pleasant, near Lawton place. Call, or address Box 86, Oregon City.

The "News of the Week" columns in this paper is a carefully condensed compendium of state, national and foreign news—the very essence of the important happenings in the world.

Mrs. E. L. Hays, whose eyes have been seriously affected, was taken to Portland Friday, and one of the eyes were taken out, the operation being necessary to save the other. Drs. Seaman and Ainslee performed the operation.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Subject for Sunday, March 31, "Unreality." Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. To these services all are welcome.

Edward Hughes, the well-known Portland machinery man is now located at 182 Madison street, west end of Madison bridge. Mr. Hughes has been appointed general agent for the celebrated Aultman & Taylor threshers and engines and carries all the latest machines in stock.

Sheriff Cooke began collecting taxes last Saturday, the completed roll being in readiness at that time. There is a mistaken impression among many people that the new law permitting taxes to be paid in installments is in force now. This law does not apply to the taxes of 1900.

Jacob Cassell's three-story addition to the Electric Hotel is looming up very attractively, and is a substantial structure. It will add materially to the appearance of the Charman block, and will enable the hotel to accommodate the numerous visitors that are now coming to the city.

Miss Maud Zimmerman, of Oswego, gave a party Thursday in honor of her mother's 50th birthday. Those present were: Mesdames Mary Zimmerman, Coon, Nixon, Mrs. Shipley, of Oregon City; Cinefelter, W. G. Pollock, R. L. Pollock, P. H. Zimmerman, E. J. Russell, H. T. Evans and Miss Maud Zimmerman.

A lodge of the Modern Brotherhood of America, was organized at Logan last Saturday, and the following officers were elected: President, Frank Wilson; vice-president, August Fischer; secretary, Mrs. Frank Wilson; treasurer, Brock; chaplain, A. Allen, of Redland; watchmen, Shelley, conductor, George Speers.

A prominent roadbuilder and resident of Clackamas county says that a large amount of county money is squandered by improper laying of plank on roads. This man, who has had considerable experience in this line, says plank should be laid flat on the ground with stringers embedded and have ends banked so dirt is even with the top of plank, thus preventing air and rain from continually swelling and drying out.

Two Clackamas county teachers passed the February examination for state papers, and have been granted certificates by the state board. They are: Ex-County Superintendent N. W. Bowland, of Sycamore, and Elizabeth Baker, of Graeme. These certificates are good for five years. The standard of state examinations is more strict than formerly, and fewer candidates are now successful in passing the ordeal.

A quiet wedding took place Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the residence of L. W. Guerin, when Rev. G. H. Bennett spoke the words uniting the lives and fortunes of John G. Noe and Miss Julia E. Mitts, both of Needy, Clackamas county.—Woodburn Independent. Mr. Noe is a prominent and favorably known school teacher of this county, and the bride is a highly-respected young lady, of Needy, also highly esteemed.

Mrs. S. J. Mack, died at midnight Thursday, March 21st, aged 39. The funeral took place Sunday, and the services were conducted by Rev. E. S. Bollinger. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. The deceased was born in Illinois in 1852, and the family had lived in Oregon City for the past 16 years. She left a husband and five children.

The Lawton road, which has been repeatedly before the board of trade, city council and county board of commissioners, was resurveyed and viewed last Monday. This work was ordered done by the county board in response to a petition signed by many citizens. The survey begins at High street in the city limits on the bluff and runs up the Lawton hill to an intersection with the New Era and Mount Pleasant road.

Miss May Perry, of this place, has recently received a letter from her little friend, Miss Maud Macy, which was posted at Pueblo, Colorado, where her parents and family are now visiting. They will soon go to Iowa, but the letter did not state whether it is for permanent residence or for a visit only.—Coquille City Herald. Mr. Macy, who was associated with Dr. J. Burt Moore in the proprietorship of the Seventh street drug store, recently left for Iowa.

STOPS THE COUGH AND WORKS OFF THE COLD.
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure no Pay Price 25 cents.

New Spring Goods arriving at the Fair Store daily.

Laces from 1c per yard upward.

The only place for Bargains.

THE FAIR

Opposite Postoffice.

Always a step ahead of others in quality, but never ahead in price.

Everything's Ready For Eastertide::::

That's one of the special features of this store—always ready. This season's bright, new things are all in and waiting for you to make selection. It is enough to say that they are the best to be had; and you may just as well have the best when it costs no more than the inferior.

Men's Spring Suits

All the newest whims of the Spring mode are in our assortment. Fancy herringbone stripes, checks, gray and green mixtures, blue serges and black chevets.

$10 to $35

Top coats made in latest box Or Raglan style, light, medium Or dark shades, $10 to $35

Spring Headwear

There is a heap of satisfaction in knowing that you can buy hat perfection here. All the new Spring shapes and shades in men's fedoras, low crown and derby hats are in.

$1 to $5

Bike caps, 50c up to $1.25. Youmans' straws, $3.50 to $5.

Boys' Apparel

We do for boys what we do for men—give them the best money can buy. Some rare and beautiful novelties here for small boys and a profusion of durable, stylish clothes for school boys and young men.

Novelty suits, $2 to $10. School suits, $2 to $12. Youths' suits, $5 to $20.

Handkerchiefs

We show unique designs in fancies and grand values in plain linens, that will strike you favorably. Fancy borders and fancy centers, 25c to $1.50.

We have the best white linen handkerchiefs in Portland at

25c

A. B. Steinbach & Co.
POPULAR ONE PRICE HATTERS & CLOTHIERS

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison, cor. entrance

Rambler Bicycles

Have been so successful in their manufacture that they are known for their marvelous strength and easy running qualities. No doubt you have seen these wheels other years, but we call especial attention to this year's line. They sell on their merit.

Chainless $60 Light Roadster $40
Racer 50 Heavy Roadster 35
Cushion Frame $50
Morrow Coaster and Brake $5 extra

Besides these we have the Mitchell, fitted with detachable tires, $30, and the Ideal $25. We sell on installments and take second-hand wheels in trade.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN
THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

Look at our Bargains in Second-Hand Wheels.