

Special Sale ON Boots and Shoes FOR Next 90 Days

General reduction in Shoes, some of which, including children's Shoes at cost. General reduction in all lines.

G. W. GRACE, On 7th and Center Sts.

NORTHWEST IMPLEMENT CO.

DEALERS IN

The only genuine Fish Bros.' wagon, of Racine, Wis. Canton Copper plows and harrows Superior drills and seeders Steel Clad grubbers, the most powerful grubber on the coast Hodgs' new and Hercules mowers, rakes and binders A full line of buggies and carriages 208 Front Street Portland, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

B. F. Smith, of Needy, was in the city yesterday. Father Hillebrand spent Tuesday at New Era. John Irvin, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Tuesday. James Mallatt, of Mulino, was in Oregon City Tuesday. Mrs. G. W. Brown has returned from a visit to Corvallis. J. R. Shaver and T. M. Cross were in from Molalla Tuesday. Mayor Dimick is confined to his bed with an attack of measles. E. E. Judd, of Molalla, was in town during the first of the week. Mrs. Henri, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Hanfin. Conrad Benner, of Sunnyside, was an Oregon City visitor Monday. W. P. Herman, of Molalla, was visiting in Oregon City Monday. W. H. Bremer, of New Era, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday. Alford Walling, of Oswego, was a visitor in Oregon City Saturday. Arthur Sitton, of Dayton, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Weldon Shank. Mrs. Amelia McClincey, of Wilsonville, was in the city Tuesday. J. D. Allen, of Rickreall, Polk county, visited relatives here Tuesday. J. E. Judd, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Monday with a band of sheep. Mrs. M. Burns, of Rockwood, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday. Road Supervisor W. H. Engle, of Molalla, was in the city during the week. C. F. Baker, M. Guyer and H. O. Inskeep, of Carus, were in town Friday. L. M. Davidson, a successful grape-grower, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Deputy County Clerk and Mrs. Elmer Dixon returned from Hood River Monday. O. D. Eby, of Molalla, the well-known school teacher, was in town Wednesday. T. M. Cross, of Molalla, was in the city for a couple of days, during the week. Postmaster Kleinsmith and Mike George, of Clarkes, were in town Wednesday. Rae Trullinger, of Meadowbrook, was a visitor in Oregon City Friday and Saturday. J. C. Bradley and family have moved back to their home on upper Sixth street. County Clerk Cooper and family are still occupying a part of the house, but expect to return to their location soon.

Rev. C. A. Luce and daughter, of Brooks, visited Rev. Atkins and family Tuesday. Mrs. G. B. Dimick returned the first of the week from a visit to her parents at Needy. Frank Andrews, of Mount Pleasant, has accepted a position in Barlow's grocery store. C. A. Ryan and Henry Russell, of Wilhoit, were in Oregon City the first of the week. Arthur Gallogly is home from the agricultural college at Corvallis, for a s. r. vacation. W. D. Hanks, who is now located at Tacoma, is home for a couple of weeks vacation. Pay your water rent before the 10th. John Kaiser, clerk of Mountain Road school district, New Era precinct, was in town yesterday. Miss May Wishart spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Thorne, in Portland. J. W. Smith, a prominent Mack'sburg merchant, accompanied by his wife, was in town Friday. H. S. O. Phelps, of Canby precinct, was in the city Tuesday on his way home from Portland. Isaac Miller, a pioneer, who lives in Clackamas county, north of Aurora, was in the city Wednesday. E. S. Bramhall, of Aims, was in town Wednesday looking after the taxes on the Bramhall property. Mrs. August Hoefler and daughter, Miss Betta, of Champoeg, are visiting the family of John Vegelius. A. C. Newell, of Damascus, who represents a yeast company, is doing business in Oregon City this week. M. F. Boyles returned Tuesday evening, after an absence of several weeks at Lake Owen in Eastern Oregon. Misses Lena Goldsmith and Lizzie Paquet, of Portland, were visitors in the city for a couple of days this week. Mrs. Adolph Willey was called to Portland Wednesday by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Johnson White. Miss Helen Gleason, the teacher of the Meadowbrook school, visited her parents here, Saturday and Sunday. T. R. A. Sellwood, of Milwaukie, and M. Oatfield, of Rickreall, were attending commission court Wednesday. James F. Hill and J. K. Richardson, of Redland, were in town Tuesday, having brought in a drove of mutton sheep. Miss Della Webb, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Minnie Trullinger, at Meadowbrook, returned home Friday.

H. L. Patterson, accompanied by his wife, came down from Salem Tuesday to visit relatives in this county for a few days. A. A. Pease, who has been here during the past winter looking after his property interests, returned to Seattle Tuesday night. Harley C. Stevens now has a good position at Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Stevens and infant sons, expect to join him in a few weeks. King Spurgeon, of Olackamas Station, who is connected with the Little White Salmon river hatchery, was in town Wednesday. Mrs. Charles Babcock returned Wednesday evening after a month's visit in California, she having accompanied Mrs. S. E. Paquet on the trip. Senator E. M. Kands, of Vancouver, has been appointed a commissioner of the Lewis & Clark exposition by the governor of Washington. J. D. Stevens, who is now conducting the Peoples Press at Albany, during the absence of Editor Hale and wife in the East, was in the city Saturday. W. C. Campbell came down from Albany Tuesday evening. Since leaving here he has been assisting his brother-in-law, in the railroad depot there. J. W. Hoffman, of Stumpter, who was visiting his family here, returned Tuesday. He reports that his blacksmith shop is doing a profitable business. Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Bollinger went to Woodburn Tuesday night, where the former delivered an appreciated lecture before the Women of Woodcraft Circle. W. A. White has been appointed superintendent of the construction of the new flouring mill to be erected at Salem by the Portland Flouring Mill Company. J. C. Keller, who was long connected with the Willamette paper mills, left Tuesday night to accept a position with the Ludgate Lumbering Company at Seattle. C. D. Cole and Silas Mosier, both former employees of Barlow's grocery store, left Wednesday night for Sacramento, Calif., where each expect to find profitable business openings. A. B. Hibbard, of Marquam, was in town Tuesday. He recently completed a term of school at Mulino, but refused offers to teach elsewhere, having retired from the business. J. G. Forrester and George Wilson, of Eagle Creek, were in town Monday and Tuesday. They stated that the people there hopefully expect to be benefited by railroad construction during the coming year. R. C. Ganong, manager of the Portland flouring mills, returned the first of the week from a ten days visit to California points. He had a very enjoyable trip, and returned much improved in health. Fred Hargreaves, of Parkplace, who has been attending Albany college, left Tuesday for Seattle, where he expects to secure employment. It is his intention later, to enter the state university at Eugene. John Stamp and H. J. H. Deckman have quit ranching at Wilhoit, and Mr. Stamp left Monday for the logging camps at Louisville, Wash. Mr. Deckman expects to remain in Portland and work at his trade. W. H. Mattson, of Viola, who was in town yesterday, reports an astonishing story about a ewe in his flock of sheep. During the past month the ewe gave birth to a lamb, and 15 days afterward gave birth to another. F. S. L. Bagby, who recently put in a large sawmill on Rock creek, was in the city Wednesday. He reported having floated 2,000,000 feet of logs down Rock creek, and will be prepared to fill large orders on short notice. Justice of the Peace Matt Kandle and Thomas Jones, of Highland, were in the city during the week. Mr. Kandle thinks the short wheat yield last year was due more to climatic conditions, than the ravages of pests. Fred Lutze, of Logan, who sold his farm to J. M. Tracy, left early in the week for Idaho. A. A. Kenny accompanied him to town. Mr. Lutze's sister and mother will follow for the same destination next Saturday. Dr. E. A. Sommer has written to Mrs. Sommer, that he expects to be in his office here the 15th. He had completed his surgical course in the hospital at Baltimore, and was studying new methods in New York City. Mrs. Theodore Metca arrived from Minneapolis last Friday accompanied by her daughter, Nina. She will visit her sisters, Mrs. Catta and Mrs. Farnham, and brothers, Elmer and Homer Lankins, until the arrival of her husband, who will arrive in a short time. They expect to make their home in Portland. O. L. Barber, a well known hop grower of Elliott Prairie, was in the city Tuesday, and stated that he had an offer of 12 cents per pound for his hops, but did not care to contract. He has the reputation of producing and putting up an extra quality of merchantable hop. Several of his neighbors have contracted for 11 cents. Henry Murray, a prominent hop grower of Butteville, was in the city Tuesday. He has been in the business for 20 years, and says that it matters not how careful a yard may be cultivated, a season will come when the development and condition of the weather for other causes, that the product will be faulty and subject to rejection by buyers. O. W. Herman and J. F. Bowman were in Oregon City Monday on their way to the Lower Columbia, where they have positions. Charles Hardy and Louis Nightingale, of Wilhoit, John Marks and George Myers, of Molalla, were in the same day on their way to Northern Washington, Julia Young and Abbie Hammond, of Molalla, were in Oregon City Monday on their way to Walla Walla. The poor crop of last year has probably caused the boys to leave for pastures new. Several more will leave May 1st. The little girl of R. Thomas is quite ill. Mark Chapman left last week for California. Mrs. Judge Rathbun, of Mount Tabor, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Robinson. J. Coleman, of San Francisco, who has been visiting Jack Knotts, of Mulino returned home Wednesday. W. P. Kirchem was in town Thursday looking after the interest of the Clear Creek Creamery Company. George Simmons, the clerk in Shark's cigar store, has been confined to the house by illness this week.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Have you paid your water rent? Frank Cooley Company next week. Fresh milch cows for sale by Jack Knotts, Mulino. A "silent" social will be given by the Presbyterian Y. P. C. E. on April 16th. Born, to the wife of Charles Moehnke on the West Side, March 29, a 7-pound boy. A setting each of goose and turkey eggs wanted. Inquire at Courier-Herald office. Russian white oats and Burbank potatoes for sale for sale. See samples at Courier-Herald office. For sale—One driving mare, 6 years old, and one farm boiler. Inquire of Howell & Evans at Elk restaurant. Carpet weaving done by John Harriberger, Mt. Pleasant, near Lawton place Call, or address Box 88, Oregon City. A sorrel mare has been taken up at Molalla that seems to answer description of one advertised in Courier-Herald last fall. Messrs. Shank & Bi-sell shipped a carload of potatoes to Olympia Wednesday, and another to Arizona yesterday. For sale—A good home on easy terms; 5-room house, four lots and barn; choice trees. Place must go. See parties moving into Depot hotel. G. E. Seol has leased the Depot Hotel, and will reopen that hostelry, and establish a wall paper and paint shop on the Seventh street side.

Free

An Easter egg given free with every purchase (5c or over) of candy at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen

For Sale—One span bay horses; well broke; weight 1360 and 1430. For further particulars apply to S. L. Dart, 2 1/2 miles south of Molalla Corners. County Clerk Cooper has issued marriage license to Esther Ione Farr and George M. Jeffcott, March 30th, Lizzie H. Bemick and Earl Martin, April 2nd. Notice—I hereby disclaim all liability on all debts incurred from and after this date by Mrs. Lucinda Swope. April 4, 1901. G. W. Swope. A free phonograph and stereopticon entertainment will be given by the Woodmen on May 9th. The program consists of one hundred songs and views. Clackamas District Pomona Grange will meet with Harding Grange at Logan, April 10th. All patrons are cordially invited. Mrs. M. E. Gill, secretary. Strayed—From my place near Oregon City, a bay filly, coming 3 years old; small white spot on forehead; rather blocky built. Suitable reward for information. W. E. Wells, Oregon City. It is reported that the aphid is showing up during the plowing of fields in the Molalla section, and they are alive and kicking. Army worms are also found under sumps while grubbing. About April 20th, P. G. Shark will receive direct from the factory in Chicago the largest assortment of pipes of all descriptions ever brought to Oregon City. If you are intending to buy a pipe wait till this large shipment arrives.

EASTER SUGGESTIONS

For Ladies

Gloves, Silk and Kid—all the latest shades. Neckwear, White Lace Ties, also Stocks and Bows with Gold Trimming. Belts, Novelties in Leather, Velvet and Gold Lace Belts. Handkerchiefs, Lace, Embroidered and Hemstitched in plain and fancy borders. Shirt Waists, Made in the latest styles.

For Men

Hats, All the latest styles in Derbies and Soft Hats. Neckties, Novelties in Bows, Four-in-Hands and ready made Scarfs. Shirts, Spring Styles in White and Colored Shirts. Collars and Cuffs, All the latest styles in the "Arrow" and "Coon" brands. Gloves, Kid Gloves in Grays and Tans.

Golden Rule Bazaar

Stevens Bldg., Opp. Bank of Oregon City

Leaders in Advance Styles and Low Prices.

A lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Security was organized Tuesday night with 25 charter members. About 40 members of the order were present from Portland. E. H. Cooper was elected chief officer.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Subject for Sunday, April 6, "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. To these services all are welcome.

Solar Circle, Women of Woodcraft, celebrated their fourth anniversary Tuesday evening, and a very enjoyable program was presented. The cap social was a successful feature. Mrs. E. E. King, supreme organizer, was present, and delivered an address. Refreshments were served.

Walt Kyler arrived in this city last Monday. He is writing up the country of Washington and Oregon for two of the leading Northwest papers of Montana, and is favoring immigration from the East to this country, as he thinks more Eastern capital and farmers are needed here in this vast undeveloped country.

The flag on the woolen mills has been at half mast in memory of the death of M. Brown, of San Francisco, a prominent stockholder. Years ago he was in business in Oregon City, and was here considerably last summer. The employees were given a lay-off Wednesday, while the funeral was being held in San Francisco.

The Fellows will case was up again for three days this week, and further hearing was postponed until next Monday. Some of the testimony introduced was shocking, and it would seem might have been left out. J. W. Loder is doing expert work taking down the testimony with a typewriter, which is done rapidly and correct.

Pay your water rent before the 10th. Mack Howell, of the East Side Railway Company, and Chambers Howell, of Charman's drug store, on Wednesday purchased from A. L. Maxwell, receiver of the Oregon Development Company, a lot of property connected with the construction of the Oregon Pacific railroad. The property consists in part of 6000 acres of land between Corvallis and Yaquina bay, machine shops, wharves, elevators, warehouses, and all other property belonging to that company, situated along the line of the Oregon Pacific railroad.

Frank Cooley Company at Shively's next week. 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Attention, Water Consumers

Pay your water rent at the office of the Secretary, in the City Drug Store, before the 10th of the month and save trouble and expense.

By order of the Board of Water Commissioners.

FOR SALE

Mrs. R. S. Partlow wishes to sell her six-room cottage, good barn and one acre of ground located at Mt. Pleasant, one mile from Court House, on plank road. For particulars inquire at this office.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Do You Use Paint?

Most of the world does and most of the world uses

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT. It's made to paint buildings with, inside and outside. It's made ready for the brush. It's made for home use and for practical painters too. It's pure lead, pure zinc and pure linseed oil, mixed by specially made machinery operated by experts. It's made for you.

If you can get something that will wear longer, look better and is 25 per cent cheaper than lead and oil, will you use it? I have the paint and would like to talk it over with you.

C. G. HUNTLEY

Prescription Druggist

OREGON CITY, OREGON