

EASTER OFFERINGS

It is never too early—because you may be late—to secure needed and desirable articles for Easter, particularly where the quantity is limited, as is the case with the manufacturers' entire line of Fine Tailored Suits and Skirts, purchased for 60c on the dollar.

95c--Kid Gloves

For Easter; all new shades; fitted and warranted. We sell Gloves; besides we save you money.

25c--A Snap

In "Rust-Proof" Summer Corsets; all sizes. Two bias bands around the waist. No stretching. Secure a pair.

NOTE—Bargains in Rainy-day Skirts not to be had again this season.

Corsets

The new Girdle "Rust-Proof" in pink, blue, drab and black; perfection in fit; special, not "for this day only," but any day, 50c.

Mt. Hood Shirts

Are not placed in competition, nor can they be compared with freak garments sold as bargains over the so-called bargain counters. Mt. Hood Shirts have merit. They are made in Portland by American girls.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON

PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. W. Herman was in from Molalla Monday.

O. H. Miller, of Needy precinct, was in town Monday.

Lorenzo Tenny, of Viola, was in Oregon City Monday.

Rev. J. H. Beaven returned Friday from a short visit to Salem.

Rev. William Barrett is in Oregon City on business.—Dayton Herald.

D. D. Evans, a prominent Clackamas precinct farmer, was in the city Friday.

O. C. Ballou, a well known Eagle Creek farmer, was in Oregon City Friday.

L. O. Nightingale, of Wilhoit, was in the city for two or three days during the week.

Mrs. J. Strausser, who was visiting friends in the city, returned to Salem Friday.

Mrs. G. B. Jackson and child returned Friday evening from a visit to friends at Canby.

George Brown, who had charge of the Coos river salmon hatchery, arrived home Sunday.

Fish Warden VanDusen, of Astor's was in the city Saturday, looking after the fishing interests.

I. A. Bonney and C. T. Bigelow, of Hubbard, were in town Monday morning on their way to Portland.

Miss Pearl Copley, a student at Willamette university, Salem, is at home for the mid-session vacation.

Mrs. C. H. Dye has gone East to gather additional material for her forthcoming new book on Lewis and Clark.

P. E. Bonney, of Colton, was in Oregon City Saturday, and reported that the fall-sown grain gives promise of a good yield.

Captain Archie Pease, of Portland, was in Oregon City Friday, making arrangements for the funeral of the late James Moore.

J. P. Olsen, of Clarkes, who was in town Friday, reported that grain is looking fairly well, and that considerable seeding is being done.

O. H. Byland, of Oregon City, has been engaged to teach a three months school at Cross Keys, the term beginning this week.—Antelope Republican.

Rev. S. Copley returned Thursday evening from a few weeks visit to Oakland, Calif. He reports that climatic conditions are very satisfactory this season.

E. B. Miller, of Needy precinct, passed through town Monday morning on his way home from Portland, having spent Sunday with his old friend, Dick Uhlbrand.

Miss Frances Myers, teacher of the primary department in the Barclay school, was very ill with lung fever, at the home of Mrs. F. F. White on Jefferson and Tenth streets, and returned home.

O. Koche, a prominent hop grower, of Mark's Prairie, was in town Monday. He said that hops were sprouting in a very encouraging way, but it was bad weather to cultivate the crop.

Dr. J. B. Zeigler, formerly with Dr. O. P. F. Plummer, of Portland, has charge of the drug department of A. L. Clark's store at Rainier.—St. Helens Mist. When did he become a M. D?

Rev. D. A. Watters, of Salem, held quarterly conference at the Viola Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, and will preside at the same function for the Oregon City church this Friday evening.

J. H. James, wife and four sons arrived from Gage county, Nebraska Friday. Another son, W. D. James had preceded his parents a few days. It is there probable intention to locate in this county.

James Adkins, W. E. Potter and M. H. Lee, of Canby, were in Oregon City Monday. The latter is employed during the greater part of the time at Keona, Wash., but is now home on a month's vacation.

W. H. H. Wade, formerly of Currinsville, who has been at Sodaville, Linn county, for several months past on account of Mrs. Wade's health, writes to have the address of his paper changed from that place to Salem.

F. M. Naught returned Monday from a visit to St. Johns, below Portland, and reports that place a scene of bustling activity. Three companies of railroad surveyors are now on the peninsula, and the O. R. & N. has taken the initial steps to build a spur to St. John from Portland, a distance of five miles.

S. A. D. Hungate came in from Molalla the first of the week and purchased a wagon and team, to be used in hauling his outfit to Eastern Oregon. Mr. Hungate has a big surveying contract in the southeastern section of the state, and expects to leave with his crew for the scene of operations about May 1st.

County Surveyor Ernest Rands went to Padding river Monday to make a survey of the proposed improvement on Whisky hill on the county road between Hubbard and Needy. It is the intention to cut the hill down to an easy grade, which will enable larger loads of freight to be hauled over that thoroughfare. Hubbard is the railroad station at which produce and merchandise is shipped to and from Needy.

George Randall, of New Era precinct, states that the fall-sown grain looks well, that the hops are sprouting nicely, and present conditions are favorable for a good fruit crop, but the freshly-plowed ground shows millions of young aphids. However, these eggs are not found in all locations. Mr. Randall has set out a small yard of Bulgarian hop, an early variety sent out by the agricultural department at Washington.

William Rider, accompanied by his brother, O. D. Rider, returned Saturday from a visit to Puget Sound, going as far north as British America. They report the Sound towns booming, and had a very pleasant trip. However, Mr. Rider expresses the opinion that the boom is too fast to last; that after the timber is all cut into lumber, there is but little soil left that is worth cultivating. O. D. Rider left for his home at Independence Monday morning.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Born, near Stafford, March 29th, to Henry Harper and wife, a son.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Methodist Camp Meeting Association was held at Canby Friday. It was decided to hold the annual meeting in June, beginning on the 29th, and continuing for two weeks. The grounds were ordered fitted up for this gathering.

M. Bollack, of this city, suggests two names for the Lewis & Clark celebration of the 100th anniversary, to be held in Portland in 1905: "Pacific Centennial, American and Asiatic General Exposition," or, "Pacific Centennial, American, Asiatic and European Universal Exposition."

G. C. Armstrong and J. W. Stone, of Redland, were in the city Monday after a coffin for Mrs. Mary Jane Dew, who died the previous night. The deceased was 45 years of age, a native of England, and was raised in New Zealand. She left a husband and three children. The family came to Redland from Idaho, about six months ago.

Messrs. Howell & Evans, real estate agents, have been corresponding with leaders of a colony of 40 people at Chicago, who expect to be here during the coming the present month, with a view of locating. The list includes farmers, tradesmen and artisans, and if they can suit on their arrival here, they will make purchases of farm lands, business property, etc.

The funeral of the late George C. Fenimore was held at the Baptist church last Friday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. J. H. Beaven. The fire department attended the services in a body, the deceased being a prominent member of Columbia Hook and Ladder Company. The services were well attended, and a number of tasty floral offerings were in evidence.

James McKenzie, a well-known farmer, living at Currinsville, died last Friday aged 45, his illness being typhoid fever. The deceased and his brother, William came to Multnomah county in 1875, and purchased farms on the Base line road, and about 13 years ago he married Miss Jennie Bolton. He sold his farm and moved to Eagle Creek in this county. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. at Currinsville. He left a wife and three children; also his parents, who reside in Ontario, Canada.

In 1893 or 1894, General Frederick Funston, who captured Aguinaldo, was employed at the Willamette pulp and paper mills as a pipe fitter for a couple of months. He came here from California with a force of men who were fitting up buildings with Gray automatic sprinklers, the foreman having a contract

Always a step ahead of others in quality, but never ahead in price.

Everything's Ready For Eastertide

That's one of the special features of this store—always ready. This season's bright, new things are all in and waiting for you to make selection. It is enough to say that they are the best to be had; and you may just as well have the best when it costs no more than the inferior.

Men's Spring Suits

All the newest whims of the Spring mode are in our assortment. Fancy heringbone stripes, checks, gray and green mixtures, blue serges and black chevots.

$10 to $35

Top coats made in latest box Or Raglan style, light, medium Or dark shades, $10 to $35

Boys' Apparel

We do for boys what we do for men—give them the best money can buy. Some rare and beautiful novelties here for small boys and a profusion of durable, stylish clothes for school boys and young men.

Novelty suits, $2 to $10.
School suits, $2 to $12.
Youths' suits, $5 to $20.

Spring Headwear

There is a heap of satisfaction in knowing that you can buy hat perfection here. All the new Spring shapes and shades in men's fedoras, low crown and derby hats are in.

$1 to $5

Bike caps, 50c up to $1.25
Youmans' straws, $3.50 to $5.

Handkerchiefs

We show unique designs in fancies and grand values in plain linens, that will strike you favorably. Fancy borders and fancy centers, 25c to $1.50

We have the best white linen handkerchiefs in Portland at

25c

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest Fourth and Morrison, cor. entrance

to fit up the Willamette mills buildings. Vice-President Johnson, of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, who knew Funston personally, says that he is the same man who worked here as a pipe-fitter.

The Odd-Fellow delegates have been elected to attend the grand lodge and conventions of the order: Oregon Lodge—Thomas F. Ryan, S. S. Walker and H. W. Trembath. Willamette Rebekah Degree—Mesdames W. H. Howell, S. S. Walker and J. J. Cooke. The grand lodge will hold their annual sessions at Baker City in May, and other members of the order announce their intention of going to Baker City at this time for a pleasure trip. Judge Ryan is in the line of promotion to be elected chief patriarch of the grand encampment.

James L. Moore, a Clackamas county pioneer, died in a Portland hospital last Friday from the effects of an attack of his grippe. He was buried here Saturday, the services being conducted at Holman's undertaking parlors by Rev. E. S. Bollinger. The deceased left two daughters, who reside in Portland: Misses Agnes and Hattie Moore. Mr. Moore was a well known resident of Oregon City, until about three years ago when he removed to Portland. At one time he was considered comparatively wealthy, his parents, who were early pioneers, owning a large tract on the West Side. During the latter years of his residence here, the deceased followed fishing.

It will take something beside a mere pull to hereafter secure positions in the Oregon City public schools. An application blank has been printed, and each applicant will be required to answer 16 different questions, exclusive of the postoffice address, on the blank spaces indicated. The applicant will be required to give her birthplace, age, where educated and graduated, all about certificates held, ability to teach singing and drawing, all about subscriptions to educational papers, possession of books on pedagogy, time taught places and grades; weight, height and complexion; required if accept a position in the Oregon City school not to seek or accept position elsewhere during term of contract. If at the opening of the school the teacher has not filed with the school clerk ample evidence that she had attended a county institute or state association during the past 12 months, she will forfeit $5 from her first month's salary. The blank space for the age occurs in the third line. These blanks are especially intended for outside applicants.

When you want a good square meal go to the Brunnsick restaurant, opposite suspension bridge, L. Ruonich, proprietor. Everything fresh and clean and well cooked; just like you get a home. This is the only first-class restaurant in Oregon City and where you can get a good meal for the price of a poor one elsewhere.

STOPS THE COUGH AND WORKS OFF THE COLD.
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure no Pay Price 25 cents.

New Spring Goods arriving at the Fair Store daily.
Laces from 1c per yard upward.
The only place for Bargains.
THE FAIR
Opposite Postoffice.

Rambler Bicycles

Have been so successful in their manufacture that they are known for their marvelous strength and easy running qualities. No doubt you have seen these wheels other years, but we call especial attention to this year's line. They sell on their merit.

Chainless	$60	Light Roadster	$40
Racer	50	Heavy Roadster	35
Cushion Frame $50
Morrow Coaster and Brake $5 extra

Besides these we have the Mitchell, fitted with detachable tires, $30, and the Ideal $25. We sell on installments and take second-hand wheels in trade.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

Look at our Bargains in Second-Hand Wheels.