Dan Howe and Mr. Jennings, of Portland, the record-breaking salmon sportsmen, were at the falls Wednesday, but had no luck. If there are any fish in the stream Dan will get them.
Herbert Bestow, of Portland, was in Oregon City Sunday. Mr. Bestow took an active part on the program of the Easter services at the Congregational church.
Henry Adin and Henry Peters, of Wilsonville, were in town yesterday, and stated that active efforts are being made to establish a creamery at that place, to be operated by a creamery man from Bethany. The creamery will be a go if the milk from 150 cows can be secured. So far only 96 cows have been secured.
M. Shaner has just returned from a trip to Northern California, more satisfied than ever to live in Oregon. He says that section is not to be compared with Oregon for farming and that he saw eight horses laboriously hauling a 14-inch plow. While there, a heavy frost occurred that killed considerable fruit, but not injuring the oranges very much.
County Surveyor Ernest Rands will leave, accompanied by his surveying crew, for Malheur county next Monday. His brother, Hal, who has just completed his course at Cornell University, is expected to arrive from Ithaca tonight and will assist in the surveying contracts. After completing the work in Malheur county, they will go to Idaho, where they have extensive contracts. Three members of the old crew will accompany them—George Tucker, Ruth-erford Whitlock and Wilford White.

A "Silent" social will be given at Shively's opera house on Tuesday evening by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church. A program will be presented and ice cream and cake served.
Strayed—From my place near Oregon City, a bay filly, coming 3 years old; small white spot on forehead; rather blocky built. Suitable reward for information. W. E. Wells, Oregon City.
An entertainment will be given at Salvation army hall on Saturday evening at 4 o'clock by the children. There will be songs, recitations, music, etc. After the program is rendered ice cream and cake will be served.
It is expected that Upper Seventh street will be repaired so that teams can cross the street as soon as the weather improves. This street was left in this condition by the contractors who put in the hill sewer system last fall and winter.
An experienced cheese man proposes to establish a factory in Oregon City if a sufficient number of cows can be secured. This matter will be discussed at a board of trade meeting on Friday, when all public spirited citizens should be present.
The Gladstone-Parkplace W. O. T. U. had a very enjoyable gathering and entertainment the other evening at the church. The organization is flourishing and the principal officers are president, Mrs. H. E. Cross; vice president, Mrs. T. M. Gault; secretary, Mrs. J. J. Brown.
Next Sunday evening the pastor of the Congregational church will preach a sermon to the Boys of the Twentieth Century Club. The theme will be "The Glory of Being a Young Man in the Beginning of the Twentieth Century." All the boys are especially invited.
James P. Lovett has moved from the Gurnett house on the West Side, and will now occupy part of the house of Major Charman, his father-in-law. The Gurnett house was recently sold by the owners to J. W. Moffatt, who will shortly occupy it with his bride.
A movement is on foot to improve Center street from Seventh to Fifth and half of the property owners have signed petitions which require the signature of one more property owner. This section of the street is one of the worst places in Oregon City and should be improved by all means. Improvements of this kind enhances the value of property and owners should not object to them.
County Clerk Cooper has issued marriage licenses to the following persons during the past week: Lizzie H. Renwick and Earl Mertz April 2, Cora J. Fletcher and Bartholomew Cronin on the 8th, Josephine Stewart and Alphonse E. Stewart, 8th, Rath Vaughan and Bird Bevens 9th, Elsie J. Newell and Charles D. Hunter 9th, Bertha Took and William Rall 10th, Carrie Baty and John Stubbs 10th.
A meeting of the stockholders of the New Era creamery and cheese factory will be held on Saturday at Grange hall to decide on building plans and hear report of committees on number of cows secured. It is understood that the committee has not secured enough cows to make the institution pay from the start. The dairy business is the most profitable for Oregon farmers and every inducement should be given to creameries and cheese factories. There are enough cows in the neighborhood but some seem backward about going into anything of this kind. The Logan factory is a success, and there is no reason why one at New Era can't be made to pay. A skimming station has been established at Canby by Townsend & Co., and cream shipped to their headquarters in Portland.

Do You Use Paint?

Most of the world does and most of the world uses
THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT.
It's made to paint buildings with, inside and outside. It's made ready for the brush. It's made for home use and for practical painters too. It's pure lead, pure zinc and pure linseed oil, mixed by specially made machinery operated by experts. It's made for you.

If you can get something that will wear longer, look better and is 25 per cent cheaper than lead and oil, will you use it? I have the paint and would like to talk it over with you.
