Oscar Wessinger, the Milwaukie postmaster, says that Milwaukie is at present in a prosperous condition. Employment is plenty, and everybody is at work. The vacant houses have all been filled, and there is urgent demand for more. Because of this demand, the present outlook for a revival of general building improvements is favorable.

S. J. Olesby was out at Currinsville Monday and brought in a sample of wheat affected by some kind of an insect that eats from the roots up through the young sprouts and turns the grain brown. This sample was from a ten-acre field of Kinney wheat on the farm of Hugh F. Curran, about a third of which has been killed in this way. The fall wheat and oats do not show any signs of this pest.

Work is in progress at the Milwaukie carshops that will greatly facilitate travel and transportation between Portland, Oregon City and way points this summer. Two large passenger coaches and one heavy freight car are in course of construction by the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company. The work of building these cars and four more in San Francisco has been in progress something over a month, and is expected to be completed in time for summer travel.

An enjoyable surprise party was given Fred Curran Saturday evening at Ely. Mr. Curran left Monday for Idaho, and the party was given a farewell on the part of a few of his numerous friends. The features of the evening were interesting games, instrumental and vocal music, and an excellent luncheon at the close. The invited guests were: The Misses Curran, May Lowell, Hattie Ringo, Dora Henrici, Ernestine Henrici, Nora Curran; Messrs. Allie Fairclough, Sterling May, Charles Albright, Augustus Friedrich, Frank Everhart, Don Dickey, Charles Dickey, Frank Ringo, Frank May and Master Lisle Curran.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." If not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Get Green's Prize Almanac at George A. Harding's.

When you want a good square meal go to the Brunswick restaurant, opposite suspension bridge, L. Ruonich, proprietor. Everything fresh and clean and well cooked; just like you get at home. This is the only first-class restaurant in Oregon City and where you can get a good meal for the price of a poor one elsewhere.
