

Spring Dress Goods

We have placed on sale an exquisite collection of Spring Novelty Dress Goods in all the latest colorings, at popular prices. Also fine Venetians, Satins, Imperials and French Broadcloths, for Tailor-Made Suits.

- 1147 yards 21-inch Plisse, crinkled effects, all pure silk; former price, $1.25; special price, per yard..... 75c
- 1347 yards 21-inch Striped and Checked Wash Silks, extra quality, all colors; special per yard at 37c and..... 47c
- A beautiful assortment of Silk and Wool French Albatross, for Novelty Shirt Waists, per yard..... 75c

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON - PORTLAND, OREGON

L. C. Hornschuch, formerly of this city, came up Sunday to visit relatives for a few days before taking his departure for San Francisco, where he will have charge of the clothing department of a San Francisco house. For the past eight months he has held a position in the boys' clothing department of Meier & Frank's department store in Portland.

Miss Maud Sheldon, who has been visiting in Oregon City for a couple or three weeks, returned home Monday. She stated that her sister, who was injured in an elevator accident, was improving, and that Miss May Curl, who was reported as having escaped unhurt, was quite badly injured, having received a badly sprained ankle, and suffered an injury of the spine.—Albany Democrat.

Deputy County Clerk Elmer Dixon returned Saturday from Stevenson, Wash., where he attended the trial of James G. Green for killing E. V. Benjamin, of Hood River, on the morning of March 24th. The murdered man was a cousin of Mr. Dixon, the only relative that he has on this coast. Green confessed his crime, and the jury returned a verdict of murder in the first degree. Senator E. M. Rands, formerly of Oregon City, is one of the attorneys of the murderer, and moved for a new trial.

Spring Buying Time

THE HEIGHT OF THE CLOTHES-buying time-warmer weather is just ahead, and the man who doesn't buy now may be sorry.

The new-apparel fads are all here in Suits and Topcoats that are away ahead of the ordinary. As you may know our clothes are cut on the newest lines, of superior quality cloths, shaped to fit, and priced to suit. If you don't know it, come and see.

$10, $15 to $35

Our new "West Point," broad-brim, pearl hat, at $2.50 seems to suit everybody.

The new bike suits make their first bow for your approval; $5 to $12.50.

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison, cor. entrance

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. W. Strickland, of Canby, was in Oregon City Saturday.

William Quigley, a Canby hotel proprietor, was in the city Monday.

J. Parrish, a well known resident of Highland, was in town Saturday.

Jacob De Shazer, of Eagle Creek, was a visitor in Oregon City Monday.

Miss Anna Penman is now employed as waiter in the Brunswick restaurant.

J. C. Pilabury is doing service on the United States grand jury in Portland this week.

Schuyler and Bessie Desart spent Sunday at Barlow visiting L. E. Armstrong and family.

Miss Eliza Mulvany, of Clackamas county, is visiting Miss Mabel Kreiger.—Toledo Leader.

D. H. Boen and family have removed from Beaver Creek to the Barrett place on the Abernethy.

Miss Nannie Paddock, registrar of the U. O., is visiting her home near Oregon City.—Eugene Guard.

T. J. Buford, Indian agent at the Siletz reservation, was visiting his son, Jay Buford this week.

Charles Clayson, of Milwaukie precinct, was in the city for a couple of days during the week.

Mrs. J. B. Dimick, of Hubbard, has been visiting her son, Mayor Dimick, during his recent illness.

Dr. C. E. Loomis, special government land agent, left Monday for a tour of inspection in Eastern Oregon.

W. H. H. Dufur returned Wednesday from a business trip of several days to Oregon City.—Dufur Dispatch.

Miss Pearl Cosper, who has been attending the state agricultural college at Corvallis, is home for a few days.

Miss Mabel Wheelock, of Pleasantdale, Yamhill county, who spent the winter in Oregon City, has returned home.

Herman K. Jones, of Portland, visited his parents here last Sunday. He now holds a remunerative position with the telephone company.

Miss Myrtle Boen, of Abernethy, began a term of school at the Tracy school house in the lower Garfield district one week ago last Monday.

J. Rue and family, who have been spending the winter here, left Friday for their home at Elgin, Ill. Mr. Rue is a brother of Schuyler Rue.

Mrs. Charles Dierke, of Portland, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Barlow, Saturday. Barton Barlow is recovering from his late illness.

James Marquam and George Dunlavy, two Marquam business men, were in Oregon City Saturday. They report grain, hop and fruit prospects good.

Hans and Julius Paulsen, of George, were in town Saturday. They report that farmers are sowing grain, and the prospects are favorable for a good crop.

C. R. Livesey removed this week to Champeog, where he has a contract to cut 700,000 feet of logs for his brother, David Livesey, who runs a sawmill there.

William Hayhurst, the well known school teacher of Oarus, was in the city for several days during the week. He recently graduated from a business college in Portland.

Ray Barnhart, who has been visiting in Washington and lately in Portland and Oregon City, returned last Saturday night and remained over Sunday.—McMinnville Reporter.

Mrs. W. M. Robinson has been very ill at her home on the West Side with a complication of grip and asthma for the past two months, and her condition is but little improved.

W. A. Phillips, who has been waiting on his father, William Phillips at Clackamas Station, was in town Friday. The well known pioneer has been in poor health during the past winter.

Miss Althea Moore, sister of L. O. Moore, accompanied by her niece, went to Brownsville Saturday to visit her mother for a few weeks. She has been residing here and at Portland for several months past.

Miss Nellie Kemp, teacher at Scott's Mills, who has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Kemp, left yesterday for Oregon City, where she will take the teachers' examination.—Woodburn Independent.

Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Seamann removed to Portland Saturday, where he has opened an office in the Alisky building. Dr. Seamann built up an excellent practice in this city, but former patients will find him in the new location.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

New arrivals daily in ready-to-wear hats. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Baby caps and hats in the latest styles. Miss C. Goldsmith.

A slightly used parlor organ for sale by W. L. Block, the homefurnisher.

Come and see the Widow Bedott at Shively's opera house Saturday night.

The Odd Fellows, assisted by the Rebekahs, will celebrate the 82nd anniversary of the foundation of the order on April 26th.

Widow Bedotte wants to get married. All the eligible young men of this city are invited to present themselves at the opera house Saturday evening, between 7:30 and 8:30.

Two new members were initiated at the meeting of Gibbon Post held last Friday afternoon. Two more candidates, it is expected will be taken in at the next meeting.

Three weddings in which at least four prominent Oregon City people are principals, are expected to take place at early dates. The preparations for each function are in progress.

James M. Parrish, of Highland, reported Monday that the frost had done considerable damage to clover fields in several districts through which he passed. One large field on the Moehne place, near Shubel, was completely ruined.

Albon Meinig brought some fine specimens of quartz from Cheney creek, Clackamas county, to Portland yesterday. The specimens were assayed and ran $22.50 to the ton. They contain galena, silver, copper and gold.—Sunday Oregonian.

The new survey of a township in the Siletz reservation was filed in the local land office Monday morning, and a number of parties who were waiting for the opportunity, began filing homesteads. During the day 23 homestead locations were filed, the majority of them on the new survey.

The grading and tracklaying on the Oregon City & Southern railway was completed to the southern boundaries of Canemah last Saturday, with the exception of the two Southern Pacific crossings. It is expected that the condemnation proceedings for right of way over the crossings will be heard one week from today. After the crossings are completed, the track through Canemah will be ballasted and leveled up. The company owns property on the river bank at the second crossing, where a dock is to be built.

Parties, who had a net full of salmon cached in the water near the falls, went over to take two or three out for immediate use. It appears that they were being watched, and in the hurry to get the net closed, caused it to break loose from its moorings, resulting a loss of both the net and the net.

The front of the new three-story building now being completed adjoining the Electric Hotel, presents a solid and attractive appearance. A cement walk has been laid in front of the building. The lower story will be used for store rooms, and the upper stories for lodging rooms in connection with the Electric Hotel.

The 29th Oregon Pioneer Reunion will be held at the exposition building in Portland June 14. Hon. William Galloway, of this city, is a member of the committee on arrangements. Hon. Raleigh Stott, of Portland, will deliver the annual address, and Charles W. Galloway, of McMinnville, will deliver the occasional address. The annual encampment of the Indian War Veterans will be held on June 13th, and the grand cabins of the Native Sons and Daughters will be held on the same date.

A meeting will be held at Macksburg Saturday, April 27th, for the purpose of organizing a branch of the sound democratic party of America. A meeting was held on April 10th, and 13 persons signified a willingness to join such an organization and there are prospects of a strong branch in the near future.

Dr. Ernest A. Sommer returned Sunday from a two months' visit to the East. He accompanied United States Senator Mitchell on his trip across the continent, the party and two invited guests enjoying a $15 dinner on board the train while passing through Iowa. Dr. Sommer took short courses in the hospitals of Baltimore and New York, and is enthusiastic over some of the latest surgical developments.

Eugene Cummins, of Highland, was in Oregon City Tuesday. He stated that the miniature cyclone which visited his neighborhood the week before did considerable damage. In his orchard nine old apple trees, which were over a foot in diameter, were uprooted and considerable fence torn down. The hail which accompanied the breeze, killed a lamb.

Sailor and walking hats just arrived. Miss C. Goldsmith.

When you want a good square meal go to the Brunswick restaurant, opposite suspension bridge, L. Ruonich, proprietor. Everything fresh and clean and well cooked; just like you get at home. This is the only first-class restaurant in Oregon City and where you can get a good meal for the price of a poor one elsewhere.

Kozy Kandy Kitchen, up to date on home-made candies.

New Spring Goods arriving at the Fair Store daily.

Laces from 1c per yard upward.

The only place for Bargains.

THE FAIR

Opposite Postoffice.

Rambler Bicycles

Have been so successful in their manufacture that they are known for their marvelous strength and easy running qualities. No doubt you have seen these wheels other years, but we call especial attention to this year's line. They sell on their merit.

- Chainless $60
- Racer 50
- Light Roadster $40
- Heavy Roadster 35
- Cushion Frame $50
- Morrow Coaster and Brake $5 extra

Besides these we have the Mitchell, fitted with detachable tires, $30, and the Ideal $25. We sell on installments and take second-hand wheels in trade.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN
THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

Look at our Bargains in Second-Hand Wheels.