

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

Mackburg.

Spring has come for good at last, and everything is in its glory, even those pretty girls.

Mrs. J. P. Forrester returned Friday from a two weeks' visit among relatives in Portland.

Miss Myrtle Winesett has been in Oregon City during the week.

The Sandy Ridge Sunday school is preparing a program for Children's Day.

All are cordially invited.

"Corporal" gave us excellent advice, and we shall endeavor to follow it fully.

I think that "Lengthy" and his opponent will soon be ready to "kiss and make up," as they seem to be getting some very good advice and comments from neutral quarters.

The Artisans held a social meeting Saturday evening. They always have all kinds of good things to eat, and the old folks can play "Ruth and Jacob" to perfection.

Sunday school is doing nicely. A good crowd is in attendance regularly.

Zoe.

H. F. Gibson, accompanied by his attorney, George L. Story, of Oregon City, appeared before Justice Jonsrud, of Sandy, on May 11th, and persuaded the justice to rescind his action of the previous day in which he had arbitrarily fined Mr. Gibson without first giving him a trial.

Gracie Davis, daughter of William Davis, has been very sick with intermittent fever, but is able to get up again.

Floyd, son of Jahu Davis, is very sick with inflammatory rheumatism, but we hope Dr. Smith will soon have him up again.

The young people of the neighborhood to the number of about 20, made a surprise party for Miss Dolly Lemon, on May 11th, the occasion being her 18th birthday.

The Garfield Sunday school is moving along nicely under the superintendency of Mrs. Holder.

Rev. Dixon is urging his church people to organize a Sunday school. We cannot have too many Sunday schools if they are conducted in the proper spirit.

Fern.

Stafford.

The weather is such as causes mortals to be drowsy.

A thunderstorm would undoubtedly freshen the atmosphere.

Roads and plowed fields look dry.

An addition is being added to John Moser's residence.

H. E. Hayes made a visit to his farm last week.

Most of the sheep are shorn.

Messrs. Weddle and Moser are clearing preparatory to putting up a line fence.

Captain Clothier of Company C, Third Regiment, O. N. G., was up here from Portland last Friday viewing out the line of march for his company, for Sunday, May 19th.

The company will leave Portland by the East Side electric car to Oregon City at 8:30 a. m., and leave Oregon City by the West Side electric car at 10 o'clock, form at the end of the car line and march to the cemetery here arriving shortly after 11 o'clock.

They will then stack their arms and take rest and dinner, after which they will proceed to the grave of Don Roy Gage, a fallen comrade, and hold memorial services.

The program will be in part: Greeting to the Boys in Blue, Hon. E. A. Moses; response, Captain Clothier; unveiling the Don Roy Gage monument; the last salute; taps. The program will be interspersed with appropriate songs.

From the cemetery they will march half mile to a meadow, and there practice for a half hour or more.

One of the main features in the practice will be a sham battle. After practice they will march back to the car, and return over the same route as they came.

Those desiring to be present the entire time during the soldiers' stay here, should come prepared with lunch. Long tables will be spread at which soldiers and civilians will partake of their noonday rations.

LENGTHY.

Garfield.

As we have not seen any news in the Courier-Herald for some time from Garfield, we send a few items and will try to keep your readers posted on Garfield news regularly.

Crops are looking fine, but are a little backward. Farmers have sown more field peas than for many years and will try to fatten hogs on them.

We need a creamery up here. It is reported that Milt Marshall, J. C. Duns and Norman Tracy will build silos this summer.

Two of our enterprising farmers, Tomp Yocum and B. G. Palmettea, are building new barns. Mr. Yocum's is 40x60 feet with 30 feet posts and Mr. Palmettea's is 52x68 feet with 12 feet posts.

Saturday evening, May 4th, H. H. Anders and his bride gave a reception. It was attended by a large number of their Garfield friends, and the evening was enjoyably spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Anders are now at home to their friends.

Gracie Davis, daughter of William Davis, has been very sick with intermittent fever, but is able to get up again.

Floyd, son of Jahu Davis, is very sick with inflammatory rheumatism, but we hope Dr. Smith will soon have him up again.

The young people of the neighborhood to the number of about 20, made a surprise party for Miss Dolly Lemon, on May 11th, the occasion being her 18th birthday.

The Garfield Sunday school is moving along nicely under the superintendency of Mrs. Holder.

Rev. Dixon is urging his church people to organize a Sunday school. We cannot have too many Sunday schools if they are conducted in the proper spirit.

Fern.

Dover.

Born on May 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Pagne, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bowman were visiting James DeShazer Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Casseday returned Tuesday from Portland, where she had been for some weeks, having undergone an operation for a cancer in her breast. We are very glad to report her speedy recovery.

Guy Woodle has taken a "claim" in Dover.

F. Nelson and wife were visiting M. H. Bowman and wife Sunday.

Clark Bowman and wife called on Mrs. L. Cabbage last Friday.

Jacob Cooper, while sawing logs last week, had the misfortune to let the saw fall on his foot causing a very painful wound.

Mrs. Cooper expects to return to Portland this week.

Mrs. Ahnerts and daughter, Mollie, were visiting in Dover last Sunday.

Joseph DeShazer and family were visiting Mrs. Kitzmiller and family last Sunday.

August Paulsen, of George, also Mr. Robinson, of Bissel, were visitors in Dover Sunday.

Preaching here is discontinued until the first Sunday in June.

Any one desiring good stock ranches do well to come to Dover.

M. L.

Needy.

News is scarce.

Miss Bertha Goldsmith returned to her home Sunday. While here she was the guest of Mrs. Charles Molson.

Gus Dimick was greeting his old friends here Saturday.

The Needy base ball club played Aurora Sunday. The Needy club was beaten.

Mrs. S. G. Donilon is quite sick.

Mr. Fish died Monday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. K. Garrett.

M.

Evergreen.

The fine weather and good roads are being made use of by the farmers and teamsters at present.

There is no school here this week on account of the sickness and death of the teacher's grandfather, Mr. Fish, of Needy. The deceased was an old and respected citizen of the community, and he leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn his departure.

Rev. J. M. Dick, of Hubbard, conducted the funeral services.

Miss Ida Yoder was home from Hubbard last Sunday.

The next regular service at the Smyrna church has been changed from 11 a. m. to 7:30 p. m., on Sunday, May 26th.

J. J. Clark, of Illinois, is visiting friends in this section with a view of locating.

A. E. Taylor and sister, Jessie, were the guests of Alice Wyland last Sunday.

Miss Nellie Crocker is home from Philomath, where she has had a painting class.

E. H. Yoder and family have moved to Portland, where the former has work for the summer.

New novelties in trimmings and flowers. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Redland.

Frank Sprague and family returned from California last Friday. They will stay with A. Sprague.

A. M. Kirchem is out on a visit for a few days.

E. N. Brock is on the sick list.

William Stone, James Fullam and George Heinbothen located a road from Fisher's Mill to the Latonrette place last week.

Coyotes are destroying some more of Mr. Davis' lambs.

Claude Stone came up from Portland today, where he has just completed his school term.

May 14. L. F.

Glad Tidings.

Still we have rain occasionally. Seeding is about a thing of the past. Ho-training is the order of the day. We have fair indications of a fruit crop this year.

Professor Halpruner is preparing to build on part of the Jackson ranch.

M. D. Leabo is improving the appearance of his place by a new fence along the front. He has also built an addition to his barn.

Oliver Robbins moved his cattle to Molalla last week. He has had them on the ranch near Marquam.

Edgar, next time you come to church leave your wheel at home.

Molalla must be on the boom, as it takes two correspondents to send in the news.

Jim, a certain young lady is waiting patiently to see you come out on that wheel.

There will be quite a number of acres of corn planted in this section.

Cliff Hendershot is splitting rails for S. Jordan.

May 13. Squib.

Shubel.

The marriage of Miss Hettie Guenther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Guenther, of Shubel, and Chris Grasier, of Oregon City, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Saturday, May 11th, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Copley, of Oregon City, in the presence of many friends. After congratulations all partook of sumptuous dinner after which the newly wedded pair left for their home in Oregon City. The afternoon was spent in various ways by the old and young. The younger element, especially, kept time to pleasure's chime until the waning twilight gave way to advancing night. The groom is one of Oregon City's most prosperous young men, and the bride is one of Clackamas county's most estimable young women. We wish them happiness and success.

Elwood.

F. N. Cadonau has gone to the wood camp near Logan.

Some unseen demonical spirit, while on its usual heedless tour of devilishness uprooted a tree that had been planted in the school grounds at the Arbor Day exercises. Some people scarcely realize the fact that they are living in a civilized land, and if they had their just dues they would be banished to some heathen land, where they could associate with their equal.

Most of the Elwood donors on the Clarkes road have put in their amount of time.

W. R. Cox and Emil Bittner delivered two loads of spools to the Willamett Paper Mills at Oregon City.

Lalla Rookie.

Viola.

Not having heard from Topsy for a few weeks, we send in a few items.

Lem Walker, of Woodburn, is visiting his brother, N. Walker.

Fred Walker left last week for Dufar to visit his brother, Will, and his family, and also visit his sister, Minnie, who expects to be gone all summer giving lessons in painting and music.

A party was given at the hall on the evening of May 10th, by Johnny Matton and his sister, Miss Eva. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. Good music was furnished, and dancing was the feature of the evening.

H. Matt on has sold his fine team of gray horses to the fire department in Portland. He bought a fine luggy and with his best girl can be seen out riding every evening.

A. Graham and family have returned from Edmonds, Wash. We are sorry to hear of the death of their oldest child, Russel. He was a bright boy and a good scholar for his age. Measles was the cause of his death.

J. M. Hayden has returned to Portland after a month's stay on his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fellows spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brown.

Misses Clara and Gertie Severe have gone to town for a short visit.

John Tucker and wife visited with J. Randolph and family last Sunday.

F. Mattoon and wife visited her parents last Sunday.

Road Supervisor Ward has been working the road in Viola leading to Springwater and has under way one quarter mile of grade when completed. What he will use for plank is made with a mall and wedge commonly called corduroy, as the plank now that is being laid in the county does not hold out to be distributed in this district. He says, "wait till the clouds roll by."

Last Monday while David Cloener was driving into town one of his horses began kicking, and was becoming unmanageable, but his son, Albert, took hold of the lines and finely got them quiet, otherwise it might have proved a serious runaway.

Beautiful line of chiffon hats in all the latest styles. Call and inspect. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Viola.

The weather has been quite pleasant for the past few days.

A birthday dance was given at Viola hall on May 10th, in honor of J. O. Brown and wife and Harvey Mattoon, which was well attended. A good time was enjoyed by all present.

Marvey Mattoon has sold his valuable team for $250.

Andrew Graham and family have returned to their home in Viola, leaving behind their oldest son, who died with measles.

One by one our loved ones leaves us. As the hour of life grows later; One by one their parting grieves us. They are passing through the gate.

One by one we all are going Down the pathway steep and straight, Oh! The joy there is in knowing We shall meet beyond the gate.

Farewell, dear friend, life's battle is won, The voyage is ended, life eternal begun, Now diseases and trials will harm thee no more.

Anchored safely in port on the evergreen shore.

Rural Dell.

Sturges Bros. are running their sawmill in full blast now.

Don't you hear dem wedding bells? Several of the boys took in the sights at Portland on their wheels Sunday.

Mrs. C. Zweifel had the misfortune to have her ankle sprained, but it is improving as well as could be expected.

Mrs. F. Moshberger is visiting her sister, Mrs. Saux, of Portland.

Grandma Samson, who has been very low is improving.

Nathan Zweifel is slashing for E. Sturges.

F. Eymann is building a picket fence around his garden.

Everything seems to be gliding along harmoniously at Rural Dell.

The farmers are in advance in getting their grain sowed this year by what they have been for several years previous.

Albert and Louis Moshberger and Isaac Williams visited the metropolis last Sunday.

J. A. Bonney, of Hubbard, were visiting in this community last Sunday.

Mrs. T. B. Donaldson has returned from Portland.

Miss Rose Sawtell will come home from Canemah this week on a visit.

George Sawtell has been working for William Everhart.

Some of the hopgrowers are complaining of great many missing hills in their yards, which for some reason do not come up.

We received a new supply of stationery from the editor. Please accept our thanks.

May 14. Rustic.

A car load of milk crocks just received and will sell at 8c per gallon. L. Block, the Homefurnisher.

Meadowbrook.

The weather has been very delightful for the past week.

A. L. Larkins made a flying trip to Oregon City Friday.

Services were held at the school house Sunday by Rev. G. Wingfield.

T. R. Orem drove to Molalla last Saturday.

Miss Mary Edgecomb, of Clarkes, attended church last Sunday at Meadowbrook.

Misses Florence Higgins, Hazel Cooper and Lena Kay were out boating Sunday evening.

People, get your rubber boots and rice ready, as the wedding bells will soon be ringing in the good old town of Meadowbrook.

V. E. B.

Marks Prairie.

Farmers are well pleased with the late rain, and seeding is about finished on the prairie.

Mose Spicer is very sick at James McGill's home, and very little hopes of his recovery is entertained.

The Woodmen will give a grand entertainment at Needy on Saturday evening, May 18th.

J. E. Marks has gone to Baker City, where he will open a law office.

Our road boss has been doing road work for the past few days, and we will soon have fine roads.

Bicyclists were out in full force yesterday.

A match game of baseball was played at Aurora yesterday by the Needy nine and a nine composed of Hubbard, Canby and Aurora players.

Fellows

Harding Block, Oregon City TELEPHONE 613

$2.90 Barrel Best Valley Flour

$3.10 Barrel U. S. Hard Wheat Flour

7 1/2 Cents Can Standard Tomatoes

7 1/2 Cents Can Standard Corn

We sell sugar at wholesale price

J. A. McGLASHAN, Manager Stores Oregon City and Portland

SHIVELY'S OPERA HOUSE

ONE NIGHT Thursday, May 23

A Feast of Fun The Eminent Comedian

Harry Carson Clarke

In his latest hit "What Did Tomkins Do?"

Pretty Girls Catchy Music Strong Specialties Supporting Company of unusual excellence

Prices 50 and 75c; Children 25c Reserved seats at Huntley's

A great many of our people will go to see the presidential party in Portland on May 22.

Dr. B. E. Giesy has returned from Philadelphia, where he has been completing his medical studies. He is gladly welcomed by his many friends.

Farmers are trying to scrape up enough money to pay their taxes or rent, and it seems to be quite a hard proposition.

The correspondent at Needy seems to feel hurt by our remarks about the Needy "gentlemen". If he will look at the dictionary and see what constitutes a gentleman he will see that they have a very few at that place. Perhaps he is thinking of "dissipated gentlemen."

That is what they have there, and they are the kind that attend the Needy dances. Your correspondent has lived for about 45 years in Clackamas county, and no person has seen him under the influence of "booze," as he does not use liquor of any kind, and his reputation as a temperance man is well known. If said correspondent wants the names of the Needy gentlemen your correspondent will gladly furnish them to him.

Mulino. As our correspondent has left us we will try to fill her place.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Alex Thomson.

Mrs. O. Daniels is visiting friends at this place.

Mr. Clark, who had the misfortune to be thrown over the dam while running logs last week, is rapidly improving.

Miss Veve Jones is visiting friends at Philomath.

Mr. and Mrs. Curbesin, of Canby, were visitors in this place last week.

Mrs. J. J. Mallatt was visiting her sister last Sunday.

May 13. Bunchy.

Barlow. This town is enjoying a revival meeting this week. The preacher, a product of Grants Pass. At the service on Sunday, he spoke eloquently of the old dragon (dragon), but didn't say to what regiment said dragon belonged.

He also mentioned the archangel Michael (Michael) and Bud Tull wondered if he had reference to our one-time free-silver U. S. senator. At any rate we hope he will do some good, as Judge Jesse, Bud Tull and some other sinners expect to be on their knees most of the week [weeding onions].

A lady asked our new merchant, Will Tull, to show her some "lonedale." Will blushed, went out and sent the senior partner in to find out what the woman wanted any way.

Yes, we expect to have a new bridge across the Molalla. Then our Canby neighbors can run over most any time to do their shopping. They are tired of their (no) trust stores.

We have been wondering if our friend, A. B. Cole, expects to be a candidate again. He was bragging on my chickens the other day, when the truth is they aren't much better egg producers than Henry Hedge's hens.

It is reported that a wedding ceremony was performed in the state of Washington last week that couldn't have taken place in this state, on account of the difference in color of the contracting parties. The bride was from this place.

Mrs. Patrick Maloy is quite ill. J. Marks has rented Mrs. O. W. Quint's property here and moved in last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John King are running two incubators and have a ten-acre field of chickens and turkeys.

They say that C. U. Barlow is boring for oil in California, and that he has a hole half-way through already.

Why is it that the G. A. R. never asks any one but the majors and kernals to relate war stories and experiences at their musterings. Weren't there a few corporals in the army too?

Our blacksmith is busy about all the time.

D. O. Freeman says business is improving.

Our new store and postoffice, and the proprietors, look fine. CORPORAL.

(Continued on page 6.)

SEND FOR OUR 1901 VEHICLE CATALOGUE JUST OUT 64 pages. Over 100 Styles Nearly 3000 Vehicles in Stock PRICES---Carts $15 and up Road Wagons 45 and up Top Buggies 60 and up Surries, Spring Wagons and the World Renowned Mitchell Wagons Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. First and Taylor Streets, PORTLAND, OREGON.