

Columbia Bicycles

Standard of the World

The 1901 models of the Columbia are the lightest and prettiest wheels on the market and are far ahead of other wheels in style, finish and improvements, as the standard of the world ought to be. Any other road wheel shown in Oregon City will weigh from 24 to 28 pounds—the Columbia weighs 22. They have direct pull spokes that never break—the famous Columbia crank hanger—tool steel bearings—seamless tubing—Dunlop, G & J or Hartford tires.

BICYCLE SUNDRIES

We carry a large line of first-class bicycle Sundries—nothing so cheap that we cannot guarantee it—but everything at a price that we can guarantee. We give double protection—quality and price—and cheerfully refund money for any unsatisfactory purchase.

Crescent Bicycles

Through rain and shine, through mud and dust for the past nine years Crescent bicycles have proved their worth to Clackamas County riders. They are known as the wheel that "Stands up" and keeps out of the repair shop. Many new improvements on the 1901 models. They are as light running and handsome as they are good and staunch. Absolutely dust proof bearings which will run a whole year without attention. Dunlop or Hartford tires.

- Chainless - - $50
- Chain Wheels $25 and $35
- Morrow Coaster Brake $5.00 extra on all models.

We sell bicycles on easy installments and take old wheels in exchange. Second hand wheels at $6.00 up. Ask for a catalogue—free.

Oregon City Lodge No. 1, Ancient Order of Red Cross, entertained its members together with their families, on Friday evening. It was the first anniversary of the local lodge of the Red Cross, and ice cream was bountifully served in order to commemorate the occasion. Supreme Guide D. C. Rogers and President Keating of Portland Lodge No. 2, were present, and each spoke a few words concerning the wonderful progress of the order. During the evening six new members were initiated, and five applications were received.

Col. Tompkins (Harry Corson Clarke's latest character study) is a typical New Yorker of 50, physically alive, mentally wide-awake of generous, kindly impulses and hence no less happy in disposition than in manner. Unfortunately his income is not adequate to his expansive taste and expensive habits. Naturally he is often at his wife's end to raise the wind, yet truth to say, not so much for self-indulgence as to carry out his ever generous, though often hazardous schemes.

Hear PALOMA SCHRAM, THE CHILD ARTIST, at Shively's, Monday.

The music-lovers of Oregon City will doubtless be glad to hear that little Paloma Schram will give a concert at Shively's opera house next Monday evening. A beautiful piano will be brought up from Portland for the occasion, and those kindly inclined towards high-class music will be given a treat. Paloma Schram is no doubt the greatest child-wonder living, as, although she is only 11 years of age, she can play anything placed before her. She is accompanied by her sister Karla, herself an artist of no mean merit. Seats will be on sale at Huntley's at 50 cents to any part of the house.

Several passenger agents of continental railroads were up from Portland Saturday to confer with Rev. A. J. Montgomery, who is transportation manager for the Oregon Christian Endeavors, who will attend the national convention to be held at Cincinnati, O., July 6th to the 10th inclusive. We have received word from Mrs. Nellie Hicks, of Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, that in the account published in the Courier-Herald of the killing of her husband in a wreck, his name appeared as Wick instead of Hicks. Mrs. Hicks left Oregon City about two years ago. Her maiden name was Nellie Phillips, a grand-daughter of Mrs. Rachel Bacon and she married Mr. Hicks in El Paso, Texas. She also writes that the weather is warm there and the sunshines very bright. Most of the time the Rio Grande river is dry, but it is now full of water from bank to bank.

Superintendent H. D. Wilcox regrets very much to announce that he has been unable to secure the promised talent for the two remaining parts of the High school lecture and music course. In contracting for the lectures he dealt directly with the Thomas Lyceum Bureau of San Francisco, and for the last eight weeks he has been unable to secure any satisfaction from them whatever. Mr. Wilcox requests that all who desire to do so may send him a written request for a return of the balance of the price paid for season tickets and the money will be refunded, otherwise the funds in his hands will go to purchasing books for the school library, which are so badly needed.

Attention!

Meade Post, G. A. R., will hold its regular meeting at Willamette hall Saturday, May 18th. Business of importance. All comrades in good standing invited.
