

NORTHWEST IMPLEMENT CO.

208 Front Street Portland, Oregon

Hodges' Queen, Prince and King Binders

Strongest built. Easiest operated. Only Binders having three packers. Greater binding capacity by 100 per cent than any machine. Roller bearings throughout.

Hodges' New Mowers

With roller bearings. Fully up-to-date. Combining strength, power, speed and lightness of draft.

Hodges' Lassie Self Dump Rake

With relief spring, bicycle wheel, steel axles and center dump.

See our goods and be convinced

WAGONS, BUGGIES, PLOWS, HARROWS, ETC.

paper mills. Mr. Medka and family will reside at Bolton.

George T. McArthur, who recently closed a term of school at Mount Pleasant, will leave next week, accompanied by his family for Woods, Tillamook county, where they will spend the summer. Bert McArthur and family are already at Woods.

The James Brothers, who recently purchased the Young place on Milk creek, were in town Friday after more freight supplies, brought from Nebraska. David Robinson accompanied them to town, and left in the afternoon for visit to his son, who lives down the Columbia.

E. G. Noyer and wife, of Pomeroy, Wash., have been visiting old time friends in this county for the past three weeks. The Noyers came here in 1855, and after living in Clackamas county for 23 years they removed to Washington, where they have since resided. They lived in Damascus precinct for eight years.

Shirley Buck, who is now principal of the Needy school, was in town Saturday, and reported that arrangements were being made to have appropriate memorial services there on Decoration day. Colonel Robert A. Miller will be the orator of the day. The cemetery here is one of the historic burying places in Clackamas county, many prominent pioneers and war veterans being buried there. The cemetery was laid out in 1854.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

A number of local people went to The Dalles on the sache's excursion Sunday.

Born at Parkplace, Saturday May 11th, to G. H. Oldenburg and wife, a son.

Born, in Oregon City, Monday, May 11th, to Herman Logus and wife, a daughter.

E. J. Maple, of Parkplace, is building a neat six-room cottage on his lot at Willamette Falls, which will be for rent.

Cut rates caused crowds of people from Portland to visit Oregon City last Sunday, the cars and boats being fairly crowded.

Hon. B. B. Beekman has accepted the invitation to deliver the address at the commencement exercises of the Oregon City high school.

W. I. Rowan, who carries on the business of the Oregon City Iron Works, has been awarded the contract to build 50 hop stoves for a Salem firm.

Dr. M. C. Strickland has purchased a new patent pneumatic tire buggy the first of the kind brought to the city. It is remarkably comfortable as a riding vehicle.

Frederick Peter was granted his final citizenship papers Monday upon taking the proper oath of allegiance before the county judge. His witnesses were Peter Nehren and Chris Hartman.

J. L. Prodger, of Alexandria, Minn., is visiting his brother, C. T. Prodger on the West Side. It is his intention to locate somewhere in the valley. His family are still in Minnesota, but expect to join him later.

The Josi dairy proprietors have completed the erection of a large barn on the west side property leased from the Portland General Electric Company. There is some excellent pasture ground on the premises. W. F. Harris, of Beaver Creek, furnished the lumber for the new cow barn, 35,000 feet being used.

The other day while working on the Broughton dwelling, now owned by the Bank of Oregon City, G. R. H. Miller, had a fortunate escape in an accident that for a moment presented visions of instant death. He was at work on the roof of the structure when he accidentally slipped and fell, but was fortunately caught on a scaffolding only six inches wide.

One of the greatest events of the annual assembly of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association at Gladstone park July 3-13, will be the Fourth of July celebration. An elaborate program will be presented, a balloon ascension, fireworks in the evening, etc. General Thomas J. Morgan, of New York, who was superintendent of Indian affairs under President Harrison, will be the orator of the day. His topic will be "The Building of a Nation." General Morgan, also will give another platform lecture before the Chautauqua, either the day preceding or following that of the celebration.

County Superintendent Zinser announces that the examination of eighth grade pupils will begin on Thursday, May 23rd. Julius Paulsen, of George; L. P. Burns, of Union Hall, and J. P. Woodie, of district No. 50, all school of-

Boys' Washable Suits

We show a line of surpassing worth and attractiveness in Sailor and Russian Blouse Suits of duck, galatea and Oxford, several different kinds and qualities in the newest colorings and designs

50c to $3.50

Boys' Straw Hats, 50c to $3

Boys' Negligee Shirts, 50c to $1.50

"Iron Clad" Hose, 25c a pair

Boys' Balbriggan Underwear, 50c

A. B. Steinbach & Co.
POPULAR ONE PRICE HATTERS & CLOTHIERS

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison, cor. entrance

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Charles Clark, a well known Clackamas Station farmer, was in the city Monday.

D. C. Boyles, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dodge, of Liberal, were in town Saturday.

A. Stormer and family, of Viola, were visitors in the city Friday.

James Boos, of Milk Creek, was a visitor in Oregon City Saturday.

H. W. Shaw, of Union Mills, was in Oregon City during the week.

R. L. Russell is very ill with typhoid fever at his home at Parkplace.

Chris Moehke, a well known farmer of Shabel, was in town Monday.

James Phelan, a well known citizen of Sandy, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

William Jones and Henry Shannon, of Beaver Creek, were in town Monday.

County Clerk E. H. Cooper and family have moved into the Olouse house.

Mr. and Mrs. Cicero M. Larkins, of Clarkes, were visitors in town Tuesday.

Miss Laura Burnett, of Portland, was visiting Mrs. Herbert Poppleton Sunday.

Mayor and Mrs. G. B. Dimick visited his parents at Hubbard over Sunday.

Mrs. T. B. Huntley, of Independence, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Poppleton.

Richard Wright, of Woodburn, a former resident of Molalla, was in town Tuesday.

Fred Yohann, Lawrence Bair and John Eckert, of Macksburg, were in town Saturday.

Marah Riley and August Amus are again employed in the Noblitt stables under the new management.

Ed J. Hammond was in from Molalla Monday, having recovered from his recent illness of six week's duration.

W. H. Andrus, of Portland, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. O. W. Eastham, for several days during the past week.

Mrs. G. R. H. Miller has been very ill for a couple of weeks past with malarial fever, but her condition is a little improved.

August Staehley and D. C. Leland, of New Era precinct, were in the city Friday. They report crops looking well in that section.

Mrs. Dr. Stuart and child, of Woodburn, who were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Farr, returned home Friday evening.

C. S. Schlickeiser, of Wilsonville, was in town Monday, and reports that grain, hops and fruit give promise of good yield in that thrifty section.

Mrs. Lena Wicks left Sunday morning for Eugene to visit her parents for a few days before leaving for her new home in San Francisco.

J. F. Bowman, of Molalla, who recently underwent an operation in a Portland hospital, was in town for several days during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harrington were visiting relatives in Oregon City for a couple of days, and returned to their home at Highland Saturday.

Miss Jessie Talbert, of Oregon City, is teaching school at the Lone Rock school house, states the Glide correspondence of the Raseburg Review.

William Gerhauser writes from Fairfield, Spokane county, Wash., to change the address of his paper to that place from Houlton, St. Croix county, Wis.

W. T. Henderson, postmaster at Elwood, was in the city Saturday. He reported that extensive improvements to the school grounds were under contemplation.

H. L. Patterson, who is a deputy warden at the penitentiary, was here for a couple of days during the week, taking a short recreation. He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

Miss Cressie Denholm, of Bandon, has gone to Oregon City, where she will visit her grandmother. She passed through this place en route last Wednesday.—Ocoille City Herald.

Representative J. A. Talbert, of Clackamas, and nephew, Mr. Davis, a cattleman from Colorado, visited the former's daughter, Miss Talbert, Saturday.—Woodburn Independent.

P. Leichtweis, of Molalla, was in the city Saturday visiting Mrs. Leichtweis, who is still at the home of Mrs. Wilcox in this city. She has not recovered from the effects of a critical operation.

Myron Babler was in the city Saturday and expects to go to Alaska soon in the interest of the cannery combine. He accompanied Gus Fisher and family to Logan, where he will visit at home for a few days.

W. G. Beattie, of this city, a member of the 1901 graduating class at the state university, Eugene, was one of the high six selected at the senior oratorical try-out to contest for the Failing and Beekman prizes.

William Sprague was in from Redland Friday to meet his brother, F. W. Sprague and family, who had just arrived from California. The latter has been employed in a coal mine for the past year or more.

W. F. Young, who has been teaching the Howell school in Marion county for the past two years, has purchased a place near Twilight hall, Mount Pleasant. He and Mrs. Young will occupy this place as their home.

Hon. Jacob E. Marks, son of the founder of Mark's Prairie, has left for Eastern Oregon. He will look around Bendleton and Baker City some time, but intends to locate in Canyon City for the practice of law.—Aurora Borealis.

William Wright and family removed from the Charman house on the bluff this week to Willamette Falls, where they are occupying the Dehon house. It is understood that C. W. Pope will move into the vacated house on the bluff.

Theodore Medka, who recently arrived from Illinois, accompanied by his stepdaughter, Miss Riadon to join Mrs. Medka, who had preceded him a few weeks, has secured his old place in the ner was working, had engaged several attorneys at their own expense. Mr. Brownell then returned Mr. Bruner the retaining fee and withdrew from the case.

When you visit Portland don't fail to get your meals at the Royal Restaurant, First and Madison. They serve an excellent meal at a moderate price; a good square meal, 15c.

The Weekly Oregonian gives all the national news and the Courier-Herald gives all local and county news. Both one year for Two Dollars.

New Spring Goods arriving at the Fair Store daily.

Laces from 1c per yard upward.

The only place for Bargains.

THE FAIR

Opposite Postoffice.

RAMBLER BICYCLES

Are known for simplicity of construction, strength, durability and easy running qualities.

Heavy Roadster	$35	Racer	$50
Light Roadster	$40	Chainless	$60
Cushion Frame		$50

Mitchell 1901 wheels fitted with Dunlop detachable tires, $30.

Ideal 1901 model $25.

Second-hand wheels at any old price.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers