a most successful term of eight months.

An excelient program was presented in patrons and friends of the school. The directors, E. J. Russel, chairman of the board; P. H. Jarish, G. C. Garfield, and County Superintendent Zinser, of Oregon City, were present, and spoke in the highest terms of the excellent condition of our school. The pupils of Miss Burnette, who is going to England th's summer, where she intends to remain indefinitely, presented her with a beautitors, teachers and pupils-not a word of dissatisfaction from any side. Superintendent Zinser said that the Oswego school has the best singing of any school in the state, and that singing and discipline are so closely related that it is difficult to separate them. The following teachers were elected for the next year:

Professor H. T. Evans, principal; Miss Georgina Bell and Miss Pearl Nida, primary ; and Miss Guttridge to fill the vacancy in the intermediate grades caused by Miss Barnett's resignation. On Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, Mr. J. Bodefeld died of heart failure at St.
