The run of Chinook salmon has been unusually good so far this season, but the high water is interfering with operations at the present time. The catch has been better down the Willamette, than in the near vicinity of the falls. The salmon have brought good prices this season, and the selling price in Portland is now seven cents per pound. The opinion is expressed that there may be another run of salmon before the early spring and summer season closes.

There will be no union memorial services in any of the churches next Sunday, the ministers having reached that agreement last year, as there is no building large enough to accommodate all the people, who would attend such a service. The usual program will be followed, except that Meade Post and the Relief Corps will have special Memorial services at the Congregational church, and the Episcopal church will have services commemorative of its 50th anniversary.

There will be a great baseball game on the Willamette Falls field next Sunday afternoon between the local Company A team and the Stephens addition team of Portland. This is the first of a series of four games to be played successively on the Willamette field as follows: June 2nd, Company A vs Fontellas; June 9th, Stephens Addition vs Company A; June 16th, Vancouver vs Company A. It is the intention to fence this field and make it a permanent ball ground. The game between Oregon City and Stephens Addition was called off last Sunday in Portland on account of the heavy rainfall. It will be a big game next Sunday.

Rev. D. W. Minton, a pioneer of 1854, died last Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah H. Moditt, near Damascus. The deceased was born in Athens county, Ohio, in 1816, and in 1850 was an ordained minister of the gospel. He married Mrs. Sallie Smith in 1840, and emigrated to Oregon in 1850, successively living in Lane, Benton and Wasco counties. Mrs. Minton died in 1873. Mr. Minton then went to Kansas and located a homestead, remaining until 1896, when he returned to Oregon and took up his residence with his daughter, Mrs. Moditt at Damascus. He left seven children, 24 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Tuesday morning at 3:30 Muir Bros. grocery store on upper Seventh street was discovered to be on fire, the flames breaking through the front windows. In a very brief period the stock of groceries was almost entirely consumed, and the building was wrecked. By extraordinary promptness the firemen who arrived promptly, saved F. H. Cross's harness shop, although the stock was slightly damaged by being removed into the street. Muir Bros. loss at the lowest estimate is $2500 partially covered by insurance. A. J. Beck is the owner of the barrel building and the one adjoining. His loss is something near $800 and no insurance. It has not yet been definitely determined whether Muir Bros. will reopen a grocery store or not.

A delegation from Meade Post and Relief Corps visited the Barclay and Eastham schools, where very appropriate memorial and patriotic exercises were held. At the Barclay school addresses were made by Commander Patrick Colburn and L. W. Ingram, and the response by City Superintendent H. D. Wilcox. At the Eastham school the delegation was especially well received, Comrade Hayford being added to the other two speakers. Principal W. P. Mathews responded, and Miss _____ recited an appropriate poem. On Tuesday forenoon patriotic exercises will be held at the Willamette Falls school, and in the afternoon at the West Oregon City school. On Wednesday forenoon similar exercises will be held at St. John's school, and in the afternoon at the Parkplace school.
