

NORTHWEST IMPLEMENT CO.

208 Front Street Portland, Oregon

Hodges' Queen, Prince and King Binders

Strongest built. Easiest operated. Only Binders having three packers. Greater binding capacity by 100 per cent than any machine. Roller bearings throughout.

Hodges' New Mowers

With roller bearings. Fully up-to-date. Combining strength, power, speed and lightness of draft.

Hodges' Lassie Self Dump Rake

With relief spring, bicycle wheel, steel axles and center dump.

See our goods and be convinced

WAGONS, BUGGIES, PLOWS, HARROWS, ETC.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Rev. J. W. Exon and wife attended the Sunday-school convention at Salem last week, and drove with Mr. and Mrs. Van Dorn, and visited with them for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Exon while here also were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hadley and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Martin.—Dayton Herald.

E. W. Hutchins, of Arthur's Prairie, brought his mother, Mrs. E. A. Hutchins, and sister, Mrs. Mary Hathaway to town Monday morning, the two latter taking the morning train for Springfield, Mo. Mrs. Hathaway has been visiting her mother, who now accompanies her mother home for a return visit.

John Stormer and wife, of Springwater, T. R. A. Sellwood and wife, and William Thomas, of Molalla, are attending the state grange at Albany this week. Mrs. Mary Howard, of Mulino, state secretary, and J. S. Gasto, deputy state organizer, also are in attendance. Other members of the order are attending the state grange from this county.

J. A. Talbert, superintendent of the Umpqua hatchery, left his home at Clackamas Station Monday to begin the season's work. He was accompanied by H. A. Webster, Milo Thomson and G. H. Hill. Some improvements will be made to this hatchery, which is located 24 miles East of Roseburg on the North Umpqua river. An eyeing station will be located 25 miles up the river from the hatchery to secure the salmon that went up stream before the water was low enough to put in racks.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Bargains where the gains are on the customers' side at Red Front.

Lost—Bright silver-handled umbrella. Finder please leave at Courier-Herald office.

We treat all customers alike. One price to all and money saved at Red Front Store.

W. C. Wilson, the commission merchant, has reopened the LaStell restaurant on Main street.

The Parkplace Sunday-school will have an entertainment and ice cream festival this Friday evening.

When you put your foot into a Wear Resister shoe your shoe troubles are ended. Ask for them at Red Front Store.

Rev. J. H. Beaven, of Oregon City, was heard with pleasure at the Portland First church Sunday morning—Pacific Baptist.

O. W. Eastham is having a neat six-room cottage built on his property opposite the Barclay school building, which will be for rent.

In the item last week about William Beers, the pioneer native son, a misprint made it read that he was born in 1852, when it should have been 1842.

The Oregon City Courier-Herald finished its 18th volume last week. The Courier-Herald is a neat paper, both well edited and well patronized.—Medical Enquirer.

E. P. Dodge, recently of Liberal, is building a shingle mill, four and a half miles up the Abernethy from Oregon City on the Thayer place. The mill will have a capacity of 20,000 shingles daily.

Ralph Parker, of Gladstone, had a bicycle collision on Main street the other day, and suffered some severe bruises. His collar bone was cracked, but he is now fairly along on the road to recovery.

Miss Marguerite Wall, formerly of this city, died at Pacific Grove, Calif., the first of the week. She was prominent in church work and taught kindergarten classes. Her father, Rev. Henry Wall, was for a long time librarian of the free reading room on lower Main street.

Boys' Washable Suits

Look through our immense gathering of choice washables, if you have a boy. The newest brown, blue and red stripes are shown with a fair sprinkling of good white duck suits in sailor and Russian blouse styles. Sizes 3 to 10 years.

50c to $3.50

Boys' straw hats, 50c to $3
Boys' "Ironclad" hose, 25c

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison, cor. entrance

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. Schubert, of Elwood, was in Oregon City Monday.

William Vaughan, of Molalla, was in the city Monday.

P. Selling, of Portland, visited relatives here Monday.

Thomas Parrish, of Highland, was in Oregon City Monday.

William Shaver, of Molalla, was a visitor in Oregon City Friday.

Miss Eva Todd, of Elliott Prairie, has been visiting Mrs. J. C. Zinser.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Breithaupt, of Damascus, were in the city Saturday.

Miss Ella Lavenson, of Portland, visited Miss Sybil Lippitt last Sunday.

Mrs. G. A. Rockwood, of Willaburg, visited Mrs. H. C. Stevens over Sunday.

Miss Maul Butler went to Salem Monday to visit her father, Rev. T. W. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strickler, of Portland, were visiting Mrs. J. G. Pillsbury, Sunday.

Livy Stipp returned Monday from a couple of days sojourn in the vicinity of Carrinsville.

Mrs. Walter Johnson and Miss Johnson, of Portland, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moffatt this week.

J. C. Tracy, a prominent citizen of Garfield precinct, was in the city several days during the past week.

Ex-County Judge D. J. Switzer, of St. Helens, was in town Monday looking after his property interests in Clackamas county.

W. M. Moore, of Drain, who had attended the grand lodge of Odd Fellows at Baker City, visited relatives here for a few hours Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Smith, who has lived with her daughter, Mrs. B. G. Cooper for the past year, left last week to visit another daughter at Seattle.

Homer Martin, of Mount Pleasant, who has completed his second year course at Stanford university, is expected home this week.

Michael Bohman and Joe Briggs, of New Era, were in town Monday. Mr. Bohman is now building a large addition to the renn in barn.

Noah Heiple, a Carrinsville sawmill proprietor, was in the several days, accompanied by his wife, who has been receiving medical treatment.

S. D. Hutchinson, of Highland, who has been fishing down the Columbia, returned home Monday. He reports a very short run of salmon there.

J. A. Spangler, of Corvallis, who was visiting his daughter, Mrs. L. L. Porter, on his return trip from Baker City, left Monday morning for his home.

Charles Humphrey, who has been manager of the Pacific Postal Telegraph office for the past three years, was promoted to a position in the Portland office. He is succeeded here by a capable operator from Astoria. Mr. Humphrey was very clever and accommodating to the public, and was prominent in social and in the Masonic lodge circles.

Robert Ginther, the well known school teacher of Shubel, and George Strickland, another prominent school teacher of Macksburg, were in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mark expect to leave next for a visit to their old home in Pennsylvania. It is the intention to remain with Mr. Mark's parents for several weeks.

William Jack, the Silverton undertaker, visited his mother, and brother, Deputy Sheriff J. E. Jack and Barton Jack, over Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Jack.

T. L. Turner, of Stafford, was in the city Monday, and expressed the hopeful outlook, that Clackamas county farmers would not be compelled to import any breadstuffs this year.

C. E. Bowman, of Mulino, was in town Monday. He is now engaged in building a large barn for Mrs. Laura Klinger, near Macksburg, and also has a contract to build one for L. Armstrong at Barlow.

Fred Meindl left for San Francisco Monday morning, and will accept a traveling position in California during the summer months. He closed the school year's work at New Era a couple of weeks ago.

H. W. Gard, of Clarkes, was in town Monday, and reported that the news had been received of the accidental burning of Thomas L. Sager's dwelling, which had occurred sometime during the previous night.

Councilman E. W. Scott and sister, Mrs. Shepherd, received a telegram Saturday morning, giving the news of the death of a sister. They left on the Northern Pacific for their destination on the same evening.

Mrs. T. B. Smith, of Portland, a pioneer resident of Oregon City, and a former communicant of St. Paul's Episcopal church, attended the semi-centennial exercises, and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sawtell, of Molalla, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. A. C. Lewis and child, of Klamath county, were in the city Monday on their way to Portland. Mrs. Lewis arrived a couple of weeks ago to visit her parents.

El Wright, commercial editor of the Oregonian, accompanied by his family, and John W. Rowland, of the surveyor-general's office, Mrs. Rowland and Miss Beebe Proebstel, of Portland, formed a party that spent Sunday in the vicinity of Willamette Falls.

Frank Bruner and Mrs. E. M. Bruner, father and wife of D. L. Bruner, who killed Tom Reilly, came through here Wednesday evening from Pineville. Mr. Bruner went to Liberal, near Oregon City, and Mrs. Bruner to Dufur.—Antelope Republican.

Hon. John H. Daly, of Macksburg, was in the city Friday, having returned from Baker City where he had been visiting his sister for a few days. Mr. Daly spent his boyhood days at that place, and found many changes had taken place during his absence.

At the meeting of Falls City Lodge, A. O. U. W., held Saturday night, H. Hanlin, William McGetchie and Sam Roake were elected delegates to attend the grand lodge, which convenes in Portland July 16th.

At the meeting of McLoughlin Club, held Monday night, L. Stipp, E. G. Caulfield, Henry Meldrum and Robert A. Miller were elected delegates to attend the annual session of the grand caucus, which will convene at Portland in June.

For a first class buggy that will stand up on the Oregon road, get a Mitchell, of Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., which is guaranteed in every way. The celebrated Mitchell wagons are all right, and all who use them are perfectly satisfied. Try one.

The Spaulding Lumber Company, of Oregon City, set their log drive from Natron Monday. Much of the drive is composed of balm for wood pulp, while there is a considerable quantity of white fir for box lumber. Logs will be added to the drive as they proceed down the river. The drive will consist of about 10,000,000 feet.—Eugene Guard.

Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, who is now in the East gathering material for her proposed new book on Lewis and Clark, wrote an interesting letter from Washington, D. C., under date of May 17th, printed in last Sunday's Oregonian. It gave some interesting accounts of the researches of Mrs. Dye in her travels and visits to descendants of the Lewis Clark families.

Elijah Shaw Fish, the pioneer resident of Needy, who died and was buried last week, was born in New York state, Nov. 15, 1816, moved to Michigan in 1827, and crossed the plains to Oregon locating at Needy in 1864. He was married to Mrs. Sarah Jane Debow in 1845, who died in 1883. The deceased left three children, A. W. Fish, of Waitsburg, Wash.; Frank Fish and Mrs. Nellie Garrett, of Needy.

The 29th annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association will be held in the exposition building at Portland, Friday, June 14th. All persons coming to or born in the original Territory of Oregon prior to February 14th, 1859, without regard to where they now live, are eligible to membership. Upon arrival in the city, pioneers should at once go to pioneer headquarters at the tabernacle building, corner 12th and Morrison streets, and secure their badges from George H. Himes, secretary. A luncheon of sandwiches and coffee will be served on Pioneer day at the tabernacle by the Native Sons and Daughters. John W. Minto will be grand marshal of the procession. The chaplain will be C. O. Hosford, 1845, of Portland; the annual address by Judge Raleigh Stott, 1852, of Portland; occasional address, Charles V. Galloway, a Native Son, of McMinnville. A banquet will be served in the evening by the Women's Auxiliary. Reduced rates have been secured on the railroads for those who desire to attend the gatherings of the Pioneers, Indian War Veterans and Native Sons.

The June Magazine Number of the Outlook, which is its Annual Recreation Number, contains an article of extreme value by Philip W. Ayres, on "The Forster and His Work." Mr. Ayres tells of the life of the forest, its importance to mankind, and of the tracts of forest land that already have been reserved, and it is hoped will be reserved, by the government. The article is illustrated by photographs of trees, woodland and forests of the West and South. $3 a year. The Outlook Company, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York.)

New Spring Goods arriving at the Fair Store daily.

Laces from 1c per yard upward.

The only place for Bargains.

THE FAIR

Opposite Postoffice.

RAMBLER BICYCLES

Are known for simplicity of construction, strength, durability and easy running qualities.

Heavy Roadster	$35	Racer	$50
Light Roadster	$40	Chainless	$60
Cushion Frame	$50

Mitchell 1901 wheels fitted with Dunlop detachable tires, $30.

Ideal 1901 model $25.

Second-hand wheels at any old price.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers