

A GREAT SALE

Now for dress goods, including Silks. If our prices for dress goods were not lower than elsewhere, our sales would not be so large. If you think this over you will see the force of it, and will feel inclined to come here for your dress goods and silks.

Once a customer always a customer, for it is value such as we offer that hold our friends and constantly increase their ranks.

FRENCH AND AMERICAN VENETIANS

In all the new colorings, 48, 52 and 54-inch, at 75c, 97c, $1.00, $1.47 and $1.73 a yard. Sponged and finished. Extraordinary values.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. S. C. Phelps, of Canby, was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Miss Mary Harris is now living at Williston, North Dakota.

Eugene Cumins and wife, of Highland, were in town Tuesday.

J. D. Wilkerson, of Canby precinct, was in Oregon City Thursday.

H. M. Haraden left Monday morning for a short trip to Brownsville.

Emil Guenther and family, of Slubel, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Charles Hansen, of Wilsonville, was a visitor in Oregon City Thursday.

T. R. Sheridan, a banker of Roseburg, visited Oregon City Monday.

John M. Stewart, a prominent Molalla farmer, was in Oregon City Monday.

Fred Kamrath and Frank Steiner, of Beaver Creek, were in town Tuesday.

Postmaster R. M. Cooper and J. J. Gayer, of Carus, were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. H. B. Holland, of Salem, was visiting Mrs. Charles Athey, during the week.

G. E. Young and G. E. Pailey, of Pleasant Hill, were visitors in the city Friday.

John Wing and daughter, Miss Gladys, of Nedy, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Misses Lon Dowty and Mamie Heiple, of Currinsville, have been visiting Miss Parker.

F. M. Mathews, wife and daughter, of Macksburg, were visitors in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Green, who has been ill for the past six weeks, is very much improved.

Miss May McBride was up from Deer Island the first of the week, visiting the Misses Pratt.

Mrs. William Vaughan and Mrs. Harvey Engle, of Molalla, were visitors in town Saturday.

J. M. Kitching, of Currinsville, was a visitor in the city Saturday, and reports crop prospects good.

S. A. D. Gurley, a prominent attorney of Arlington, was visiting relatives at Canby this week.

Miss Aimee Bollack went to Eugene Saturday to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith.

Charles Conright and E. L. Dodge and their families, of Canby precinct, were in town Tuesday.

James Brock, who owns a large farm on Fudding River in Nedy precinct, was in the city Saturday.

Miss Jennie Galbraith has returned from Oregon City to her home in Albany.—Albany Democrat.

Misses Mae and Neoma Mathews, of Oregon City, are residing at the Women's Union, in Portland.

Chris Germansen, of Albany, was a visitor in town Monday, paying up his taxes on Milwaukee property.

Miss Hattie Monroe, a teacher in the Portland schools, was visiting friends in Oregon City during the week.

Miss Jennie Galbraith has returned to her home at Albany, after a residence of several months' duration here.

Mrs. Willis Kramer, of Myrtle Creek, who was visiting relatives here and at Portland, left for her home Monday.

Charles Shields, who has been in a logging camp near Ilwaco for a couple of months, returned home last Monday.

Fred Yohann, of Macksburg, was in Oregon City Friday with his mother, who will visit with her daughter at Sellwood.

Mrs. J. J. Mulvy, of Corvallis, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Cole and other relatives, returned home Tuesday.

A. K. Sprague left a few days ago for Santa Cruz, Calif., having been called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Sprague.

J. B. Straight and Headley Roake left Wednesday for Bremington, Wash., where they will enlist in the service of the United States navy.

Hon. J. L. Kruse, of Wilsonville, was in Oregon City Saturday, and reported that present conditions were favorable for both grain and fruit.

Samuel Engle, R. G. Moore, O. D. Eby, Seiver Ramsby and Clarence Engle were among the visitors from Molalla, in the city Saturday.

Mrs. M. Ohinn, of Morris county, Kansas, arrived Saturday, and will spend the summer with her son, F. O. Chinn, of New Era precinct.

Mrs. John McGetchie and two children, Hilda and Charles, are visiting the former's brother, Charles Moore and family at Trout Lake, Wash.

P. Bowen, of Currinsville, was in the city Saturday, accompanied by Miss Josie Stone, who was on her way to Portland, to visit for a couple of weeks.

George B. Hartmus, of Portland, inspector-general of the G. A. R., of Oregon, was in the city Friday and Saturday, and officially visited Meade Post.

Dr. J. W. Thomas, of Molalla, is in the city attending the state grange, while here being the guest of his aunt, Mr. E. A. Parker.—Albany Democrat.

J. M. Hayden, formerly of Viola, passed through from Portland Friday, on his way to Roseburg, where he expects to remain for a couple of months.

Mrs. Maggie Barker, well known in Oregon City, left Albany a few days ago, to attend the supreme lodge of the Degree of Honor, which will convene at Buffalo.

Miss Frances Myers, teacher in the primary department of the Eastham school, left for her home at Forest Grove Monday morning, to spend the summer vacation.

Mrs. L. O. Moore, who was very ill for several weeks, has gone to Brownsville to visit relatives, and will sojourn at S-da Springs for a time for the benefit of her health.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

P. M. Gaaves, who was in from Marquam Monday, reported that Jack Dodge's new shingle mill was cutting 25,000 daily, and running on a good body of timber, situated on the old Samson place.

Mrs. Noah Heiple, of Currinsville, who recently underwent a surgical operation at the home of Mrs. Charles J. Parker, is progressing favorably. Dr. Carl and a Portland physician performed the operation.

J. W. Smith, of Macksburg, was in the city Tuesday, and reported that great preparations were being made for the Mac-a-bees picnic to be held at that place on May 11th. Senator Brownell is to be the orator of the day.

A. W. Cheney, accompanied by his wife and child, left Monday for Buffalo, N. Y., he having been appointed a delegate from State Press Association to the annual meeting of the National Editorial Association at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wishart and child, of Baker City, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wishart. Mr. Wishart now holds a lucrative position in a Baker City drug store. They arrive Sunday, and will remain here for another week.

City Treasurer Linn Jones, who has been head pharmacist in Huntley's drug store for several years past, left Monday for North Yakima, where he will spend the summer. John R. Humphreys will look after the treasurer's office, during the absence of Mr. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mark left Tuesday for a short visit to their old home in Pennsylvania. They will go by way of Buffalo, N. Y., to visit the Pan American exposition. Mr. Mark expects to return after a visit of a month, but Mrs. Mark expects to remain a few weeks longer.

Miss Helen Gleason, who is teaching the Meadowbrook school, arrived home Thursday to attend the High school graduating exercises, her sister being one of the graduates. Miss Gleason has just completed a three months term of school, and gave such excellent satisfaction that she was engaged for another term.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Office to rent in the Barclay building. Apply to Miss A. C. A. Barclay.

The Maple Lane Grange will meet in Nash's hall on upper Seventh street at 10 a. m., on Saturday, June 15th.

Farmers that make good butter should have the name and brand on their butter paper; 500 sheets printed for $1.50, 1000 for $2.25, at Courier-Herald office.

The West Oregon City mission Sunday-school will hold an ice cream social and give a short entertainment program one week from next Wednesday evening.

William A. Hodges, of Willamette Falls, was married to Miss Jessie M. Fuller on June 4th, the ceremony taking place at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiating.

A meeting of persons interested in the Stafford cemetery will be held at that place Saturday. An effort will be made to improve the burying ground. Gordon E. Hayes is taking the initiative in the move.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company have built a solid culvert to control the water flowing under the track in the Singer gulch. It was built out of stone excavated at the rocky point opposite the old electric station.

When Frank Trembath was fishing in the Willamette the other day, he made an extraordinary good haul of fish, the catch including several varieties. Among them was a chub weighing 614 pounds, the largest reported to have ever been caught in the Willamette here.

The West Oregon City school closes this week, the graduating class consisting of Lee Caulfield, Bessie McMillan and Earl Smith, they having successfully passed the eighth grade county examination. The exercises take place Saturday evening, when a comedy will be presented, participated in by the teachers and others. The title of the comedy is "Single Life," which has some attractive features. It will be worth seeing.

Sol Clark is now serving out a 10 day sentence in the city jail on account of trespass and disorderly conduct. He got roaring full Monday afternoon, proceeded down town and entered the rooms of a woman, who was away from home at work in the woolen mills. After vomiting all over the carpet he laid down on the bed and snored the snore of the peaceful. Late in the evening, the sleeper was discovered and was taken in custody by Officer Shaw, and subsequently Recorder Curry administered the periodic salutory fine.

W. H. Howell and Mrs. H. C. Stevens have purchased the 50 feet front block on Main street from C. H. Dye, trustee, the consideration being $5,000. It is the announced intention of the owners to begin excavating this week preparatory to the erection of two story wooden business block, 50x70. Preparations, also are being made to erect a large wooden building on Mrs. Stratton's Main street property, now occupied by a part of the livery stable. Under the arrangement the remodelled barn will front on Seventh street, and the new structure will necessitate the removal of Johnson's barber shop to another location.

Mrs. J. W. Kelly saved the 8-year old son of Mr. Hart from drowning, after he had sunk the second time. The boy was playing on a raft over the deep water in the Abernethy at the rear of the Kelly dwelling, and accidentally slipped into the water. Mrs. Kelly's little son, who was playing on the bank of the stream, notified his mother, who hurried to the scene of the accident. As she approached, young Hart had risen the second time and was holding on to some brush whose ends were bending over into the water, and shouted, "Hurry up, Mrs. Kelly, I can't hold on much longer." She reached out a scantling, and the boy grabbed hold, and was pulled to the shore.

Mrs. C. E. Spence, of Carus, sustained some severe bruises by being thrown from a runaway buggy on Main street Tuesday forenoon. They had just drove into town and stopped in front of Fairclough's commission house, Mr. Spence going inside, while Mrs. Spence remained in the buggy holding the horse. It began to rain, and Mrs. Spence started to raise the umbrella, when the horse became frightened and ran away. She was thrown out of the vehicle, and the horse ran into Miln's picket fence, and did further damage by running against the Red Front store, breaking through the weather boarding, and continuing down the street, justly becoming detached from the broken vehicle, and was caught before further damage resulted. The buggy was considerably damaged and the horse received a few bruises.

Cyrus Crumbley, superintendent of the upper Clackamas hatchery, arrived in town late Friday night, and announced that he now had everything in readiness for taking salmon eggs. The racks were all placed in position, and the old flume had been thoroughly overhauled and rebuilt in places. A fire broke out in the mess house on Thursday, when the men were about one-quarter of a mile away at work. All the contents, including food supplies, were destroyed. A stove, however, was saved from the wreck. The men lived on potatoes straight for a day or two, until they reached the settlements where food supplies were stored. Superintendent Crumbley stated that there was a good run of salmon, and a good season's catch is anticipated. John Straight, W. W. Smith, James Hatton and Al Richardson are assisting in the work at the upper hatchery.

The annual session of the Canby campmeeting of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at Canby beginning June 28 and closing July 15. Special conveniences will be provided for campers. Good spring water, nice clean straw and pasture for horses will be furnished free. A boarding hall will be found on the grounds for those who may desire to board. The evangelistic services will be under the direction of Dr. G. W. Gue, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, of Portland.

Boys' Washable Suits

Look through our immense gathering of choice washables, if you have a boy. The newest brown, blue and red stripes are shown with a fair sprinkling of good white duck suits in sailor and Russian blouse styles. Sizes 3 to 10 years.

50c to $3.50

Boys' straw hats, 50c to $3

Boys' "Ironclad" hose, 25c

A. B. Steinbach & Co.
POPULAR ONE PRICE HATTERS & CLOTHIERS

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison, cor. entrance

RAMBLER BICYCLES

Are known for simplicity of construction, strength, durability and easy running qualities.

Heavy Roadster	$35	Racer	$50
Light Roadster	$40	Chainless	$60
Cushion Frame		$50

Mitchell 1901 wheels fitted with Dunlop detachable tires, $30.

Ideal 1901 model $25.

Second-hand wheels at any old price.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers