

A GREAT SALE

Now for dress goods, including Silks. If our prices for dress goods were not lower than elsewhere, our sales would not be so large. If you think this over you will see the force of it, and will feel inclined to come here for your dress goods and silks.

Once a customer always a customer, for it is value such as we offer that hold our friends and constantly increase their ranks.

FRENCH AND AMERICAN VENETIANS

In all the new colorings, 48, 52 and 54-inch, at 75c, 97c, $1.00, $1.47 and $1.73 a yard. Sponged and finished. Extraordinary values.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Bates Hawley, of Logan, was in town Monday.

Frank Hutchinson, of Stone, was in town Saturday.

M. Weston, of Springwater, was in town Tuesday.

Alfred Smith, of Macksburg, was in the city Monday.

George Bowditch, of Springwater, was in town Monday.

T. L. Dibble, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Monday.

F. W. Case, of Liberal, was a visitor in Oregon City Friday.

Otis Townsend, a Dallas attorney, was in the city Saturday.

John Gosser, of Clackamas precinct, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Hugh Currin, of Currinsville, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Road Supervisor A. W. Cooke, of Damascus, was in the city Friday.

S. E. Gregory, the Carus teasel grower, was in the city Monday.

Pierce Miller and family, of Molalla, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Miss Gertrude Shaner, of McKee, has been visiting Mrs. Fish at Needy.

K. McFarland, of the Vigor Powder Company, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. S. E. Paquet, of Portland, was visiting friends in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. G. W. Brown went to Corvallis Monday to visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Henry Hedges, of Barlow, has been visiting relatives at Hood River.

Miss Laura Koehner, of Marks's Prairie, is visiting relatives in the city.

Miss Pearl Dick and Miss Adams, of Portland, visited the Misses Chase Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Montgomery and two children are visiting relatives at Jefferson this week.

John Weismann, of Macksburg, was a visitor in the city for a couple of days during the past week.

R. Fanton, who is making a success of sawing cord wood by machinery near Canby, was in town Saturday.

H. Choate, of Elliott Prairie, was in town Saturday, and reported that grain, hops and fruit, all looked well.

George Strickland, of Macksburg, was in the city Saturday, and attended the teachers meeting at Willsburg.

Professor P. L. Coleman, who is again located at his old home at Macksburg, was in the city during the week.

Frank Miller, the grower of large vegetables at Shubel, says that more warm sunshine is needed for growing crops.

John Shannon, of Beaver Creek, was in Portland Friday, purchasing extras for his large steam thrasher. He also Cassius U. Barlow, of Barlow, recently returned from the California oil regions, and reports matters booming.

Olifford J. Owen, editor and manager of the Portland Evening Telegram, was a caller at this office Friday afternoon.

Miss Addie L. Clark, principal of the Barclay school, is spending her summer vacation at the old home in Polk county.

Miss Florence Patty, one of the teachers in the West Oregon City school, went to Salem Sunday to visit relatives for a few days.

Road Supervisor W. H. Engle, of Molalla, was in town Tuesday, and stated that he would soon begin some work on the Everhart hill.

Richard Scott, Jr., of Benton county, who was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scott, of Milwaukie, returned home Friday.

Shirley Buck, principal of the Canemah school, is taking a course of studies in a Portland business college, during the summer vacation.

Mrs. M. C. Hayward, of Carus, who has been spending several days visiting Mrs. Griswold, returned home Tuesday.

O. E. Moulton, of the Northern Pacific Railroad land department at Tacoma, was in the city Monday on business before the land office.

Mrs. Mary Kaylor and daughter, Miss Linnie, were in from Molalla Tuesday, to meet Norman Kaylor, who arrived from Sumpter for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of Garfield, were in the city Tuesday. He is a member of the firm of Miller Brothers, who carry on a sawmill business.

M. Bussard, who originated the feed yard idea here, now conducts a similar establishment in Albany in connection with handling agricultural implements.

G. L. Gray, who removed from this place to Shedd, Linn county, has located in McMinnville with his family. He has purchased a warehouse there.

A. V. Davis, of Marquam, went to Portland Tuesday to visit his niece, Miss Pearl Russell, who recently underwent a surgical operation at a Portland hospital.

C. L. Stadinger, who lives on Charles Holman's farm at Meadowbrook, was in town Saturday. He reported that the present conditions were favorable for good crop yields.

H. J. Rastall, of Molalla, was in town Saturday, to meet his daughter, Miss Maud, who had just arrived from Oakland, Calif., where she was living for several months past.

E. McIntyre, of Highland, was in the city Tuesday. He reported that he had recently made a trip over a part of the county, and found that the grain needed sunshine badly.

Homer Glover, of Eagle Creek, who recently returned from Corvallis, where he attended the state agricultural college, was in town Tuesday, accompanied by his brother and mother, Mrs. L. Glover.

Mrs. Ellen Richards, of Black Hills, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. E. Metcalf, visited her brother-in-law, G. H. Young last Sunday, and left on the night train for a visit to their mother, Mrs. Kiser, at Medford.

Chester Roake arrived from Corvallis Monday, having been a student at the state agricultural college since last September. After a short visit here with relatives, he left for the home of his parents at Pacific Grove, Calif.

Arthur Pardom, who has finished his second period of enlistment in the army in the Philippines, has returned to his home in this city. He was a member of Company I, during the first enlistment—Albany Herald.

Miss Huldah Holden went to Corvallis Saturday to attend the commencement exercises of the state agricultural college. Her sister, Miss Blanche, completes her course and receives a graduation diploma this week.

Deacon D. C. Latourette and John W. Loder are attending the commencement exercises at McMinnville college this week. Mr. Loder made the annual address before the alumni association, in the presence of a large audience, and was greeted with applause.

Hon. C. B. Moores, of the United States land office at Oregon City, with his wife, arrived here Tuesday, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gilkey. Mr. Moores was the orator at the meeting of the Yamhill County Pioneer Association in Dayton Wednesday.—Dayton Herald.

Frank Loomis, of Eugene, who has been attending the agricultural college at Corvallis for the past year, arrived Monday evening, and will accept a clerical position in the Willamette paper mills. He is the son of Dr. O. E. Loomis, special government agent of the land department.

Ex-County Superintendent H. G. Starkweather has returned to his old home at Risley's, accompanied by his family. For the past two years he has been the successful principal of the public schools at LaGrande. Mr. Starkweather and family expect now to remain in Clackamas county. He was one of Clackamas county's prominent educators.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Offices to rent in the Barclay building. Apply to Miss A. C. A. Barclay.

Hankins' wood saw is now running on full time, although it is still early in the season.

The local tent of Maccabees are moving actively in plans for a celebration at Wright's Springs on the Fourth of July.

Strayed—A black sow, with pig, from the farm of Fred Gosser, in Clackamas precinct. Weight, 125 pounds. Write to Fred Gosser, Clackamas.

Miss Constance Pandler and Inge-man Hoode, both of Portland, were married at the Lutheran Evangelical church, Jefferson street, Rev. E. Meyer officiating.

Mrs. Adam Ehret, aged 68, died at Canby Monday, and the funeral services were held Wednesday. She left nine grown children—seven sons and two daughters.

Frank Walsh, of Milwaukie, who was a volunteer in the Second Oregon in answer to the second call, has been granted an increase of pension to $17. He was taken ill at the presidio, and was unable to reach the Philippines.

Zion's Evangelical Lutheran church assemblies every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., for English services; Sunday-school at 9:30. Zion's guild meets on the afternoon of the last Friday of each month. Friends are invited.

Miss Eva Walker and Wallace Live-say were married in the Methodist church in Woodburn on May 29th. They have taken up their residence at Live-say's mill, near Champos. The groom was formerly a resident of this county.

The Willamette Baptist Association will be held at Salem, June 24-26, the first session being held on Monday evening. Delegates will be carried from Portland and return for $1.75 by the steamers Pomona and Altona.

H. M. Templeton, superintendent of the carding department in the Oregon City woolen mills, is having plans prepared for an elegant residence to cost from $1500 to $2,000. He will build on the two lots that he recently purchased from Judge Ryan, situated on upper Fifth street.

Miss Augusta Johnson, who died last Thursday at the home of her parents, Frank Johnson and wife, was buried Friday. Services were held both at the home and the Lutheran Evangelical church, conducted by Rev. E. Meyer, assisted by Rev. Skans, of Portland. The deceased was aged about 40.

The Aurora Borealis says that the Memorial exercises at Rock Creek were well attended. Shirley Buck presided. Colonel Robert A. Miller made an excellent speech, and the Glad Tidings choir gave some good music. As the graveyard had been previously cleaned, the decorations proved very effective.

The West Oregon City school board has elected the following teachers: Principal, T. J. Gary; grade teachers, Misses Jessie Humphreys, Bessie Grant and Florence Patty. Teacher of the Bolton annex, Mrs. G. M. Strange. All the above are old teachers, except Miss Humphreys. Professor Gary already served as principal for four years.

Bishop and Mrs. H. L. Barkley are now in Portland on their way home from the East. The Bishop is in the hospital suffering from a threatened attack of typhoid fever. It is thought, however, that he will be around again in a few days. Mrs. Barkley came up from Portland yesterday morning and returned to his bedside in the evening.—Woodburn Independent.

The following items concerning Clackamas county people are from the Woodburn Independent: The Gervais Stars and Canby nines played ball at Gervais Sunday, but owing to the regular battery of the home team being absent the Canby boys won out by a score of 9 to 3. James Phegley, of Canby, has been here this week assisting his son-in-law, J. W. Cook, to paint the interior of the latter's house, occupied by S. M. Wilcox. Mrs. Roscoe Mack and Mrs. Morley Mack, of Canby, visited their sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Mosher yesterday.

Wiley May, of Carus, who was in town Saturday, reported that the Bartlett pears are a failure at his place this season. Apples, however, give promise of a fair yield. About two-thirds of the petite pears have fallen from the trees, but this will likely prove an advantage, as the fruit will grow much larger.

While the petites are a pretty sure annual producer, at occasional periods nature does its trimming work by ridding the tree of its surplus fruit. It is evident that the petite pears will be of unusual good quality this season.

William Whittington, who recently went from Springwater to Southern Oregon for the benefit of his health, died at Talent, Jackson county, Friday. He was buried Saturday. The deceased was about 65 years old. He left a wife and several children. The widow is the mother of the Young brothers in this city. Mr. Whittington carried on the blacksmithing business at Springwater for the past two or three years, but for several months was seriously ill. He was held in high esteem among his acquaintances.

A farewell reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Latourette by the Baptists around the Bay at the Tenth avenue church, Oakland, on the evening of May 20th. A number of appreciative addresses were made. On behalf of their many friends, Mrs. Lyon, a representative of the Chinese school, presented Mr. and Mrs. Latourette with a silver tea set. Mr. Latourette made a fitting response. These friends leave California with a thorough respect and genuine love of the churches of California, where they have lived and labored for about 15 years.—Pacific Baptist.

Two boarders at Mrs. Seol's hotel, who were employed in the paper mills, gave an order for their board, went over to the mill office, drew what was due them and boarded a car for Portland. Chief Burns was advised of the proceedings and telephoned to the officers to arrest the men under a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The men were caught at Eleventh street on the East Side just as they were getting off a car. Chief Burns followed on the next car, and let the men go after paying all arrears. Beside the board bill due, the men had borrowed some money from the landlady.

A large crowd of people attended the Woodmen memorial exercises held at Mountain View cemetery last Sunday afternoon, when the monuments to the memory of George B. Fancher and Charles Deaver. A large procession of the members of Willamette Falls Camp, Woodmen of the World, marched to the cemetery escorted by the Parkplace Band. The Women of Woodcraft assisted in the ceremonies, which were impressive. Flowers were in plentiful evidence and showed up attractively in the decorations. Impressive memorial addresses were made by George K. Rogers, of Oakland, Calif., and Rev. E. S. Bollinger. Professor T. J. Gary recited an appropriate poem, and special music was contributed by the Woodmen choir.

Boys' Washable Suits

Look through our immense gathering of choice washables, if you have a boy. The newest brown, blue and red stripes are shown with a fair sprinkling of good white duck suits in sailor and Russian blouse styles. Sizes 3 to 10 years.

50c to $3.50

Boys' straw hats, 50c to $3

Boys' "Ironclad" hose, 25c

A. B. Steinbach & Co.
POPULAR ONE PRICE HATTERS & CLOTHIERS

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison, cor. entrance

HIGH GRADE WATCHES

The new patterns in Waltham and Elgin Watches represent perfection in the watch manufacture.

They are made in solid gold, gold filled, silver and nickel cases. We call your attention to the new patterns in gold filled cases. In shape, ornamentation, richness of color and artistic finish they cannot be distinguished from the highest grade solid gold watches. They are guaranteed to wear 25 years.

We have them in all sizes and at all prices. Would be pleased to show them to you.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers

WATCHES AND CLOCKS REPAIRED

ALL WORK WARRANTED

