CHILDRENS' DAY EXERCISES

Interesting Programs and Profuse Displays of Flowers.

During the past two Sundays Children's Day exercises have been held in the majority of the churches. The floral display in the Congregational church last Sunday evening was elaborate, and the tasty arrangements of many varieties would have done credit to a rose show. The program consisted of an organ voluntary by Miss Echo Samson; there were songs by the little children; "Children's Day," by Miss Samson's class; a duet, "Happy Hours," Lena Gadke and Amy Thomas; a recitation, "Choosing a Guide," Waldo Coughlin; recitation, "The Children's Part," Edna Kidd; recitation, "Perfect Men," Mr. Freytag's class; "The Shepherd," Emerus Thomas; recitation, "Faith, Hope and Charity," Gladys and Edith Hamilton and Louise Huntley; song, "Beautiful Flowers," Lucille and Veda Bacon and Alila Hart; recitations and songs, "Garlands of Gladness," represented by 18 girls, who went through graceful evolutions with wreaths of flowers; song, "Swing Song," Mary Ross and Anna and Maude Woodward; recitations and songs, "Garlanding the Cross," Mrs. Thomas' class; a solo, "The Holy City," was sung with excellent effect by Mrs. Hinman; song, "Little Hands are Knocking at the Door," Veva Hart, Louise Huntley and Minnie Schatz. Superintendent C. H. Dye presided.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Fully 350 people were present at the Baptist church one week ago last Sunday evening at the children's exercises, which were unusually interesting. Floral decorations were in artistic evidence. After the invocation the response was sung by the school. Miss B. Peters recited "A Legend of the Northland," F. Welch recited "Summer," recitation, "Suppose," by Miss E. McComb; exercise, "A Nosegay," by Miss M. Cooke, assisted by six young ladies; exercise, "Children's Day," by 12 young ladies; "The Missionary Work of the Baptist Publication Society," by the pastor. The recitations and choruses were interspersed with choruses, in which the children had been excellently drilled.

After repeated efforts it was found impossible to get the programs at other churches.

FRATERNAL MATTERS.

Falls City Lodge, A. O. U. W., had one initiation last Saturday night, and five new applications. In connection with the Degree of Honor a joint installation of officers will be held early in July, and a program and refreshments will be attendant features.

Willamette Falls Camp, Woodmen of the World, are negotiating for the lease of the upper part of the building to be erected by Stevens and Howell. The proposed new hall will be 50x52 feet, divided into a banquet 20x30 feet. Folding doors will connect the banquet and lodge rooms. Convenient lockers, closets and a kitchen will be added. The plan is to have the upper part of the building constructed especially for a model lodge hall.

Tualatin Tent, of the Order of Maccabees, is making special efforts in the matter of a Fourth of July celebration at Wright's Springs.

Next Thursday evening the Artisans will have a sociable and entertainment, the losing side in the membership contest, giving the supper.

A delegation from Myrtle Lodge, Degree of Honor, visited the Oswego lodge Tuesday night, and report having met with a very pleasant reception.

The Woodmen of the World will have a grand convention in Portland on August 8th. O. N. Haines, of Oswego, and I. D. Taylor, of Oregon City, are on the committee of arrangements.

Analyzing His Affection.

The young lovers sat beside the waterfall. The rapids and the near-by whirlpool had a strange attraction for the romantic young girl. She had heard the story of the unhappy Indian maiden and the young brave who had gone to their doom, clasped in each other's arms, to the slow music of the Swan Song. That seemed very beautiful to her.

"Jack," said she, "if you saw me struggling in the water near the edge of the falls, would you jump in after me?"

"What would be the use, my dear, when I can't swim," he answered.

"But at least we should perish together," she replied, bravely.

"Yes, there would be no doubt of that," he returned, shuddering at the sound of the cruel waters.

"But haven't you often said you would die for me?" she asked, piqued at his coldness.

"No my dear," replied her practical lover. "If you'll remember, I've always told you that I had an undying love for you!"
