The Junior Endeavorers of the Presbyterian church had a picnic on June 28th at Meldrum Grove. The little folks had a most enjoyable time. Lemonade was served, and each one of the picknickers brought along their lunch. Among the sports were ballplaying, throwing beanbags and a sack race. Most of the boys had wheels, which they tried on the bicycle path. The Juniors returned home on the 7:20 car.—C. G.

When J. M. Tracy and other prominent Clackamas county farmers attended the farmers' institute at Corvallis last week, they inspected the cows at the college farm. It was explained that the per cent. of butter fat produced by these cows was 4.5. Mr. Tracy had kept a record of the tests of milk furnished the Logan cheese factory during recent months, which showed that the difference in favor of Mr. Tracy's cows may have been on account of the feed.

There is an appreciable increase in the amount of fees collected in the county clerk's office for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1901, as compared with the previous year. The total receipts for the year ending June 30th, 1900, was $2383 10, while the receipts for the same period June 30th, this year, was $2918 35, an increase of $535 25 over the previous year. The delinquent taxes paid in on redemption of property sold for taxes amounted to $1750 85, during the month of June. The increase of business in the clerk's office is due to the more probate business, etc., as litigation has not increased.

John Gibbon Post, G. A. R., also was ably represented at the Forest Grove encampment by Sergeant J. Johnson. The following were in attendance from Meade Post, with the name of the company in which they served: C. H. Dauchy, 3rd Minn.; J. R. Williams, 1st Wis.; F. H. Beach, 20th Ind.; J. B. Dimick, Oregon cavalry; C. F. Horn 17th Penn.; Ezra Huston, 140th New York; Patrick Colbert, 37th Ill.; L. W. Ingram, 148th Penn.; George A. Harding, 1st Oregon; Israel B. Putman, 1st Ohio artillery; W. Rittenhouse, 13th Ind.; C. A. Williams, 9th Vermont; George F. Horton, 110th Ohio; A. G. Gwynn, 60th New York; G. Clante, 12th Maine.

The receipts in the county recorder's office for the month of June show a total of $262 65, a decided increase over the same month in former years. The receipts in this month in 1898 were $150 40; in June, 1899, $155 10; in June, 1900, $257 85. During the past month 135 deeds, 51 mortgages and 42 cancellations of mortgages were filed, he total receipts for the past month being $265 65, a considerable increase. Only one month in several years past has surpassed the business of this period—October, 1900. The large volume of business during the past month is due to the fact that many medium-sized farms are being sold to newcomers in various sections of the country, and the deeds are promptly offered for record.

A recent copy of the Genesee Republic, of Illinois, received by Mrs. A. D. Putrow, contains an account of the death of Hammond Livermore, a former well known hotel proprietor of Oregon City. He was a successful landowner, but was burned out in a building that stood on the ground, now occupied by Gadke's plumbing establishment and Young's furniture store. He then leased a part of the Charman block, and became the first proprietor of the Electric Hotel. This paper states that he died at his home in that city on Sunday, June 6th, of paralysis. He was a native of Vermont, born in 1835, and came to Genesee in 1857, where he married Miss Lucy Livermore, both of whom had been engaged in school teaching, the wedding taking place in 1858. The Livermores lived in various places, finally going back to Vermont, where he engaged first in manufacturing shoes, and later paper. He next moved to Oregon City, where he engaged in the hotel business for several years. When Mr. Livermore returned East he again embarked in the hotel business. He was a Mason, belonging to a lodge in Vermont.

If your back is broke the place to get it fixed is at Johnson & Lamb's bicycle repair shop.
